WON A GAME WORTH HAVING

Omaha Gets from Jacksonville a Postponed Game in a Close Finish.

BOTH TEAMS PLAYED REMARKABLE BALL

Good Luck Was with the Rourkes and That Decided the Game in Their Favor-Ouincy Fans the Lincolns for a Fall.

Rourke family one way or the other. Sunday they put up a game that would have made a cow laugh, and yesterday one that would merit the fullest approval of the most rabid crank in the land.

It was a postponed game, and again Jacksonville was the victim. Captain McVey held a little friendly conference with his men in the morning, and the result was they went out to the Charles Street park in the afternoon, and in the presence of a delighted crowd played the most faultless game of the season. But one error, and that was one easily forgiven, marred their splendid work. The error was committed by the ever reliable Seery, who, in his anxiety to hold a man on third, muffed a high fly from Connie's bat, and the gentleman on third trotted home, and for the time being Colonel Strothers' life was spared. Kid Fear was the lion of the afternoon, much to the pleasure of his hosts of friends. He not only batted and ran bases like a fiend, but gave us a touch of the kind of fielding that puts a wire edge on the man. In the fourth inning he threw Crotty out at third on a hit to deep right, and in the sixth he didn't do a thing but eat up Major sixth he didn't do a thing but eat up Major Deveney's long high fly and nail Big Fat Jakey Strauss at the plate. Jakey thought it was easy, but Fear sont the ball home like a rifle ball, and Jakey was nailed dead to rights a yard from the plate.

That was great work, sure. Paddy Boyle, it is pleasing to note, also played an excellent game, but so far as that goes, every one on the team did, and it would be unfair to individualize further.

But while lavishing this praise on Papa's lambs, it wouldn't be the right thing to omit handing the Jacksonvilles a plum or two. They also put up a superb lot of

two. They also put up a superb lot of ball, Crotty committing the only blunder. They batted hard, but inopportunely, and when their prospects looked the brightest, the Rourkes flawless fielding blasted their hopes. But the score will tell the story: OMAHA.

LUCAS AND HIS YELLOW BOYS.

Omaha to Have the Gem Citys for Victims This Afternoon. The Omahas promise the cranks one of their very best this afternoon, when the Yellow Boys from Quincy face them. Elated by three victories out of four games with the stout Jacksonville gang, Captain McVey looks for the best kind of work from his men today. He wants this game bad—in fact, says he is going to have it and two on the glorious Fourth besides. If he takes three straight from Lucas husky band he predicts first place for the Rourkes by Saturday night. It must not be taken for granted, however, that he will clean up Quincy in this style, for they are much stronger than they have been at any time this senson and are well able to keep any team in the association on the hustle. They have a quartet of new good ones in Sommers, Johnston, McGreevy and McDougal, and will strain every nerve to give the Rourkes a backset instead of a boost.

The management, inasmuch as Thursday is an off day this week, has generously concluded to again make Friday ladies' day, on which occasion the fair ones are cordially invited.

The positions of the two teams for this afternoon are appended:

ALIX AND ROBBIE P. Much Interest Felt in the Matched Race for the Fourth. There is a vast deal of speculation going on among the lovers of trotting horse flesh over the outcome of the great matched race at Union Park on the Fourth between Alix, the queen of the turf, and Captain Ed Pyle's wonderful Robbie P, and the prospects for an outpouring of turf goers are bright. There are many who believe and will place their money that Robbie P has even better than a fair chance to beat the great Alix, and recruits to their ranks are failing in fast as the event draws near. In addition to this extraordinary treat there are two other races, with a large field of starters in each, and as far as the afternoon's card goes it is really a capital one.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 2.-The great race horse Maxim, who was sired by Musko, considered the best horse which New Zealand ever produced, died today on the ranch of Del Paso. Maxim was brought to California from New Zealand flye or six years ago. J. B. Hannigan afterwards paid $21,000 for him. The horse was recently thrown in his stall and the shock resulted in his death.
