Science says that the whole world is waking up to the fact that better times are coming. It does not go so far, however, as to state that the perfect man will come with the twentieth century, but it does assert that in the twentieth century man will approach perfection much more nearly than he does now. Improvement comes at a geometrical ratio, just as deterioration does. When the Greeks and Romans began to fall they went down with a devastating rush that would have carried them into oblivion had they not left their books and their monuments behind them. Now science says the man of today is going up with that same devastating rush, and that it will . carry him far beyond any point dreamed of in the past. But it would be a herculean task to make Con Strothers believe this. Con is the captain of the Jacksonville ball team, and he says he knows e young men who may approach the perfect monkey sometime during the twentieth century, but the perfect man, never. He was sitting on the bench in the shade of Judge Lake's cane yesterday afternoon when he said this, and as the fatal words fell from his ruby lips, tears big as turnips opped from his dove-like eyes. The fifth nning was just over and Con had fallen in his seat like a hod full of mud. He said another scene like that would drive him to drinking cod liver oil.

SOME THINGS THAT ARE PAST. And I do not blame Connie, for it was one of the most startling spectacles of the age. From an Omaha standpoint, it was grand and picturesque. It was like the first watermelon of the season, red, luscious and julcy.

If you enjoy noise; if you revel in behold ing great, strong men boring tunnels through the summer atmosphere; if you delight in seing a slender young man, with a bloodoudding for a face, pounded until his tongue hangs out; or if it pleases you to see a mob of black-clad athletes playing ring-a-rounda-rosy in the field, you missed it by not being at the Charle: Street park yesterday

If you consider it the refinement of ecstacy, a subtle joy, to witness the enemies of the Rourke family gnaw knot-holes in the fence and chase each other in mad opportunity of your existence passed into the rapaciou, maw of the past yesterday. If you have ever had an introduction to Constantine Strothers, the personage alluded to in a previous paragraph, and had an opportunity to study the capacity of the opportunity to study the capacity of the orifice under his nose, you can form some sort of an idea how he romped up to young Mr. Coplinger after that spectacular inning before referred to and emptied a barrel or so of hot, passionate oratory into his di tended auriculars. If you have ever watched a drunken sailor endeavoring to cough up a cigar which he had swallowed in his hilarious excitement, you can imagine Jud Smith, once of Cincianati, telling Fatty Cline that he didn't know a foul ball from a call's liver.

But to get into the details. If you have ever been at a match race between two boller factories, you may gather a tay waye of the vast sound that swelled in the park yesterday afternoon until the fences bulged during that memorable epoch wrapped up in

You see it wuz like dis. Dere was tree of us. and Skinny had a knife. In the fourth the Rourke family placed three tallies, among other choice bric-a-brac, where they would keep dry and out of the way of moths. But Connie's men, as yet, didn't know what a run tasted like.

HOW IT ALL HAPPENED. Then Captain Mac ordered the gates nailed up, so the Jax couldn't escape, and ramming a few choice words into Pedroes' ear, he pushed bim gently to the plate, and ear, he pushed him gently to the plate, and the first ball Mr. Coplinger liberated from his feverish grasp he belted in the ribs for a single. Papa Bill then flitted to the pan like a tender, fragile blossom from the furzy dingle torn. He pasted his melting orbs on the sphere, then rammed his sap-ling down its guilet. It descried a flery shelds to the ethereal as it few into the shrick in the ethereal as it flow into the right garden. With great deliberation Papa tore to first. Then Paddy Boyle made his debut and awatted the pig's cuticle out into the east. It was a two-bag swat, and both the east. It was a two-bag swat, and both Peddie and Pa swiftly glode home. Boxy walked, but the venerable sage of Indianapolis knocked three or four kinds of stuffin out of a curve, and Billy Moran did likewise. Captain Mac was too tired to wield his tree, and Coppy papered him to first. Kid Fear basted the ball far to the southwest, where the summer cloudlets, gold and sliver tipped, against to fleat like sockrosches in a pan seemed to float like cockroaches in a pan of milk, and he stopped for lunchesn on third. Then Munyun muttered something to himself and interfered with the sphere long enough to reach first. Pedroes welted her a second time, and so did Pa and Moran Crawford, 2b & c.... 5 4 3 5 1 and McVey, and yea, even Pedroes, a third time! Think of that, ye fish and little gods three safe punches in a single inning!

