

LAST CONGREGATIONAL RALLY

Convention Closes with a Mass Meeting at Exposition Hall.

EXPERIENCES IN THE FIELD RELATED

Interesting Phases of Life and Social Conditions with Which the Home Missionary Has to Deal - He is Heard for Himself.

Exposition hall was filled last night at the grand home missionary rally, the final meeting of the week of the Congregational convention. All the congregations of the church in the city were present.

The services were opened with the singing of the hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Secretary Washington Choate then read a few verses from the first chapter of the book of Joshua and was followed by Rev. Dresser with the opening prayer.

Dr. Ward, late field secretary of the interior west, the first speaker, after telling some stories, he spoke as follows: "Many of the western boys turn out badly, but there are many others who succeed. When they are first sent out, they are sent into town and if they have the gospel soon lost. I have seen one dressed in old shabby clothes, and his wife was no better off. When you send clothes to missionaries you should try them on your pastor and his wife first."

Dr. Ward closed with eloquent thanks to the church for the recall mission given to the home missionary. He said that he had been in the field for many years and had seen many things. He said that he had seen many things and had seen many things.

offered to go home with me, but I refused. I had him examine the wheels of my buggy and the buckles of the harness. The young man did not say a word, but he had driven that mission fully that night.

"A missionary must know men and how to reach them. It is not a matter of the gospel. He must have grit and judgment in the grand work. In the Black Hills churches have been organized, but the Congregational is open, chiefly by the aid of the Home Missionary society."

"I am somewhat advanced in years and most of my life has been devoted to home missionary work. A good deal has been said about the trials and labors of missionaries and much sympathy has been expressed. But those who need this sympathy most are the secretaries. They need much to carry on their work."

"I have been often asked how I feel toward the work. I feel the same as I entered. If I had another life to live I would give my life for the recall mission. It should be one place harder than another, I would ask to be sent to that place."

Rev. Second was the last speaker. The subject was "America" and the parting benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Herrick. It worth while to recall that the man who suggested last year at Saratoga that the next meeting of the Congregational Home Missionary society be held at Omaha by Rev. Dr. John Askin of Council Bluffs.

Children's Day Services. The services at the First Congregational church yesterday morning were conducted under the auspices of the Sunday school, and were arranged with sole reference to the children of the church. The following and responsive readings, with baptism of children and an address by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Herrick, were given. The services closed with a song, "The Lord is my Shepherd," sung by the Sunday school missionary work in this state.

High School Reconciliation. The reconciliation address to the graduating class of the High school will be delivered next Sunday morning by Rev. S. W. Butler at the St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church.

Omaha Boy Drowned. A young man named McAndrews, residing on Georgia avenue, and a couple of friends went to LaPlatte yesterday on their bicycles. While there they three went into the water and the boy was drowned. The boy was a member of the Sunday school of the church. He was a very good boy and was very popular among his friends. OMAHA GETS THE THIRD

Des Moines Defeated in the Final Game of the First Series.

BOTH PITCHERS WERE VIGOROUSLY BATTED

Luck was with the Home Team and the Sharp Fielding of the Visitors Availed Them Nothing - Rock Island Also Wins.

Twenty-five hundred people congregated at the Charles Street park yesterday afternoon to see the last game of the present series with Des Moines. The struggle was too lopsided to be exciting, but there were times during the battle when the crowd became extremely hilarious. One of these was in the seventh inning when the Rockeurs drove Mr. Holmes into the woods with four singles, three three-baggers and seven runs. He was no hog and knew when he had enough. Bristow, the ex-Omaha, officiated in his stead during the last three innings, and did magnificently, holding the locals down to one hit, and closing them out without an error.

The prohibitionists put up National league ball, and it is a miracle how they were beaten so badly. Mickey Lawrence made their only error, and that was an excellent one. Of the Kourke family Kid Fear and Jack Munyan are the only ones deserving any special mention. The pitcher of the ball like a house after hitting, fielding and running bases in a way that would have been a credit to any player in the country. Tuesday afternoon on Thursday St. Joe was here, and the Rockeurs will make a superhuman effort to take all three games. The score:

POPULISTS HOLD THE TRUMPS

Upon Their Votes Depends the Passage of the Tariff Bill.

CAN BE PURCHASED ONLY BY CONCESSIONS

Finance Committee Devoting Its Energies to the Interests of the Sugar Trust - The Cotton Schedule - Harris to Force the Fighting.

