SUCCESS FROM THE SENDOFF

Blue Ribbon Races Opened Under the Most Gratifying Conditions.

ATTENDANCE LARGE AND SPORT SPLENDID

Four of the Finest and Fastest Races Ever Driven in the West, with a Mile Exhibition by Alix in 2:11 1-2.

The first day of Clinton Briggs' racing meeting at Union park yesterday was a success in every respect. Fully 4,500 people from Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs were present and the enclosure for carriages was crowded with the swell turnouts of the three cities. Many ladies were present and they took as much interest in the result of the races as did the men who love fine horseflesh.

The day was all that could be desired for trials of speed and the pretty little park never showed to better advantage. There was just enough breeze to keep the track clear from dust, and while the course became a little cuppy toward the last, some excellent records were made; in fact it was the best racing meeting that has ever been held in this part of the country. At no meeting in this part of the country has there been assembled so much valuable and speedy horse flesh and the crowd was held until a late hour by the event. There was only one drawback, and that was the long delay in starting the free-for-all pacing dash of a half mile. The starter could not get the horses together, and it was an hour before the flag dropped on them. But Colonel Harry Loper, the starter, on the program, and that during the remainder of the meeting he would call the horses in the first race to the post promptly at 2 o'clock.

at 2 o'clock. The judges were: H. R. Reed of Lincoln; W. P. McNair of Wichita; W. H. McIntyre, Omaha. Timers, D. T. Mount, E. P. Peck, Omaha; Ed Dubois, Council Bluffs, and Otto Bluhm of Council Bluffs was clerk of the

It was about 2:30 when Colonel Lope called the horses to the post for the first event, the 2:25 trot, for a purse of $800. There were eight starters in this race, as follows: Kate Caffrey, blk. m., by Charles Caffrey, C. H. Briggs, Omaha; King Patchen, blk. h., by The King, McKugan Bros., Kirksville, Mo.; Rose, br. m., by Bashaw Chief, R. T. Cory, Pueblo, Colo.; Ella O. Chief, R. T. Cory, Puesdo, Colo, Ena O., bik, m., Du Bois Bross, Denver; Lovelace, br. h., by Egotist, E. D. Gould, Fullerton, Neb.; Don H. c. h., by Jeany, jr., O. H. WON IT IN STRAIGHTS.

Kate Caffrey drew the pole for the first eat, and when they came down to the post it was seen that the drivers and horse were too anxious to get a good start. Patchen was in a bad humor, and when his driver went to turn him toward the judges' stand for a second scoring he jumped to one side, throwing Driver Curl from his The firy animal started to run away and the driver was dragged across the track under the sulky, but held on to the lines. The horse tried to jump the fence, but was prevented, and several trackmen succeeded in subduing him. Some of his harness was broken, and time was called infill it could be repaired. The driver ex-hibited great coolness and good judgment in hanging on to the fractious animal and prevented further accidents. During the exattement a horse hitched near the betting booths broke loose, and in running through the grove smashed the outfit hitched to to kindling wood. Patchen still acted ugly and disconcerted the other horses so that a good scoring was an impossibility, but the starter called the drivers up and threatened to fine every one of them $25 unless they came up in good order. The horses were sent off on the fourth score in mirers in the crowd who thought that she had a show for some of the maney, but her driver said that she had been isme all spring, and as she was getting worse he did not think it advisable to work her any more for some time at least. This time the horses got away at the first attempt, and Kate Caffrey showed her racing qualities by taking the lead in a little spurt at the eighth post, and from there on to the finish she worked in splendid form, seeming like a beautifully adjusted piece of machinery, fin-ishing under a strong pull in 2:18%, with the other horses following in this order: Love-lace, Racer, Ella O, Adeline, Don H, King Patchen. The third heat ended the race. At the word Kate Caffrey took the lead and never was headed. She went under the wire al-most at a log in 2:19%, with Lovelace and Racer battling for second place and money. Racer was second until within thirty feet of the wire, when Lovelace's driver brought the bud down on him, and he showed hts long nose just far enough to the front to win amid an exciting finish. Time: 2:18%, 2:18%, 2:19%, NICE GOING IN THE 2:22 PACE.

The second event was the 2:22 pacing rac for a purse of $500. There were six en-tries in this race, and all the horses can beat the purse record, and they were race horses too, but Barondale was able to show them all a clean pair of heels in each heat The entries were as follows: Skates, b g., by St. Nicholas, Fred Johnson, Counci g., by St. Menous, r by Black Victor, J Bluffs; Harry Victor, by Black Victor, b Bions, Harry Victor, by Black Victor, J. Griffin, Colorado Springs; Jennie McCoy, b. m., Du Bols Bros., Denver; Barondale, br. h., E. D. Gould, Fullerton, Neb.; Rockaby, b. h., M. Salstury, California; Joeko, blk. h., M. Dwight, Des Moines, Ia.