Right here you should have seen Conni -Connie Strothers. With nostrils dilate-like the cowcatcher on an engine and with his eyes hanging like a couple of chestnut on his cheek, he had been watching the Rourkes stuff the late June day with balls until it looked like a vast polka-dotted blanket; had seen Rourke after Rourke lean up against Mr. Coplinger until he relean up against Mr. Coplinger until he re-sembled a plees of moist twine daugling out of space, but when he saw the fourteenth tally lope like a gay gazelle over the plate he wrinkled up his neck, waved his ears, and walking up to Mr. Coplinger, blew him on to the bench. Then Mr. Emericke ex-ercised his porcelain arm for a few mo-ments and the Rourkes retired from sheer ments, and the Rourkes retired from shee

IT WAS ALL OVER.

It matters little what else happened durin the afternoon, not even in the eventh in-ning, when the Jax cut a little hay themselves. Boxy was fatigued, and as White-hill came cut of the barn he walked back to the bench and surrendered himself to the influence of the hour. From the brassy sky and the rubescent visages of the other Rourkes he gazed longingly. From the depth of his heart, with the bleeding, pulseless and mangled Coplinger, rose renewed inspiration and determination. They knewdespite their straightened curves and wrecked hopes—that they were yet one with the Almighty, that they yet lived and could

NEITHER TEAM PLAYED GOOD BASE BALL

Work of the Catchers Especially Poor, While the Fielding of the Frohibition sts Was Bad All Through-Score of a Weary Game.

The Council Bluffs Marcons lost their second game to the Young Men's Christian association aggregation, but the victors can scarcely be said to deserve any credit for heir success. It was without exception the worst exhibition that has been given in Omaha this season. The only redeeming feature was Jelen's phenomenal pitching. He held the Prohibitionists down to nine hits and struck out ten men, notwithstanding the fact that his support was of the yeilow order. Abbott seemed unable to stop a ball and missed no less than three third strikes.

The Christians won the game in the second inning, when they scored nine times on five hits, two bases on balls, two errors, two passed balls and a wild pitch. Who wants to know anything more about such ball playing as that? But that wasn't the worst of it. In the eighth inning the Maroons simply threw the ball around the diamond and let the Christians score as they pleased. Taylor had been put behind the bat, and with the bases full he stood back by the grand stand and allowed a man to run in every time the ball was pitched. Captain Abbott very correctly refused to continue that sort of a game, and the game was called after six Christians had crossed the plate and no one out. Further details of the contest would be as harrowing to the soul of the true base ball enthusiast as it was to the small crowd of spectators who witnessed the farce. Score:

Miller Did Not Prove the Terror He Had Promised - Pixley Adds to His Coffeetion of Merchandise Several Valuable Prizes.

PITTSBURG, June 30.—The feature of today's game was the pitching of Gumbert and the heavy hitting of the Brooklyns in the third inning. Score: M. O. Daxon's first annual bicycle tourament took place yesterday afternoon at the fair grounds. Considering the various other attractions in town a very good crowd was in attendance to witness an admirable program of races. The track was very heavy and consequently no records were touched, but some very fair time was made. The Odd Fellows band was stationed in the grand stand, and helped to relieve the somewhat long delays between the races. The first event was a mile novice race The entries were: James Mach, H. C. Played. Won. Lost. Pr.Ct Gadke, Rudolph Rietz, B. H. Lewis, P. H. Ehlers, Fred Perry, A. S. Carmichael, J. H. Turney, W. D. Staley, Will Evans, Fred Edwood, F. D. Parmer. This was one of the prettiest races of the afternoon and one in which the best time was made. The winner was B. H. Lewis, whose prize was a gold watch. The second prize, a pair of Palmer tires, was won by James Mach, and the third, a touring bag and coat, was captured by W. D. Staley. Time: 2:41. The special prize to the first man who crossed the tape Business Men and Drummers Put in Three at the half, a Garford saddle, was won by HOLDREGE, Neb., June 28 .- (Special to The Bee.)-There was a hot same of base

The second race, one mile open, did not develop as good time as the novice. The following were the starters: W. A. Pixley, Russell Condon, A. E. Prouix, Joe Ellick, L. E. Holton, H. E. Frederickson, Ross Miller, E. L. Potter. The first prize, a silver water service, was won by Russell Condon; second, a gold watch, by W. A. Pixley; third, an eight-day mantle clock, by A. E. Prouix. Time: 2:46½. The special prize for crossing the tape at the half first rubber mud guards and a lantern, was won by Ross Miller.

