DESTRUCTIVE HAIL STORM

Much Property in the Vicinity of Lindsay, Neb., Destroyed.

CROPS DAMAGED VERY EXTENSIVELY

Seven Hundred Acres of Grain Cut to the Ground—Other Damage Incalculable—Particulars.

LINDSAY, Neb., July 6.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hail storm descended on this place and vicinity at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, and for twenty minutes the fiercest hail fell that has ever been known in this section. Hailstones as large as hens' eggs fell, and the ground was covered to the depth of three inches. Window glass in all directions was broken, and the roofs of houses and barns were riddled. Fruit trees were stripped of their foliage, and the fruit was knocked off. Chickens, ducks and geese were killed by the hundreds. Cattle and horses were driven wild with fright, and many of them were injured by running into fences. Crops were cut to the ground. Seven hundred acres of wheat, oats and corn were destroyed. The storm was the most severe ever known in this section. The loss will reach $100,000.

Interesting Steamship News.

FREMONT, July 6.—[Special to The Bee.]—Chairman of the Chautauqua grounds was over today and the full attendance gave it show that canvassing committee made in the interesting and exposition grounds. The tax on the exhibits and the outside concessions and for the building of the second million dollars will be raised to $100,000. Contracting was formally awarded him to ground. Drainage is the labor to secure hardwood will accompanies. Fifty acres of the forty of grove were ordered. Grand stands on the school farm were discussed. It is future to enlarge the way. There is the 4th week of garden truck which promised a heavy yield.

WALLACE, Neb., July 6.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The general sale and stock sale today was quieter through the week. The rainy, doing great damage to new and small grain and breaking with fine showers in the south and. Hail fell almost in strips on both sides and extended over a large area of country.

CROW RIVER BRIDGE MEMBERS.

Officers Elected—Additional Power Near a Decision.

SIOUX CITY, Neb., July 6.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The fact that Marcus Cut was at his farm endorsed the night of the murder have been confirmed and the horse heard shoot with a bullet hole in its head. That work was commenced from each about one-half mile south of the Chantry bridge in the old burned that grew about the site of the old Corn Wonder stack. The indictions on the ranch have been developed in some points. The officers of Omaha are for the bodies unidentified the horse beyond the mud-quills Reno and shot the animal leaving the carcass on the ranch. Their view seemed clear up until he back they had not to make the extraction of the bullet. They were discovered by the odor arising from the carcass of the horse. This gives the officers a clew to work on. There is $1,200 reward offered now for the apprehension and conviction of the murderers and a probability of this being raised to $2,000 when the county supervisors meet the 15th of the month.

The special services at the Third church opened yet on the same evening and they have been well kept.

Interesting Steamship Week.

FREMONT, July 6.—[Special to The Bee.]—Chautauqua at