ONE PUNCH ONLY NEEDED

Big Joe Choynski All but Whipped by Long Bob Fitzsimmons.

RED HOT FIGHT AT CULTURED BOSTON

Bob Was All but Gone in the Third Round. but Recovered and Had Joe Practically Out When the Police Stopped the Fight in the Fifth

BOSTON, June 18 .- At the Boston theater onight Bob Fitzsimmons, champion middleweight of the world and challenger of Jim Corbett, turned an almost certain defeat into victory. Had not the police interfered it was 10 to I that he would have finished Joe Choynski in a punch. As it was the match was declared a draw, but no one present will ever claim Choynski was a foeman worthy to combat the lanky Australian. No less than 3,000 cheering, howling men enjoyed the battle, the like of which Boston has never seen before.

Chovnski was the first to appear, and in his wake came a retinue of handlers and seconds, including Ned McAver and Parson Davies. The Californian looked to be in the best of condition. Fitzsimmons followed shortly afterwards, attended by his protege and young Handler. He looked a trifle heavier than his opponent, and his condition seemed flawless. Then Dan Murphy sounded the gong and the fight commenced. Round 1—Both men sprang to the center of the circle and awaited an opportunity. Fitz was the first to lead, missing a left hand swing by Choynski ducking. The Australian led again, landing his left lightly on Choynski's chin and received an easy tap on the stomach in return. Honors were even when the round ended.

Round 2—Fitz had evidently gauged his man, for no sooner had he reached the center than he tapped him in the face with his long left. This seemed to waken the Californian, for with a smile he let go right and left, the latter landing with good effect on Fitz' body. Twice did Fitz miss left hand swings, but towards the finish he got Choynski in a corner and an uppercut grazed Joe's law. A clinch followed and the gong ended the round.

MR. FITZ IN TROUBLE.

Round 3—Fitz was the first to reach the center of the ring and as Choynski neared Davies. The Californian looked to be in the

MR. FITZ IN TROUBLE.

Round 3—Fitz was the first to reach the center of the ring, and as Choynski neared him he feinted, and then let go a very victous left. Joe sidestepped him, and quick as a flash shot out his left. It landed on the point of the jaw and Fitz measured his length on the floor. The audience sprang to their feet as one man, but amid the din Fitz heard Daley count off the seconds until nine were reached, when he staggered to his feet groggy, but full of cunning. Joe was after him redhot, and twice again did he land his left and right, though not heavily, and by a lucky chance Fitz clinched Joe's neck. Daley broke them apart time and again. Choynski was wearing himself Joe's neck. Daley broke them apart time and again. Choynski was wearing himself out, while the Australian was rapidly recovering himself, and hardly a minute after he was knocked down. He round came to a close with both men just staggering around, each trying hard to get in a final blow, which seemed about all that was needed to finish either one.

Round 4-Fitz's wonderful recuperative power had asserted itself. While Choynski was leg weary and slow in answering time.

power had asserted itself. While Choynski was leg weary and slow in answering time, the Australian started into Choynski at once, and while Joe was endeavoring to place a left that would amount to something, Fitz hit him twice in the face and jaw and floored him, and when he arose repeated the dose. Twice more did Fitz floor him, but each time the Californian staggered to his feet. The battle was finally getting gory, and Captain Warden, followed by a squad of officers, entered the ring and told Daley that the mill must stop if the spectators did not cease their yelling. This ended the round, which was about thirty seconds short.

ONLY LACKED A PUNCH.

ONLY LACKED A PUNCH. ONLY LACKED A PUNCH.

Round 5-Fitz started to finish Choynski and made a terrific swing for Joe's jaw with his left. It was a trifle high, but struck the Californian on the ear, felling him. He staggered to his feet, but a push from Fitz sent him sprawling in a corner, clinging to the ropes. He pulled himself up and clinched the Antipodean. Daley parted them and Fitz again landed his left on Joe's jaw, flooring him for the last time. As he essayed to rise Captain Warden made his appearance, and this time said that under no conditions would be allow the battle to continue. Accornallow the battle to continue ing to the articles, which read that if both men were on their feet and willing to go on at the finish of the stipulated eight rounds, it should be declared a draw, there was but one decision for Daley to make, and the fight was declared a draw.

Matters of Great Import to the Amateur World Under Discussion.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS AT PARIS

Knotty Questions, Mostly Regarding Pro fessionalism, Which Are to Be Settled -Trying to Revive the Olympian Games-Betting and Amateurism.

