CONTEST FOR DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

Several Aspirants Working Hard for the Coveted Prize-Programs of the Various Camp Fires to Be Held this Evening.

The state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will open this morning. All day yesterday the blue-coated and brassbuttoned veterans kept dropping in by little squads, and ex-Department Commander Steadman stated yesterday afternoon that he had never seen an encampment with so large an attendance the day before the opening. All the indications last night were that the citizens would find it no small matter to provide for the physical needs of the visitors, as entertainment has only been provided for about 1,000 visitors, while it is expected that the attendance will run up to five or ten times that number. At all events, there is no reason why the committee on entertainment should rest on its oars now.

The rain and gloom of the early part of the day brought a general foreboding, but in the afternoon the clouds disappeared, the sun came out, and by nightfall the indications were that Council Bluffs would present the encampment the finest thing it had ever seen in the way of weather, as in everything

During the afternoon the decorations began to appear. Almost every business house of any pretensions in the city was wrapped in the national colors, and the effects in many cases were decidedly handsome. The city buildings, including the fire houses, were beautifully decked out in red, white and blue, the decorations being prepared by the city employes. Over the door of the city jail was hung a fine banner inscribed with the word "Welcome."

tunda of the Ogden hotel, which is the of-ficial headquarters, was filled with old sol-diers who have been the heroes of a dozen or more battles and nineteen encampments. There were Phil Schaller of Sac City partment commander; M. L. Leonard of Des partment commander; M. L. Leonard of Dea Moines, adjutant general; E. R. Hutchins of Des Moines, chief of staff; C. W. Neal of Stuart, J. B. Atkins of Council Bluffs, Wil-liam Dean of Waterloo, J. E. Jaynes of Iowa City and Harry B. Shaw of Nora Springs, of the board of control; Captain Thomas Bell of Fairfield and L. Strouse of West Mitchell, senior and junior vice commander; George K. Hoover of Davenport, department chaplain, and a host of others who do not happen to hold at present any office in the encamp-

One of the main items of business to be transacted at the meeting is the election of a successor to Phil Schaller, the present department commander. The battle, which it is thought will be fought on Thursday in the secret business session, will undoubtedly be hotly contested. There are three candidates prominently mentioned for the place, namely, George Newman of Cedar Falls, Captain M. B. Davis of Sloux City and Captain Thomas Bell of Fairfield. The Bee has it from a prominent member of the Grand Army that Newman is the coming man, although Davis, it is said, will be accompanied by a carload of veterans from Sloux City and that vicinity, bent on compassing his election if enthusi-astic support can do it.

An Eye for an Ear. A gentler an who has not had his connection with the Salvation army severed for any great length of time undertook to go home from the meeting at the army barracks Sunday night, but ran up against an obstacle in the shape of the girl's big brother. The girl had long been partial to the ex-soldier, but the same could not be said of her family. They were walking along on Ninth avenue in a very contented manner when the brother put in an appearance and de-manded gore. He soon got it, for the salva-tion man was a fighting soldier. Blows were rained on one another's countenances, but the Salvation man finally emerged from the conflict victorious, with a badly chewed ear, but leaving the marks of his fist about the eye of his opponent. He then marched home with the girl. There have been so

COLUMBIA CLOTHING CO.: Close out entire balance WET and SMOKED clothing next week atr any sacrifice, as we want this entire matter closed up just as soon as possible. Yours, THE UNDERWRITERS INSURANCE CO.'S,

So, beginning Monday, June 19th,

The biggest slaughter that has ever yet taken place for Al clothing, only a little wet, smoked and mussed will commence.

$15.00, $18.00 and $22.00 suits, high grade cassimeres, black and fancy worsteds n cutaways and sacks, all latest styles, long regent cuts, more easity damaged by smoke than the cheaper grades (we carried a big stock of these fine goods), and on which the Insurance companies have to make up a greater per centage of loss makes the reductions on this expensive clothing much larger than on the lower grades.

This week this fine stock of $15, $18 and $22 suits is knifed so low that by readng the description and prices for them below you will readily be surprised.

What we do, others cannot.

No Omaha firms carrying clothing made in sweat house tenements in the slums of New York City and who try to mislead the public by stating that the goods are imported can touch the Fire Prices (although they would feign have you believe it.)

Smell their clothing and see if it is imported.

The Insurance Money is What Knocks.
