GREAT DAY FOR POLITICIANS

Lancaster County Republican Factions Meet in Convention.

DELEGATES TO THE STATE MEETING

Moore's Friends Too Numerous for Those of Hamilton—State Broken in the Afternoon Session by the Anti-Corporation Element.

LINCOLN, July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—The county republican convention to select delegates to the state convention met today. It has been a great day for the politicians of the capital city, and that means for the bulk of the population, for the men who are in politics here are stopping at one of the state institutions. Last night the Capital hotel looked something like the Paxton when the state convention is on hand. The two leading candidates, Moore for the lieutenant governorship and Hamilton for the attorney generalship, had established headquarters at the hotel, and the corridors were filled with their pluggers.

When the convention met this morning it took Mr. Hamilton about five minutes to discover that he was not the man who was to be elected. The convention decided to give its unanimous support to Mr. Moore. The vote was 273 to 129 in favor of Moore, who was also given permission to select his own delegation. An adjournment was then taken until afternoon, when the committee on platform reported a platform dealing democracy some hard blows, and pledging the legislative delegation to the repeal of senate file 210, the street railway monopoly bill, and charter amendments.

At the afternoon session the anti-corporation delegates got in their work on the state in dead earnest. The legislative candidates for whom the railroads and the electric light company were especially desirous were Pace and Eggleston for senator. The anti-brought out John B. Micht and nominated him by a vote of 281 to 121. Eggleston was nominated as badly as he withdrew before the first ballot was completed, and J. C. F. McKesson went in with 230 votes out of 402. For representatives E. R. Spencer and Henry Harrison from Lincoln county, and Joe Burns, W. D. Robinson and T. C. Mungler were nominated. J. P. Maule was elected chairman of the central committee.

The state prohibition convention was held in legislative hall this afternoon, with nearly 200 delegates in attendance, the majority being ladies. The declared intention of the convention is to put in nomination a full ticket, including a nominee for United States senator.

The state central committee met at 10 o'clock and talked over the matter of finances, finally deciding to ask the convention for $2,000, which is an increase of 150 over the census of two years ago and 1,400 in excess of the census of last year. The Board of Public Lands and Buildings has ordered an investigation of the conduct of the insane asylum and the charges of mismanagement made by a local paper. The investigation will be made on July 12. The attorney general today released a judgment against Douglas county amounting to $14,642.59. The judgment was obtained in 1886, and at that time was for $31,499. It was for the care of Douglas county insane patients.

SHERMAN COUNTY'S CROPS.

Yield of Corn Will Be the Largest Ever Known.

LOUP CITY, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Sherman county has had two rains in the past twenty-four hours, one at 2:30 this morning, which continued for half an hour, during which time it rained, and another this afternoon. The precipitation was one and one-half inches. This practically saves to Sherman county the largest corn crop ever planted.

ORD, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—This section was visited by a magnificent rain today. It began in the forenoon and has continued all day. Rain is still falling. Crop prospects are improving. Corn is doing well and the millet and hay crops will be good.

NELIGH, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—A drizzling rain has continued all day.

MCCOOK, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—There was a heavy rain here last night, extending north and west, and the indications are good for more tonight. With rain from now on to the close of the season Red Willow county will have two-thirds of a crop of corn. Fields that were thought to be beyond hope now look green and are growing fast from the rains of last week and last night.

ANSELMO, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—There was a good rain here today.

ALLIANCE, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—In Box Butte county there will be at least a good half crop of small grain, and the grass never looked better here than now. Crops are really good.

Fremont School Board Reorganized.

FREMONT, July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—The city school board was reorganized last night by the retiring of President G. L. Loomis and Mrs. Theron Nye, and James H. Rogers and Miss Lucy Griswold taking their positions. The new board was organized by the election of Thomas Carroll, president, and Mrs. Reynolds, secretary. Prof. James Curry was elected clerk of the business course of the high school.

The advance guard of the approaching Coxiety arrived last evening and tied up Oregon, the craft on which they are descending the Platte river.