PARIS, June 18 .- The first business meeting of the international congress of amateur athletic associations was held today at Sorbonne, Vicomte de Jouze, president of the Society of Athletic Sports, presiding. A committee was appointed to consider the question of amateurism, and another cammittee was appointed to report upon the possibility of reviving the Olympian games. The following are the points into which the first committee will inquire: 1. Definition of an amateur; bases of such definition. The possibility and utility of an international definition.

2. Suspension, disqualification and rehabilitation; facts which justify this procedure and the means of proof. 3. Is it right to maintain a distinction between different sports, from the amateur's point of view, especially in racing (gentle-be professional in one sport and an amateur in another."

4. The value of works of art offered as prizes. Should it be limited? What steps should be taken against those who sell articles which they have won as prizes?

5. Gate money. Should it be divided between the associations interested or between the competitors, or may it be applied to the traveling expenses of the visiting associatraveling expenses of the visiting associations? In what proportion should travel-ing expenses of teams or their members be borne by the opposing association and by themselves? 6 Should the general definition of an amateur be applicable to all sports? imply special restrictions in regard to cycling, rowing, athletic sports, etc.?

7. Betting as affecting the status of amaeurism; means of checking it. By a unanimous vote the congress decided o revive the Olympian games and not to ad-

HAD TO GIVE UP THE RACE. Satanita Meets with an Accident and Towed

Into Port. DOVER, June 18 .- The fifty-mile channel yacht race had an inauspicious beginning today. A strong breeze was blowing when the Britannia, the prince of Wales' yacht, and the Satanita set sall, giving promise of an exciting contest. However, in getting under way the Britannia narrowly missed a collision. The yachts had gone but a mile or two when it became apparent that some mishap had befallen the Satanita. She put about and a tug went to her assistance and towed her into port. Her weather back-stay had been carried away.

Could Not Collect the Cash. TANGIER, June 18.-The Spanish war ship which was sent with a treasury official to Mazagan in order to receive the first installment of the war indemnity which Morocco agreed to pay to Spain as a result of the rising of the Riffs and the attacks upon the Spanish troops at Melilla, has returned here, having been unable to obtain any of the money promised. The indemnity which Spain agreed to accept from Morocco was $4,000,000 of 22,000,000 pesetas.

FIRE AND POLICE MATTERS. Pay of Ex-Officers During Suspension Saloon Keepers and Reporting Officers. The Board of Fire and Police commis-sioners last night allowed ex-Captain Cornick pay for the whole month of May and ex-Sergeant Shoop was allowed pay for the ten days during which he was su pended by the ex-captain. J. M. Vaughn also wanted pay for some of the time he was off duty, but his claim was referred to the committee on finance. N. Hall was allowed $5 for the destruction of a gate by one of the patrol wagon crews, but the claim of H. M. Itnyer for $65.50 for damages to his carriage by a runaway fire team was not allowed.

The board requested the seven men who have been on the special reserve list for appointment on the police force to appear before the board on Thursday evening at 7:30 and receive their commissions as regular policemen. by one of the patrol wagon crews, but the Chief Seavey publicly compilmented Officer D. W. Her for bravery displayed in capturing Burglar Bridgewater on the flight of June 6. He called the especial attention of the board to the matter.

The committee on laws and ordinances filed a lengthy report concerning the trouble between the saloon keepers, the policemen and, the city prosecutor. The policemen and, the city prosecutor will not file complaints based on their reports of saloons violating the Sunday closing law, and the city prosecutor says that the evidence furnished him by the police would make a prosecution a waste of time and a needless expense to the city. The committee suggested that there was nothing to hinder the policemen or the chief himself from filing a personal complaint against such violators and forcing the city prosecutor to prosecute the alleged offender. As Henry Certer and John Dahmke have been found guilty of keeping their places open on Sunday, the board ordered them to appear before that body for trial and to show why their licenses should not be revoked.

The board adjourned until Thursday The board adjourned until Thursday evening, when it will hold a special meet-

ATCHISON CUTS DEEP.

Sweeping Reduction from the Missouri

River to Denver and Return. CHICAGO, June 18.-The Atchison road will probably announce tomorrow norning a rate of $10.75 between the Missouri river and Denver and $15 between Chicago and Denver as the round trip rate for expansion tusiness. This will be a very deep cut from the existing tariffs and will of necessity compel all the other lines to come in or lose the greater part of the business. The reduction is not absolutely certain, but the chances are very strong that the Atchison will put in the reduced rates tomorrow.