The third event was a mile race for the 3:00 class, with the following entries: Charles Pegau, James Mach, H. C. Gadke, E. L. Duquette, B. H. Lewis, P. H. Elhers, C. H. Bailey, W. F. Stelling, F. D. Parmer, Frank I. Ellick, Frank Newcombe, J. H. Turney, Rudolph Rietz, Ross E. Miller, Charles Cleaver, Tom E. Parmeles, Tom Patterson. On account of the number three heats were run. The first resulted with B. H. Lews first, Frank I. Ellick second, James Mach third. Time: 2:49. The second heat was won by C. H. Bailey, with Ross E. Miller second and Frank Newcombe third. Time: 2:41. The final heat resulted as follows: Frank I. Ellick first, B. H. Lewis second, James Mach third. The time was poor—3:03. The prize to the winner was a pair of opera glasses; to second, a pair of Morgan & Wright tires, and to third, a saddle and sweater. The prize to the first man over the tape at the half was captured by B. H. Lewis.

A half mile open race was the fourth Slusher, who travels for McCord-Brady company. The Holdrege business men who played were E. A. Roth, his honor, F. A. Dean, mayor; Nels Nelson, John E. Todd of the Star plug tobacco works.

Holdrege went to bat first only three innings were played. The first half of the first was played without an incident or accident worthy of notice, but the second half was a scone of wild maneuvers, base hits and home rung. Jim Slusher knocked a fly over to Jean flampton on third base. The ball got lost in the folds of Hampton's pants and vould not be found, so the umpire had to call time. They got Hampton untangled, and Schwake put a grounder out into left field, which Mayor Dean tried to stop by putting his feet close together and standing in front of it, but he did not get his feet together soon enough and it went through, letting the batter make a home run. Roach tried to walk home and got put out. Jim Singher could not find the second base until the umpire called his attention to it, and he got put out, Paige Warnick knocked; a nice little fly into the hands of the first baseman. The umpire told him, greatly to his surprise, that he was out.

A half mile open race was the fourth event. The entries were: W. A. Pixley, Russell Condon, A. E. Proulx, Joe Ellick, L. E. Hilton, H. E. Frederickson. The time limit was 1:20. This race had to be run over three times, the time of the first two being 1:26½ and 1:27 respectively, both outside the limit. In the first race the wheels of Proulx and Fredrickson collided after crossing the tape, throwing Fredrickson and smashing his wheel. In the final race only Pixley and Predrickson entered, Condon having been hurt in the five-mile handicap and the others dropping out. Burt Potter went in as pace maker. Pixley was the winner, in 1:16. The prize to the winner was a diamond ring and to second a stop watch.

The quarter mile open was one of the prettiest events of the program. The entries were: W. A. Pixley, A. E. Proulx, Russell Condon, E. L. Duquette, Joe Ellick, H. B. Lewis, L. E. Helton, Frahk I. Proulx; third prize, a Hilliard cyclometer, by H. B. Lewis, Time: 0:33½.

The five-mile handicap was opened with twenty-five wheels, but only eight finished. Condon was thrown, coming out with a considerably bruised arm. The first prize, a gold watch, was won by F. G. Barnett, soratch; second prize, silver punch bowl, by W. F. Stilling, 225 yards; third prize, search light lantern and saddle, C. H. Bailey, 150 yards; fourth prize, mud guards and coat, by James Selden, 175 yards. Time: 13:13.

The half mile boys' race was run by W. C. Knapp, W. E. Hughes, Roy Parker and Eddle Pegau. The first prize, a sweater, was won by Hughes; second, mud guards, by Pegau; third, a lantern, by Parker.

The boys were it years old or under, and the time, 1:32, was very creditable.