Hon. Roosevelt G. Horr of Michigan will speak at the Chautauqua Thursday afternoon. The last of the Young Men's Christian association wheel races for the season came off last evening at the Chautauqua grounds. There being no contestants the ladies' race was declared off. Frederickson of Fremont and Pagan of Omaha were the scratch men and Rudolph Reitz, Guy Hinman and Dean Short the handicap of 300 yards. In the three-mile handicap lap race Hinman and Pagan each had a fall, compelling the latter to retire. Short won first prize and Reitz second. Frederickson won the time prize.

School Officials Selected.

FALLS CITY, July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—The school board met Monday evening. Superintendent William Reece of Emporia, Kan., who had been superintendent for the past year, was engaged for two more years, and the following teachers were elected for the coming year: Misses Lillie Rhodes, Eva Schock, Jennie Simonton, Mamie Cameron, Nellie Gilman, Vinnie Coleman, Maude Leekins, Maude Dorrington, Anna V. Taylor, Ada Stretch, Josie Gehlman, Kate Kivon, Myra Abbey, Hattie Stevenson and Myra Morgan.

Rain Did Not Interfere.

BATTLE CREEK, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—This morning a fine, refreshing rain fell in this vicinity, and while there was a continuous rain the whole forenoon it did not amount to the weight of the old soldiers or the old settlers in the least, but rather enlivened them, as this was the motto of a local paper. At 10 o'clock Rev. J. W. Bovee of Norfolk, an old soldier, made a most stirring talk to his comrades, and at 3 o'clock p. m. Colonel J. E. Simpson, superintendent of the Norfolk asylum for the insane, made a speech to the soldiers. The next morning will be held at Norfolk. In the evening an earnest speech was delivered by Hon. W. M. Robinson of Norfolk.

Neligh Entertaining Veterans.

NELIGH, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Neligh has on her holiday attire and is decorated with bunting and flags from one end to the other. Sunday the reunion of the veterans of the Nebraska veterans opened here on the fair grounds. President Warren of Gates college delivered the opening address. Monday the day opened with a thirteen-gun salute, roll call, guard mount, a dress parade, and an address by Lieutenant Governor Majors. Today Captain Russell delivered the address, and in the evening Captain Henry the oration at the camp fire.

Over 2,000 people were in camp today, and the 150 tents are all occupied, while the large tent, a dress parade, and an address by the public. Hon. W. F. Gurley of Omaha will deliver the oration tomorrow, and at least 5,000 people are expected. W. H. Van Gilder is in command, and Judge Jackson and M. Huffman are the superintendents.

Crete's Summer Bible School.

CRETE, Neb., July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—A summer bible school is to be held at Crete on the assembly grounds just after the close of the Chautauqua, the dates being July 15-25. Rev. R. A. Torrey, superintendent of the Moody Bible institute in Chicago, will be the chief bible instructor, and will be assisted by a number of good bible students and Christian workers. Several returned missionaries and others will be present to speak.

Ten Men Have a Narrow Escape.

TECUMSEH, Neb., July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—The big well which is being dug at the pumping station by the city caved in this morning about an hour before time for the men to go to work. A depth of twenty-five feet had been reached, and a big supply of water secured. Had the accident occurred an hour later at least ten men would probably have been caught in the well. About 400 wagon loads of dirt caved in.

Neligh Teachers Selected.

NELIGH, Neb., July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—At a meeting of the school board last evening J. M. Conklin was elected principal. Miss Florence Lyons, assistant; Miss Lucy Holmes, grammar department; Miss Claud Galloway, second intermediate; Miss Louise McGintie, first intermediate; Miss Jennie Warner, first primary, and Nellie Staples, second primary department.

Rev. Mr. Crook at David City.

DAVID CITY, July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—Yesterday Rev. Mr. Crook, chancellor of the Nebraska Wesleyan university, spoke to a large audience at St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal church. He also announced the Cotton of the Wesleyan, making tuition in that institution, in its college and academic courses, absolutely free to all students.

