Republicans Select Delegates to the State, Congressional and Judicial Conventions. SIMS ENDORSED FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

No Instructions Given the Congressional or Judicial Delegates—Frank Shinn Gives a Pertinent Reason for Declining to Speak.

The county convention of the Pittawatimian republicans was held yesterday afternoon in the superior court room at the county court house, and in spite of the bad weather there was a good attendance from all parts of the county.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock by Chairman Hazelton of the county central committee, and Roscoe Barton of Knox township was chosen temporary chairman.

The following committee were chosen, one member being taken from each district in the county: Credentials—L. L. Baird, J. S. Norton, C. P. Lindell, C. F. Carver, H. Stevenson, J. B. Matlock, G. W. Strong.

Permanent Organization—A. L. Preston, J. R. Owens, John Sides, H. Kilpatrick, C. A. Morgan, L. Shubert, D. E. Dryden. Resolutions—Charles Converse, A. D. Putnam, Frank Shinn, E. D. Fisher, George W. Hewitt, A. F. Clatterbuck, D. H. Dalley.

IT IS AN INTRICATE QUESTION

Some of the Difficulties that Surround a Growing Financial Problem.

PACIFIC RAILROADS' DEBT TO THE GOVERNMENT

Something About the Different Schemes Now Before Congress and Their Chances of Passage—Delayed by the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Few more intricate and difficult problems have ever faced congress than the settlement of the financial arrangements of the Pacific railroads which has engaged the attention of committees of the house and senate this session.

Two propositions have been advanced and more or less discussed, the principal one being that the government should assume the debt of the railroads.

The second proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The third proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The fourth proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The fifth proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The sixth proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The seventh proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The eighth proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The ninth proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.

The tenth proposition is that the government should assume the debt of the railroads, but that the railroads should be allowed to continue to operate as at present.
