Pond Creek Train Wreckells Explode Dynamite a Few Seconds Too Late. POND CREEK, Okl., July 17 .- Troop A.

United States cavalry, of Fort Reno, under command of Captain J. O. Mackey, which has been detailed to gnard the Rock Island road, missed death at the hand of the Pond Creek train wreckers at 1 o'clock this morning by less than 200 feet. Two explosions of dynamite occurred within 200 yards at the south outskirts of the city immediately after the special train carrying the troops from Enid to Pond Creek station had passed. One of the shots exploded immediately under the train, but did no damage, but the other blew out a cattle guard and shattered the rails, and would have completely demolished the train had it exploded a few seconds earlier. The wreckers were decidedly bold. The night, with a full moon, was as clear as day and the dyna-

Two brothers have gone into court to de-cide whether one owes the other $850 or not. This is the amount that George E. Specht illeges that Chris Specht has borrow him at various times running two years back and has neglected to repay. Consequently he has put his tale of woo in the shape of a petition, and has filed it with the clert of the district court. He also alleges that the Sixth ward statesman has fraudulently transferred his property into other hands in order to escape the payment of his liabilities, and that the Joseph Schlitz Brewig company and Patrick J. Creedon have property in their possession which really belongs to Specht.
