Attorneys live up the court some. Reparatee and Pointed Questions Give the Solemnity of the Case a Rather Amusing Turn—Judge Lewis Sentences a Batch of Prisoners.

L. H. Peterson of Logan was before Judge Smith in the district court yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus for the purpose of having it determined whether or not he is of unsound mind.

The hearing yesterday was amusing in its character, Attorney Berry of Logan, who looked after the interests of the prisoner, having a facility of saying things that convulsed the whole court room.

County Auditor Matthews is exhibiting with a great deal of pride an interesting relic of the late war in the shape of a poem written at a time when the northern forces were almost out of ammunition.

The evidence went to show that Peterson was a crank on religious subjects, and claimed to have direct guidance from heaven for all the steps he took.

Our millinery department closes June 30. Commencing tomorrow, we offer our entire stock of millinery at exactly half price.

Upon summing up the case Judge Smith stated that one evidence to him that Peterson was really insane was that at the hour of noon adjournment Peterson came up to him, grabbed him by the hand and inquired if he thought him insane.
