The members of the police force have just received a job lot of new helmets, and the small boys are whistling "Where Did You Get That Hat?"

A large excursion will reach this city Sunday over the Burlington road from Creston and the intervening towns. A special train will leave at the accommodation of those wishing to attend.

Miles Schofield, who had to submit to an operation at St. Bernard's hospital two weeks ago, left the hospital yesterday, but he will not be able to return to his place on the fire department for another two weeks.

HOW JAGS WERE INTRODUCED TO THE JAIL

Dr. Pinney's Wine Cellar Emptied that Bill Criss Might Be Kept Full-Singular Discovery Made by Deputy Sheriff Peterson.

Dick Roberts, who has been employed for the past month or longer as hostler by Dr. C. H. Pinney, has been detected in a little charity work which is commendable enough in the eyes of his proteges, but rather expensive for his employer.

This is not the first time this sort of thing has occurred under somewhat different circumstances. It seems that Roberts has been furnishing jags to some of the "trustees" about the jail without money and without price for some little time.

Chief Scamler reported to Sheriff Scamler that a woman had been causing his neighbors near Park Mill to feel of anxiety during the afternoon by her actions, which indicated that she was almost wild over some misfortune that had befallen her and which seemed likely to end in her committing suicide.

THE CAMPAIGN IN NEBRASKA

to announce himself, and probabilities are that there will be no democrat in the field unless it be ex-Sheriff J. J. Rosecrans of Sheridan county.

G. A. Eckles, county attorney, some time ago was reported as having his mind set upon the lieutenant governorship, but last report has it that he will not allow his name to be presented. He is a republican.

Majora has quite a strong following in the city, and it is probable that some time ago came out for him and is understood to be working in his interests.

Chase county, jointly with three other counties, has been elected to present one candidate spoken for by representative. T. R. McGinnis, a farmer near this place, is mentioned by leading populists as a candidate for representative in this place.

Cash D. Fuller is one of the prominent candidates upon the republican ticket for secretary of state. As to whether he will run, but little is said. Majora has large personal acquaintance and following in this county and it is reasonable to presume that he will secure the delegation.

Scotts Bluff county is in the Thirtieth senatorial district and the Fifty-fourth representative district. No state candidates in the county. MacColl is the republican delegate, almost certainly, for governor.

No legislative candidates of any party in the county except Hon. William A. Roberts, who is likely to be the republican nominee for state senator in the Thirtieth district. He is a farmer, an old soldier, ex-speaker of the assembly and probably the best posted irrigator in Nebraska.

Frank Bacon will be the republican candidate for representative. He is a farmer and has a large personal acquaintance and following in this county and it is reasonable to presume that he will secure the delegation.

Relative to the candidate for governor, whose candidacy meets with the warm approval not only of the republicans, but also of the democrats and populists, would say his name is MacColl.

Sherman county has several aspirants in the populist ranks for representative, and the one most favorably spoken of are James Zink of Loup City township and E. A. Draper of Elm township.

On the independent ticket for senator are J. S. Smith, chairman of the last senate, and Moses H. Smith.

In the race for congressman Aaron Wall will have the solid support of the republicans of Sherman county should he desire it to expend to allow his name to come up before the Brown Bow convention.