The half mile 4:90 race was won by Ben F. Haller of Blair, who managed to consume exactly four minu hands of the first baseman. The united told him, greatly to his surprise, that he was out.

In the first half of the second the Holdregeites made some able hits, and the Pilgrims made several double plays. The ground was a little wet on account of the recent rains, and Roach, who was on third base, got stuck in the mud, and the Holdrege men scored three runs before he could extricate timself. After the umpire pulled him out of the mud he made the remark that it had been long years since he had played hase ball, and he kind of thought he had forgotten how. Roach's exploit gave the Holdrege men confidence and they got a little reckless. Mayor Dean tried to make a home run on a foul, and got two of his men out, together with himself.

In the second half the Pilgrims made a good many base litts. W. D. Gayle was pitcher for the Holdregeltes in that game, and the reflection of the sun on his bright new uniform made him cross-eyed and almost all of his men came in on passed balls.

When it came to the first half of the third Captain Slusher told Colonel Roach and the reflection of the sun on his pright new uniform made him cross-eyed and almost all of his men came in on passed balls.

When it came to the first half of the third Captaia Slusher told Colonel Roach he would have to go out in center field, where he could have plenty of room to run around mud holes and not get stuck, but Colonel Roach kicked on this, and the game came very nearly being broken up, but was finally compromised by buying Colonel Roach a sack of peanuts and an umbreha and getting I. L. Strong, another traveling man, to take his place in the field. Jean Hampton was the first man to bat, and on the way to first base he lost all of his suspenders, and the game had to be postponed until the umpire could make an impromptu proviso that would enable Prof. Hampton to continue on his way. Prof. Hampton to account the least discomfitted over this little incident of any person on the ground, but it badily rattled Pat Waterman, who umpired the game, and it was noticed that he could not collect his thoughts in time to make rulings from that time on. In the second half of the third Schwake tried to steal a base and Jean Hampton threw him down and sat on him until the catcher could get the ball down on third. This brought forth a vigorous kick from the Pilgrims, and they accused Umpire Waterman of making a rank decision, but it had to go. Todd tried to steal second base in this inning, but he run against E. A. Roth, who was on second base, and there was a promiscuous mixture of bloomers, red bandanas and russet shoes. It knocked three big star plugs and one little star out of the lining of Todd's Several Dumps at Sheepshead. NEW YORK, June 30.—The attendance at Sheepshead Bay today was large. Ramapo and Banquet ran a dead heat in the handicap, while the others were close up, Dorian being beaten a head for third. Lizzie made the pace for the lot, white Banquet kept Ramapo pinned against the rail nearly the whole distance. When the horses rounded into the stretch, Garrison finally succeeded in getting out of the pocket and came with a rush. He was too late, however, and could do no better than a dead heat. As soon as the race was finished he claimed a foul, but the stewards decided to allow the race to stand as run. The dead heat was run off twenty minutes later, Banquet winning, Ramapo was lame, and he could not do himself justice, although both jockeys made it an easy gallop of three-quarters of a mile and a sprint of half a mile. There was a chapter of accidents in the hurdle race, but the two falls were easy and the jockeys uninjured. Rodman was the favorite and was backed for a lot of money all over the ring. His backers were happy when he got in first, but when all of the contestants had finished a protest was made on the ground that he did not go the course. The stewards allowed the claim, and he was disqualified. In the opening race, Correction beat Stonenell with ease. In the second race, Waltseer was an odds-on favorite and ran all the way with his head pulled sideways. In the Mermaid stakes, Nahma was an odds-on choice, but Beldemock was an easy winner. Results:

SKATES TAKE THE MOST COIN

Purses and Stakes of All Sorts Go to Outsiders at Washington Park. CHICAGO, June 30.—There was a large attendance at Washington Park today, with the Queen Isabella stakes as the fea-ture. Like the preceding stake events of the meeting, it was won by an outsider, Clara Bauer landing the prize, worth a little more than $1,000, at odds of 20 to 1 against her. She won in a drive by half a legnth from Zelika, with Marcus Daly's Gwendoline third. Shuttle and Princess Himyar were also starters. Corrigan's im-

