MINOR MENTION.

Harmony chapter No. 25, O. E. S., held their regular meeting this evening in Masonic hall.

Lawrence Holst and Fred Johnson have sold their trotting horse, "Skates," to a Wyoming man.

A large party of young people were entertained at the residence of D. W. Bushnell Tuesday evening.

Miss Anna Phelps will entertain a party of her young friends this evening at her home on Willow avenue.

Boakley, alias Bradbaugh, who stole J. B. Peiton's bicycle, will have a hearing before Justice Vien tomorrow.

Etchetau council No. 3, D. of P., meet in regular session this evening at Danesh hall, corner Main and Broadway.

A ten-day temperance meeting will be commenced today by Dr. Stacy in a tent at the corner of Seventh street and First avenue.

Dr. Stacy comes from Kentucky and is said to be well posted on the evils of the drink habit.

Mrs. Wolf, who lives in South Dakota, is looking for her husband, who, she claims, came here a couple of weeks ago to dispose of some household property they had when they lived here, and has not been seen, nor the property either, since that time.

A harmless looking boy, giving his name as M. Hagerby, wandered into a dining car last evening in search of something to eat.

No one happened to be in the car at the time, and when his presence was discovered he was arrested and taken to the city jail.

Charles Willison, who begged a shave of an Upper Broadway barber and was arrested on the general charge of vagrancy, was sentenced to seven days in the street gang by Judge McGee yesterday.

While standing before the dread tribunal he took occasion to say that he had been a professional thief as his state seemed to have, who would mistake a workman for a tramp. He claims to live at Farmington, Ia.

Now is the time to buy real estate. We have several bargains to offer in business and residence property. Fire insurance written in the best companies. Farm loans wanted. Lougee & Towle, 251 Pearl street.

Grand Plaza excursion accommodations can't be beaten. Afternoon and night concerts at Grand Plaza, 2 to 6 and from 7 to 10.

Ice cream and cake will be served at the soiree at F. H. Orcutt's this evening. The laundries use Domestic soap.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Graham are at Okoboji. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holst, a daughter.

L. Zurmuehlen, Jr., is back from a visit to Keokuk. Mrs. T. A. Clark left yesterday for a visit to Soda Springs, Idaho.

Mrs. W. S. Marr returned yesterday afternoon from a visit to Missouri. Dr. J. F. White leaves today for Wyoming in the hope of improving his health.

Miss Lizzie Gortner of Goshen, Ind., is in the city, the guest of Mrs. McKune on First avenue. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Crittenden and daughter of Birmingham, N. Y., are guests of Norman Green and family.

Prof. C. S. Magowan and family of the Iowa State university at Iowa City, are in the city, guests of O. D. Wheeler and family, on East Pierce street.

N. N. Jones, formerly sheriff of Cass county and now chief of the penitentiary at Fort Madison, was in the city yesterday attending the republican convention.

Mrs. M. S. Fox and son, W. S. Fox, who have been spending the past few months here, left last evening for Detroit, their home. They expect to return here in the fall and make Council Bluffs their home.

No monopoly at Brown's C. O. D. But groceries at free trade prices. A carload of anti-trust crackers, and the finest on earth, will be received today and will be sold at such anti-trust, monopoly-paralyzing prices as to put the rest to flight.

All kinds of soda crackers, 3 1/2c per lb. Sweet crackers, 5c. Ginger snaps, 5c. Oyster crackers, 3 1/2c. Eyesight is priceless; if you need glasses you need the best. C. B. Optical Co., Schneider's drug store.

Meyers-Durfee Furniture company, 336-338 Broadway. Bargains in fine furniture. Whipped His Mother.

Officer Easdale of the police force was notified last evening of a fight that was in progress at the house of J. M. Dungan on Sixth street, near the corner of Fifth avenue. He reported the case at police headquarters and Officer Cousins was dispatched to the scene.

