APPEALING TO JUDGE RINER

Evansville Employees of the Union Pacific Appeal to Judge Riner.

EVANSVILLE, Wyo., July 17.—(Special to The Bee.)—When Judge Riner's order of July 1 commanding the employees of the Union Pacific railway to report for work not later than July 2 or consider themselves permanently discharged was received here, the members of the American Railway Union at Evansville at once began to petition him that the order was absolutely of no effect, because it was issued by the judge while he was in the state of Illinois.

THEY WERE ALL AFRAID

It can readily be seen, therefore, continued Mr. McElreedy, "that the boycott at Chicago was not only a fight against capital, but a life and death struggle between the different labor organizations."