Washington special to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Threats from democratic leaders of the house that the senate Sugar trust bill will never be permitted to become a law still continue to be heard with increasing volume. One thing is certain, the vote on the sugar schedule, clearly defined the situation in the senate. If the populists, Kyle and Allen, vote with the democrats the bill will probably pass the senate. If they do not the bill may be defeated. To one of the anxious democratic senators Mr. Allen has made this statement:

"I do not know how I shall vote. It will depend upon what action the senate takes upon some amendments I have yet to propose. I certainly shall not vote for the bill unless it is to my liking, and unless it shall contain the provisions which it seems to me it ought to contain, and which I shall propose. I know that there will be much opposition to granting these requests which I shall make, but they seem to me to be reasonable. No one has a right to say that he knows how I shall vote when the last roll is called. I shall vote as I see fit. This statement of Mr. Allen is significant. Two of the amendments which he is to propose, are that coal shall go upon the free woolen list, and that woolen clothing shall also be made free. The senator who had the conversation with Allen says:

"I do not see how the framers of the bill can consent to the woolen clothing amendments which Allen has in mind. There are a number of democratic senators who are manufacturing industry who would make a stand in opposition to that. But it is very possible that they may not. I am not sure of the free woolen list. It is not in the bill if it shall ever be reported from the conference committee. Gorman, committee chairman, has been very liberal about the free coal. He has done his duty to his railroad and hunting constituents in having coal put on the dutiable list; it will be necessary to get the woolen clothing on the dutiable list. It will be necessary that there be some concessions made to the woolen industry. If they are to save the regular schedule, and everything seems to be subordinate to that. Mr. Allen may get free coal. I do not see how he can get free woolen clothing. These are only two of the items which he has in view. He will ask for more. He is using the entire neighborhood was aroused. Men, women and children were upon the streets in hundreds. Friends of the reform were in the streets, and the fight occurred and took Mr. Stone, bleeding from his head and was carried to his home. The men who did the fighting escaped before the police reached the scene of action. Mr. Stone's sister, Mrs. Stone, who occurred was the promiscuous jabbering of a couple of hundred people, a pool of blood on the street, and the case of Mr. Stone and Vaschucki were arrested.

LANDER'S MANY GUESTS. Rock Springs Give a Taste of Genuine Wyoming Hospitality. LANDER, Wyo. June 1.—(Special to The Bee.)—Yesterday and today an excursion party, consisting of forty-five business men from Rock Springs, accompanied by the Rock Springs brass band, was entertained here. The visitors were met about nine miles from the city by a committee of Lander men, headed by Mayor Trestone, who, after a hearty speech, escorted them to the city. Mr. Dennis Waters a huge key key man, who has been in the city for some time, on behalf of Rock Springs, made a neat reply. In the evening a grand dinner was given by the Lander men, and Mr. Waters, on behalf of Rock Springs, made a neat reply. In the evening a grand dinner was given by the Lander men, and Mr. Waters, on behalf of Rock Springs, made a neat reply.

William Yancy, a pure-blooded negro and ex-slave from the south, had lived to past middle age, and always had been a very strong and vigorous man. He had been a very strong and vigorous man. He had been a very strong and vigorous man. He had been a very strong and vigorous man.

There are indications, however, that the managers of the bill in the senate are endeavoring to frame the bill as they go along, so that there shall be the least possible friction. The cotton schedule is a striking illustration of this in the way that the changes in the cotton schedule are now being prepared. The situation is anomalous. It is not clear how the framers of the senate tariff bill think that they have discovered economy and advantage. Divide and conquer is one of the maxims.

of the convent in that city had administered the remedy with distinguished success to crowds of people who came to the convent for the medicine. The remedy was prepared and given out. The prescription is here given for what it is worth:

Sulphate of zinc, one grain. Poudre (dilatant), one grain. Half teaspoonful of sugar. Mix thoroughly with two teaspoonful of water, and four ounces of water. Dose: Teaspoonful every hour. It will disappear in twelve hours.

At the Methodist church the exercises were very pretty and the decorations were tasteful. The exercises at the Presbyterian church were original. A floral clock was one of the attractions and a poem written for the occasion by W. Reed Duray was read. The services at the Baptist church were held in the evening.

Strange Picture of America. A well known Swiss writer, who visited the World's fair, and was then forced to remain here for some time on account of illness, has joined the long list of foreigners who regard "America" as a favorite subject for "disertation." In a recent issue of the Neue Zurichische Zeitung, one of the most famous Swiss journals, under the heading, "What is America?" he wrote: "America is a land compared with which Europe is only a peninsula; the United States form a country compared with which the European kingdoms are pygmies. America is the land of unmeasured distances and dimensions; the land of dollars and electricity; the land where the prairies are more extensive, the rivers mightier, the waterfalls deeper, the bridges longer, the lightning expresses faster, the catastrophes more terrible than in any other country in the world. It is the land where the houses are higher, the flocks of birds more numerous, the rich richer, the poor poorer, the millions greater, the thieves more daring, the murderers more shameless, the educated fewer, the teeth more generally false, the corsets narrower, the disease more deadly, corruption more general, the times more nervous, the men more nervous
