DES MOINES, June 21.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The error column shows how Omaha was beaten today. Perhaps some of them were excusable, especially on McVey's account, as he was severely hurt in the early part of the game, and was hardly fit to play afterwards. The third baseman's errors, however, were all very rank, and his bad throws were the cause of McVey's injury and subsequent errors. A heavy shower about 2 o'clock made the grounds heavy, and the game was not begun till after 4 o'clock. Boxendale did fairly well in the box, barring a little wildness. In the fifth inning, when Omaha got two runs and tied the score, it looked like they might win the game at the gait they were going, but poor playing of Dolan and McVey gave the home team the advantage and the game. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 21.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Lincoln won from St. Joseph today in the prettiest contest ever played in the park here. It was a ten-inning game and the score was 2 to 1. ROCK ISLANDS THIS AFTERNOON.

Harry Sage, with His Leaders, and Papa Bill's Boys Meet Again.

The Omahas open up a series of twelve games at the Charles Street park, during which they will play all the eastern clubs, who are now on their second western trip. The Rock Islands, who now lead in the race, play here this afternoon, tomorrow and Sunday. They have been considerably strengthened since their initial appearance here and are putting up a really gilt edge article of the game. By a plucky fight they have ousted St. Joe from the top position and will strain every nerve and sinew to increase their lead today. This trip means much to them, as they think if they are able to retain their advantage until they reach their own cellar door that they will have a cinch on the flag. That they will be equal to this, however, is doubtful, as Lincoln, Omaha and Des Moines are all playing exceedingly well, and there is not a team in the three that the Illinoisans have any license to beat. Captain McVey says he intends to give them a backset this afternoon, and repeat the dose tomorrow and Sunday. If he does the Rourkes will be in the lead by Monday next. The positions are as follows:

Omaha.	Position.	Rock Island
Seery	Middle	Andrews
Munyun	Second	Connors
McVey	First	Cantillion
Moran	Catch	Zeis
Fear	Short	Lynch
Rourke	Flight	Sage
Pedros	Left	Katz
Dolan	Third	Hill
Whitehill	Pitch	Sonier

RAMAPO WINS THE SUBURBAN.

Gideon & Daly's Candidate Justifies the Faith of the Public in Him.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Ramapo went to the post an 8 to 5 favorite in the great Suburban, and justified the faith of his backers, winning nicely by a length in 2:06 1-5, a new record, and very fast for the track. There was a great crowd at the Sheepshead Bay track, and the first three races were impatiently watched. It was hot everywhere. In the betting ring it was like an oven when the betting began, and the struggling mass of people fought with each other to get the best odds. The first odds posted in the betting ring were as follows: Sir Walter, 4 to 1; King Lee, 15 to 1; Ramapo, 8 to 5; Kinglet, 25 to 1; Comanche, 15 to 1; Charade, 100 to 1; Henry of Navarre, 40 to 1; Stowaway, 40 to 1; Pickpocket, 8 to 1; Sport, 10 to 1; Banquet, 10 to 1; Don Alonzo, 25 to 1.

The track was in perfect condition, being almost as hard and springy as the dirt track. Several hurdles were scattered at intervals over the inner field, and directly in front of the grand stand was the water-jump, a formidable obstacle for the steeplechasers. An even dozen starters lined up, the horses, weights and riders being: Sir Walter, 120, Doggett; Ramapo, 120, Taral; Banquet, 119, Sims; Don Alonzo, 121½, Lamley; Sport, 114, Thompson; Charade, 111, Blake; Comanche, 112, Martin; Pickpocket, 110, Bergen; King Lee, 110, Thorpe; Henry of Navarre, 108, Perkins; Kinglet, 105, Griffin; Stowaway, 100, McDermott. Griffin, quick to get off, rushed to the front immediately with Kinglet, but he only got a length away when Banquet shot out after him, followed by Ramapo, Pickpocket and Henry of Navarre. The pace was not pushed, Griffin taking a hold of Kinglet's head and reaching the quarter post in twenty-five and one-half seconds, a length in front of Banquet, Ramapo, Pickpocket and Henry of Navarre next, all lengths apart. The pace quickened a trifle after leaving the quarter post, but Kinglet still led by a length at the half, which was reached in fifty-one and three-quarter seconds, Banquet second, lapped to the head by Ramapo, Pickpocket and Henry of Navarre being close up. Kinglet then began to tire, he having performed his duty of pacemaker for his stable companion, Ramapo, in clever style. Passing the three-quarters pole game old Banquet made a bold bid for victory, and, taking the lead from Kinglet, showed the way into the home stretch, but only on sufferance, however, as Jockey Fred Taral, seeing Kinglet give it up, went to work on Ramapo, and with giant strides the favorite slowly, but surely, overhauled Banquet, while Sir Walter forged into third place. Sport coming up too fast. All through the home stretch it was an easy thing for Ramapo, who won easily by a length, Banquet, whipped and spurred, but all to no purpose, so far as the first money was concerned, struggled in second place, three lengths before Jockey Perkins had Henry of Navarre and Perkins back in the rear. The time was 2:06 1-5, which is very fast time for Sheepshead Bay track. The mile was run in 1:40½, after which the pace fell off. Kinglet had run them leg weary during the first part of the journey, and left his stable companion to win the rich prize for Gideon & Daly. Taral is the hero of the hour, he having rode the winners in the Brooklyn handicap, in the Metropolitan handicap, and in the Suburban handicap of 1894, being the only jockey ever performing the feat.

The athletic committee of the Y. M. C. A. is endeavoring to make an arrangement whereby the public generally can see a game of ball on every Wednesday between the Y. M. C. A. championship team and one of the local teams. In fact, the athletic committee hopes to induce the Omaha Western association team to consent to play the Y. M. C. A. team a series of three games on the Y. M. C. A. grounds and a series of three games on the Omahas' grounds, and thus give the lovers of the national game a chance to indulge themselves after the worry of business is over for the day.