Clay County Mortgage Record.

CLAY CENTER, July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—The mortgage indebtedness record of Clay county for the month of June is: Seventeen farm mortgages filed, $21,454.00; twenty-four satisfied, $22,426.75. Seventeen city mortgages filed, $6,718.83; eight satisfied, $6,276.50. Eighty-four chattel mortgages filed, $18,975.58; twenty satisfied, $10,351.39.

Occupation Tax Was Excessive.

MCCOOK JUNCTION, Neb., July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—Owing to the excessive occupation tax which the York council was obliged to pass one of York's wagon makers and blacksmiths has located in McCook.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Hurt.

TECUMSEH, Neb., July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—Last evening David Campbell and wife of this city were thrown from their cart and severely bruised.

DUPUY WAS HOWLED DOWN

Socialist Deputies Make So Much Noise He Could Not Be Heard.

THEY RETURNED TREATMENT IN KIND

Chamber Would Not Accord Some of Their Number a Hearing and They in Turn Make Such a Demonstration the Premier Could Not Be Heard.

PARIS, July 3.—First Vice President de Mahy presided in the Chamber of Deputies while the premier read the message of condolence upon the death of President Carnot which had been received from foreign governments.

Deputy Vaillant, a socialist, ascended the tribune and attempted to speak, but his voice was inaudible, owing to constant interruptions. M. Millerand, another socialist and editor of La Petite Republique Francaise, followed him, but the shouts of the assembly compelled him to leave the tribune.

Premier Dupuy announced he wished to speak, but the socialists made such an uproar he could not be heard. The premier then declared as he was not allowed to make an explanation he would take his seat. (Applause from the center and protests from the extreme right and left.) M. de Mahy appealed to the Chamber to keep quiet, saying M. Vaillant wished to move the appointment of a committee of thirty-three members to prepare an address in reply to the president's message. This caused much additional disturbance, many of the deputies loudly demanding that the previous question be put.

Premier Dupuy declared that the president's message was counteracted by himself, and that explanations should be demanded of him. The uproar led to an unpleasant scene between M. Dupuy and M. de Mahy. The shouting of the socialists prevented the premier from himself being heard, and he turned to M. de Mahy and mutely appealed to him to restore order. But M. de Mahy affected to ignore the premier, whereupon the latter resumed his seat, saying hotly to M. de Mahy: "You do not preside; you do not insure respect for the government or the tribune."

CASIMIR-PERIER'S MESSAGE.

Premier Dupuy read President Casimir-Perier's message. The document was also followed by the premier in the senate. It is as follows:

"I have been summoned by the national assembly to be first magistrate of France. I am no party man; I belong to France and to the republic. "An odious crime, which the national conscience repels, has robbed the country of the upright citizen who has been the vigilant guardian of the constitution. May the memory of such devoted duty inspire and guide me. "The act of the national assembly, which in a few hours assured the regular transmission of power, is a fresh confirmation of the stability of republican institutions in the eyes of the world. "An odious crime, which the national conscience repels, has robbed the country of the upright citizen who has been the vigilant guardian of the constitution. May the memory of such devoted duty inspire and guide me. "The act of the national assembly, which in a few hours assured the regular transmission of power, is a fresh confirmation of the stability of republican institutions in the eyes of the world."

Captured a Bootlegger.

PENDER, Neb., July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—Deputy United States Marshal Mullin last night captured a bootlegger, who was selling whisky to the Indians. He is a young man and gives the name of Flog, claiming to hail from Michigan, and is on his way to Beatrice, this state, where he says he has relatives.

Second Stroke Fatal.

EXETER, Neb., July 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—Mrs. Joseph Provencer, who received a severe paralytic stroke a few weeks ago, and who was thought to be improving quite rapidly, was again stricken yesterday and only survived a few hours. She will be buried from the Congregational church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

When Baby was Sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Man, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
