IN A CONDITION OF LAZINESS

Society, Just Able to Get About, Turns to Weddings for Relief.

CUPID HOLDS COURT IN THE SWELL WORLD

The Eachelors and Their Fete Champetre-Card Party in Honor of Captain and Mrs. Avers-Events that Have Distinguished the Week,

Laziness about describes the condition of society at the present time, and there is little prospect of the swell world reaching any other condition under the present humid nature of the weather.

Cupid has been particularly busy during the past week, but his campaign is nearing a close, and in a very few weeks the "dear little god of love" will rest on his laurels. And there is a pretty big pile for him to rest on, notwithstanding the financial depression.

Pretty June Wedding.

Tuesday afternoon a pretty wedding oc curred at the Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church, Miss Mabel Cole of Eric, Pa., and George Forgan of this city being the contracting parties, Rev. Charles G. Sterling officiatiog. Shortly after 2 p. m. the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. W. E. Critzer playing Mendelsaohn's wedding march. The bride was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles H. Annan (who gave her away), and Miss Maggie C. Forgan as maid of honor, and was met at the altar by the groom, attended by his brother, Mr. Robert L. Forgan. The party was preceded by Mr. Joseph Redfield and Mr. James H. Holmes

The bride looked very sweet in a gown of cream brocaded silk entraine and tulle bridal vell trimmed with bride's roses and carrying a bouquet of the same. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Annan, to which the relatives of both families were invited. The church and house were beauti-fully decorated with jessamine, la France roses and tropical plants. After the wedding feast Mr. and Mrs. Forgan left for Denver Pike's Peak, Hot Springs and other western of interest amidst a shower of rice and old slippers. The numerous presents were handsome and costly, and showed the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. After July 1 they will be at home at 4040 Seward street.

Mayriage in Kountze Place.

Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock the marriage of Miss Winifred E. Parmeter and Mr. Alfred J. Latey was solemnized at the Universalist church, Twenty-first and Lathrop streets, Rev. Augusta Chapin officiating. The church was profusely decorated for the occasion, and the ceremony was as pretty as it could well be. At the hour named the bridal procession entered the church, pre-ceded by ushers, Messrs, Proux, Oleson and Sparrow. Miss Bessie Latey acted as brides-maid and Mr. Frank E. Underwood as best man, the bride being also attended by her younger sister, Inez, a pretty little tot of 6 years. The bride wore a beautiful gown of tan-pink slik, trimmed with pink changeable silk and carried a boquet of La France roses, The bridesmald was attired in white lawn. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Congleton, on Maple street, at which a large number were present. The bride and groom left for Chleago on the evening train, and while away will also visit Milwaukee and Ripon, Wis. The groom is a mail clerk in the Omaha postoffice and the bride a most estimable young lady. The postoffice emyes presented the couple with a handso solid silver tea set, and many other presents -were received by them from their friends.

Musicale at the Commercial Club.

One of the pleasant events of last week was the musicale given for Miss Kathryn Morgan of Chicago by her friends, Mesdames Charles F. Drexel and L. Swallenberg and Miss M. B. Smith, in the rooms of the Com-mercial club. In honor of the occession the cornted and the event one of delightful charm. The society, in bringing about this festival, does so in the helief that it will tend to encourage the cultivation of music and song. The com-mittee of arrangements is a very represent-Organ-Offertory-The Evening Star ative one, and among those who are taking an active part in making the affair a success are Mayor Gilroy, ex-Mayors R. Grace and Hugh Grant, Chauncey M. Depew, E. Ellery Anderson, James Kilbreth, collector of the port of New York, Andrew Carnegle, R. Myers, Joseph H. Choate., George B. McClel-lan, W. B.Bradford Merrill, Charles A. Dana, John L. Cockerill and Judge P. Henry Doug-las. All the principal societies in every state east of the Mississippi will be represented and it is expected that a chorus of 10,000 male voices will be heard. This will constitute the largest male chorus ever leard in this country. The committee has entrusted the management of the carnival o James Morrisey, and in addition to the singing societies, the members of which are all nonprofessional, the following well known soloists have been engaged: Amelia Materna, Emma Juch, Lillian Blauvelt, Madame Tavary, Maud Powell, Guiseppe Campanini, Emil Fisher, Conrad Behrens, Arthur Freidheim and Victor Herbert. The musical directors, Messrs. Vanderstucken, Zoolner and Hein, have been laboring very ffectually for the past three months at re hearsals with the several societies which are to take part and they are perfectly satis-fied with the result of their labors. In all there will be five concerts. The opening performance will be at 8:30 o'clock on Saturday evening, June 23, and it will be given In honor of the visiting singers. The sec-ond will take place on Sunday afternoon It will be devoted to prize singing, in which male chorus societies of the first and third class will compete. The former, consisting of representatives from Buffalo, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and New York, will sing Zerlatta's "Das Grab im Buzento." The third, class, comprising societies from every state east of the Mississippi, will render Pache's "Walkeinsamkeit." The prizes in each class will be: First, a Steinway grand plano; second, a solid silver cup; third, a solid silver wreath. The competitive prize singing for the second class will take place on Monday afternoon, June 25, when Von Weinzerla's "Herrbst Nacht" will be sung. The prizes in the second class will be similar to those of the first and third classes. The first concert will be given on Monday nd all the prominent artists mentioned will take part in it. President Cleveland and Governor Flower have written to the com-mittee accepting the invitations to attend, and it is expected that many notable per-sons from the different states will come to formed under the direction of Mr. Haven see the performance. The decorators are already busy at work on the garden, and when the doors are thrown open the spectators will be confronted with a dazzling ing of the stars and stripes and the German tricolor, festooned with natural flowers and garlands. The front of the building on the Madison Square side is similarly decorated. In case a "hot spell" should pay a visit during the celebration the immense sliding roof can be thrown open, thus giving the spectators the pleasure of an open air concert A triumphal arch is being erected in front.