Runaway Girl Detained. The conductor of the Union Pacific train arriving from the west at 6 o'clock last evening received a telegram from Butte. Mont, yesterday asking him to cause the Mont, yesterday asking him to cause the detention at Omaha of a young lady on his train, who was disguised as a sister of charity, and on her way to South Dakota. The telegram enjoined that she should be treated with the utmost kindness. On the arrival of the train here Depot Officer Flering tunged the girl over to the uolice. She was not arrested, but provided with suitable accommodations in the city. Her name could not last night be learned, nor the circumstances of her flight from Montana.

THE WORLD PROGRESSES

Although It Took Five Thousand Years To Make A Discovery.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

What Charles the First's Physician Did, And What Modern Chemists and Disoverers are Doing

Thousands of people saw Charles I. beheaded in 1648. It was a great show, a genuine tragedy, and free to the public. Yet in all that crowd there was but one man who knew why the blood spurted from the dissevered arteries in the monarch's neck. That was Dr. Harvey, the king's physician. He had announced the circulation of the blood, and in so doing he started a tremendous scandal. People called him a fool, a meddler, a madman. They said he ought to be sent to the block. What a lucky thing it was that the Puritan's chopped off the king's head instead of Harvey's. A king more or less doesn't matter, but a thinker more or less does,

Thank mercy, it's safer now to tell new truth that it was 250 years ago. That's why we are not afraid to publish these letters, nor to talk freely about what they mean.

First, "I have a sister-a young lady of 21 years. She has been troubled with con-stipation in the worst form; also with catarrh of the stomach and bowels and prostration of the nerves. She suffered every-thing short of death, and would break down in nervous crying spells. We spent much money with doctors in Chicago and Ludington, but none of them were able to help her We saw some statements in the papers, and resolved to try the new pre-digested food remedy. Previous to that time she found nothing that would move her bowels without he aid of the syringe.

"But what a change! Paskola, the new pre-digested food, is doing wonderful work with her. Although up to date she has taken it only about a week, the trembling has stopped, she is regular twice a day and has no more crying spells. Her sleep, which has been broken and wretched, is now sound and refreshing. She cats heartily and feels like another person. We are so thankful, and I feel it my duty to make known the facts. Yours, etc., Sidney C. Gay, Ludington, Mich., March 26, 1894." Another—"I began taking Paskola January 1894. I had been sick in bed seven or eight weeks and could not turn myself in bed without help. I had no appetite—could take nothing but a little milk and water. and even that was hard work. But the doctor said I must have some nourishment. was growing weaker and weaker, and my friends and the doctor thought I must go "The first dose of Paskola gave a little appetite and I began to revive. My strength nereased so that in a week from the time I took the first dose I weighed eighty-three inds, and the next week I weighed eightyeight pounds. In five weeks I gained twenty ounds. My general weight is from 140 to 150 pounds; so you can see how run down I was. I feel my strength increasing every day. For years I have suffered with indigestion and constipation, and had doctored and taken this and that without avail. It can now truly say that with the help of the good Lord Paskola has done a wonderful work for me. Yours truly, J. Calvin ful work for me. Yours truly, J. Calvir. Barnard, London, N. H., February 14, 1894. Paskola is not a medicine at all, but an artificially digested starch food which (because it is digested in advance) leaves the cause it is digested in authors tired and perhaps abused digestive organs to rest and get well, while the body grows strong and plump on Paskola and other strong and plump on Paskola and food taken with it and digested by it. Wonderful and yet simple idea!

wasn't it put into force long ago? From what death-dealing avalanches of drugs, saturated with cod liver oil, would it not have saved the human race! We don't know. Why were men 5,000 years finding out the fact that the blood circulates in the human body? Yet there the truth was, hammering away inside of hem, all the while, But one thing is sure. Having discovered it last that disease-functional disturbance through mal-nutrition—is cured, not by send-ing poisonous drugs to run amuck through the system, but by means of Paskola, we shall continue to announce the truth, and the army of the pale, weak, thin, run down and emaciated will continue to take the ood remedy, get well and write thankful letters. Paskola may be obtained of any reputable lruggist. A pamphlet on food digestion will be mailed free on application to The Pre Digested Food Co., 30 Reade st., New York.
