MEMBERS OF A MOB FINED

Salem Men Who Tared and Feathered Martin Thayer in Trouble.

THEY PLEADED GUILTY TO THE CHARGE

Cost Them One Dollar Apiece and Expenses of the Prosecution, but the Game is Not Yet Closed.

FALLS CITY, Neb., June 27.—(Special to The Bee.)—Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Ferguson went to Salem and arrested Wallace Parish, Less Shempton, Mart Fees and Frank McCool on a warrant sworn out by Martin Thayer, charging them with maltreating him and covering his body with a coat of tar and feathers, June 24. The trial was set for 10 o'clock this morning, at which time one-half of the Salem population was present. The four young men named all pleaded guilty, and each one was fined $1 and costs. This was part of a settlement, but every one is sanguine that more trouble will result.

ELOPED TO OMAHA

Young Nebraska Couple Eludes Obstinate Parents and Marry.

LINCOLN, June 27.—(Special to The Bee.)—Pater Seacrest, brother of the business manager of a local paper, and Miss Daisy Ward of Eagle, Cass county, left here today for Omaha, where it is their purpose to become one for all time. This will form a fitting culmination to something of a romance. Seacrest was formerly in business in Eagle, and the young couple became convinced that they were made for one another. A stern parent frowned, however, and as the young lady is not quite of age, he held the whip hand and ordered the young lady to stay at home until she attained her majority, which will be in November. This was too long to wait, and Seacrest went to Omaha and secured a license, which was published in The Bee. The lady in the case was granted permission to visit relatives in Lincoln. She took a train at 8 this morning to the city where she was to become Mrs. Seacrest.

Annual Meeting of the Laneator County Teachers Institute

The annual meeting of the Laneator county teachers institute came to a close today, after one of the most successful sessions in its history. The April term of the district court will adjourn sine die Saturday. Great Sachem Plannagan of Omaha delivered an address on the objects and achievements of the Order of Redmen at their picnic at Lincoln yesterday. The name of Dr. Bailey of Lincoln has been presented to the State Board of Health as a successor to Dr. Allen of Omaha as the state board of secretaries. Dr. Allen of Omaha is the only other name mentioned for the position. At a meeting held in the Lincoln hotel last night preliminary steps were taken toward the organization of a commercial club similar to that in Omaha. A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws to be submitted at a meeting to be held on Friday evening, and a second committee was appointed to see that the meeting is well attended.

WINDING UP THE WEALERS.

Most of the Fort Sidney Prisoners Change Their Pleas to Guilty.

SIDNEY, Neb., June 27.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The hearing of the Wealers was continued today. At 10 o'clock court opened with Judge Dundy and Commissioner Frank on the bench. The names of all the prisoners were read and each was asked how he would plead. All but seventeen changed their pleas of not guilty to guilty. Of these latter five were discharged, as the testimony was insufficient and the railroad company furnished them with transportation to their destinations in lieu of their long confinement. Judgment will not be passed upon the Wealers until all the evidence is written out and carefully examined by the court. It is thought that all will receive moderate sentences except the leaders, who will probably spend a good portion of next winter at Fort Sidney. Court adjourned at 7 o'clock to-night and Judge Dundy with the other federal court officers departed for Omaha. Eighteen deputy marshals were discharged, leaving fifty now in command.

In intelligence and business ability he was largely instrumental in making the town of Chamberlain a city. He is now thickly populated. He also used to have influence in favor of the last treaty, which will in a few months open up the remaining land of the Yankton Indians to settlement.