Himyar were also starters. Corrigan's imported colt, Percy, won the first race, with 12 to 1 against him. Another jar to the talent was when Philora, backed down from 20 to 15 to 1, won the fourth race from Cicely and Enthusiast. It was only one of these common cases of cheating which pass unchallenged on the turf. Today all kinds of skates run away from good horses. Somersault won again in the fifth race, and won easily. The last race was captured by Sister Mary, with Tom Griffith second. This closed the day, with a single winning favorite out of six. Results:

First race, mile and twenty yards: Imp. Percy (12 to 1) won, Plutus (7 to 1) second. Flora Thornton (6 to 5) third. Time: 1:42%. Second race, five-eighths of a mile: Rey del Caredes (8 to 5) won, Diggs (8 to 1) second, Rosita (3 to 1) third. Time: 1:01.

SOME HITCH OVER THE COURSE. Slight Difficulty Still in the Way of Vig-ilant-Valkyrie Yacht Race. LONDON, June 20.-The Field today says that so far no set matches have been arranged between the Vigilant and Valkyrie. George Gould is said to desire matches for the outside channel courses or over the outside channel courses or over the course of the Royal Victoria Yacht club. There is also some difficulty about the day, unless a regatta is given up in order to arrange a date. This Mr. Gould does not desire, as it is the intention to have the Vigilant compete in every regatta around the coast. GLASGOW, June 30.—Captain Hank K. Haff has telegraphed to the Royal Barge Yacht club saying that it is impossible to get the Vigilant ready for next Tuesday.

PREPARING FOR CHICAGO

Omaha Cricketers Getting Ready for Thei Game at the Garden City.

PAST WORK OF THEIR CRACK BOWLERS

George Vaughan and Doyle Cut Down the Heavy Batters of the First Eleven for 40 and Then Found Out 77 Themselves.

To give themselves an opportunity of pla,ing together for the last time, before leaving for Chicago, the first eleven of the Omaha Cricket club, played a match yesterday with the second eleven. The second eleven, which was captained by Mr. D. H. Brotchie, borrowed for the occasion the services of Messrs. G. H. Vaughan and J. C. Doyle. Contrary to all expectation the second eleven won by the large margin of sixty-six runs. Some of the members of the Chicago con-tirgent played in very hard luck, and men who are, as a general rule, good for "double figures." falled to materialize. For the "first elevens," the batting of ir. Wilson and Mr. Kemp was the most productive of runs, the former making sovericen runs and the latter six "not out."

For Mr. Brotchie's side, Mr. G. H. Vaughan's contribution of thirty was the result of splendid hitting, on the "one side, while his bowling had much to do with th omaha club. Doyle, who went up with Vaughan, put up forty-seven before caught out by Robb, including some very pretty hits.

The fielding of both sides was above the average, and taken all in all, the eleven men who will represent the Gate City at Chicago next week need fear no anxiety on the score of being badly beaten, if they are beaten at all.

The "long-stopping" in yesterday's game shows great improvement, neither side giving more than two "byes."

Mr. D. H. Brotchie, the captain of the winning eleven, played a very nice innings for his eight "not out."

It is supposed that a number of friends of the Omaha players will go to Chicago with the latter, to give them countenance and encourage them in their efforts to score another victory in the "tented field."

Among those who will take advantage of the trip to see the game and Chicago at the same time, are a number of ladies, whose enthusiasm and love for the game are only equalled by their desire to see Omaha win.

All those who go to Chicago next Tuesday will do so with the idea of bringing back with them pleasant memories of Below is the result of yesterday's game:

CHORGE E. HUNT, Local Foregast Official.

When my little girl was one month old, she had a scah form on her face. It kept spreading until she was completely covered from head to foot. Then she had boils. She had forty on her head at one time, and more on her body. When six months old she did not weigh seven pounds, a pound and a half less than at birth. Then her skin started to dry up and got so had she could not shut her eyes to sleep, but lay with them half open. About this time, I started using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in one month she sens completely cured. The doctor and drag bills were over one sheaterst dollars, the CUTICURA BINDERS, and in one month she sens were over one sheaterst dollars, the CUTICURA bill was not more than few dollars. My child is now strong, healthy, and large as any child of her age (see photo.), and it is all owing to CUTICURA. Yours with a Mother's Blessing Mass. GEO. H.