The horses came down to the post in fine shape and got a splendid start, being so evenly arranged that the wire, lowered would touch all their noses when they go the word. Barondale took the lead on th urn, and, although driven to the half, he held his own against the field. Jennie Mc-Coy forged to the front and showed a won-derful burst of speed, but the effort threw her off and she broke, letting all the others ass her. When they came into the stretch it was as pretty a horse race as one could witness anywhere. Barondale had the rall and he was coming down like an express train, with Harry Victor's head at his fanks, and Rockaby was just as close to Harry. They did not change their positions and came along so smoothly that the from driver could have reached the nose of the third horse with his whip. Barondale was coming under a pull, while the others were urged freely, and the field straggled along close behind the leaders. Barondale went under the wire in 2:19%. Harry Victor second, Rockaby third, and Skates, Jennie McCoy and Jocko followed. They got away in good shape for the second heat and Barondale set a 1:08½ clip to the half. Harry Victor and Skates fought for second place clear around the track, while Jennie McCoy was in it up to the three-quarters post, but she dropped into fourth place, as the pace was pretty hot for her. Barondale's driver lossened up his pull on the ribbons in the stretch and let his orse come in under the wire in 3:16%, with Harry Victor a neck behind, but being driver hard. Skates seemed to have struck gait in this heat, for he was a close third winning the place from Jennie McCoy in a sharp contest during the last quarter. The horses all got away like a pole tean on the last heat, but at the turn Skates driver collided with Harry Victor and at the end of the heat was ruled out of the race as he pulled out of his position when the sulkies came together. The collision rattle Victor and he did not get down to work until the stretch and the best he could get was fourth place. Jennie McCoy went to the front, which position she held until the half post was reached. Barondale's driver began o push his horse and Jennie was raced off her feet while passing the post in 1:08. settled down to work, but Barondale had the race won and came in with his driver holding him up. The winner passed under the wire in 2:19. Summary:

It took five heats to determine this race. The first two heats were taken by Lady W and Troublemome, and then the horses had a rest while the pacing race was taking place, and when they came out onto the track for the third heat all of them had been nicely cooled out and were In the best of shape. Expressive won the third heat in a game brush with Lady W. while Edith Gard was distanced and it looked like any horse's race when they scored for the fourth heat. But Troublesome began showing his game qualities, and went to the front to win. Expressive hung to him and came in a close second. It was in this heat that Troublesome was driven to the finish, and it looked as if Lady W would be abut out by the distance flag, but her drive sent her just over the danger mark. Trou blesome then won the fifth and last heat and the race, with Expressive second and Lady W was ruled out of the race for running into the stretch. Summary: Troublesome, s. g., Thorndike., 3 1 3 1

The Rourkes dropped another notch yesterday, and that, too, after having won as pretty a game of ball as one could wish to That is, they had won it in their minds. Peorla, after being left in the rear up to the seventh inning 10 to 1, turned right round and gave Captain McVey a taste of the medicine he administered to Rock Island Sunday.

As the score shows, the game was almost faultless, so far as the fielding goes, and it seems somewhat remarkable that Omaha could have lost, but if you had been present and seen Whitehill give an exhibition of childish pitching there would not have been anything surprising in the defeat. Even in the early stages of the game he pitched poorly, but toward the latter part his work was execrable, and if he isn't capable of better things than this he better go back to school teaching.

At a hopeless functure McMackin was substituted, but as there was little worth mentioning aside from Whitehill's burlesquing I pass the game up. The score: OMAHA.

has hight. The winners undoubtedly put up an excellent game, probably the best of its kind that was ever played in the state, if not in the whole of the western country. Mrs. Howell hits her balls "just like a man." That is an expression that is fre-quently applied as a very special compli-ment to ladies who volley and serve over-hand, but where every lady cultivates the men's style of playing the compliment, to mean anything, must be applied only to those who at the same hit the balls with force without losing anything in precision. Of Mrs. Howell this can be truthfully said. Throughout the three sets last night she was invariably to be seen close to the net, except when serving, and she never hesi-tated to smash a ball whenever the oppor-tunity presented itself. Her service was especially effective. It crossed the net ex-ceedingly low and had lots of speed in it. Moreover, it was frequently well placed, and her double faults were not many. In the thirty-one games played she won probably every one in which she served. More depends upon the ladies in a mixed double than on the gentlemen for the rea-son that all the balls are sent to her, or as many as the other side can send in her direction, and it is therefore not too much to say that the victory was due principally to Mrs. Howell's playing. The score was 9-7, 6-1, 6-2. The length of the first set was due more than anything else to the light, although both R. Young and his partner made a determined effort, Miss Wallace's low services being espe-cially noteworthy. It seems a little unfair to be making apologies for the losers, but any one who has ever played on those courts just before sourset knows full well how difficult it is to see the balls that come from the south to the north side be-fore they have crossed the net C. H. Young and his partner had things all their own way. The score went up quickly in their favor and the two sets were quickly in their favor and the two sets were quickly in their favor and the two sets were quickly in their favor

Notwithstanding this successful wind-up there is little question that from the point of view from which the tournament was promoted, not as a money-making scheme, but as a means of promoting the popular-ity of the game in the city, the tournament has been a failure. The club is a good many dollars the richer from the dimes that were charged for admission, but what with frequent delays on account of rain and some considerable slackness in the management and one thing with another, there is no doubt that every one who has been connected with it is heartily glad that it is all over with. The way things have been run in the last few weeks does not augur well for the success of the state meeting next month. Notwithstanding this successful wind-up