The fight proved to be one between Jesse Dungan, a 19-year-old boy, and his mother, but she had decidedly the best of the affair up to the present time. As near as could be learned, the commencement of the difficulty was when Mrs. Dungan ordered the boy out of her room. She claims he jumped upon her and knocked her down, tearing nearly all her clothing off her back, bruising her in several places until the blood flowed. She was almost rendered senseless by her ill treatment.

After the encounter the boy disappeared and has not been seen since, though the police are on the lookout for him. Trains for Lake Manawa.

Leave Broadway: 10 a. m. 2 p. m. 5 p. m. And every 22 minutes thereafter until 11:35 p. m. Parties wishing to spend the day at Lake Manawa take the 10 a. m. train.

The Eagle Laundry plant has been greatly enlarged and improved, and we are now prepared to turn out a large amount of strictly first-class work. Negligee and colored shirts, ladies' waists, etc., a specialty. We guarantee not to fade warranted colors. Telephone, 157. 724 Broadway.

Washerwomen use Domestic soap. Don't Like Midnight Soirees. COUNCIL BLUFFS, July 18.—To the Editor of The Bee: People living on Lower Broadway are getting very tired of the boating and yelling of men and women at all hours of the night. The toughs and prostitutes of Council Bluffs and Omaha fill up on booze up town, go far enough west to avoid the police, and from there to the river they yell, curse and vile language are enough to drive decent people wild.

The people of this part of the city have been praying for police protection for a year or two and are getting tired of this noise. If the city won't do anything we shall take the law into our own hands. It is not safe for a lone woman to pass along the street after dark. There ought to be a telephone at the bridge and a mounted patrol at night. J. S. STECK, ET AL.

Grand Plaza, Lake Manawa. No admittance to Grand Plaza will be charged to persons who desire to rent boats or bathing suits. Ice cream and refreshments served in the pavilion of Grand Plaza.

Real estate is cheap in Council Bluffs. We can sell you a home, a vacant lot, a fruit or garden farm cheaper than ever. Now is the time to buy. Day & Hess, 37 Pearl street. Domestic soap outlasts cheap soap.

Ninth District Republican Convention Gets Through Work Quickly.

HON. A. I. HAGER NAMED BY ACCLAMATION

No Opposition Offered to the Renomination of the Incumbent—Business in Congress Endorsed—Business Rapidly Transacted.

The republicans of the ninth congressional district held a convention in this city yesterday afternoon. The meeting was marked by great harmony, and as it was practically settled that Congressman Hager would be re-nominated as his own successor, it took but a short time to transact the business of the convention and adjourn. The superior court room was well filled with delegates and visitors.

A little before 2 o'clock N. N. Jones called the convention to order and summoned C. G. Saunders to the chair. Mr. Saunders told the convention he was utterly unprepared to make a speech, and then proceeded to make a speech that caused the benches on the roof to crack and the audience to break out in frequent and hearty applause.

He made reference to Congressman Hager as one of the congressmen who next winter would help elect Tom Reed speaker of the house. He painted a handsome picture of how things would be if Mr. Hager were elected to the presidency and both houses republican.

J. A. Story of Harrison county was chosen temporary secretary. The following committees were appointed: Permanent Organization—Adair, John A. Story; Audubon, John Riley; Cass, C. S. McClellan; Guthrie, P. Stever; Harrison, E. Ackerson; Mills, H. A. Towle; Montgomery, P. D. West; Pottawattamie, George Heintz; Shelby, George Walters.

Resolutions—Adair, J. J. Hetherington; Audubon, M. D. Rock; Cass, D. H. Scott; Guthrie, Charles Ashton; Harrison, C. Kennedy; Mills, B. I. Cummings; Montgomery, A. H. West; Pottawattamie, G. L. Wilkinson; Shelby, C. Manfield. The report of the committee on credentials was received and adopted.

The committee on permanent organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent, and the recommendation was concurred in. The following were named as members of the congressional committee: James H. Wilson of Casey, H. W. Hanna of Anderson, Frank O. Jackson of Atlantic, E. H. Seever of Stuart, J. C. McComb of Logan, Shirley Gilliland of Glenwood, W. S. Ellis of Red Oak, L. C. Dale of Council Bluffs and C. R. Benedict of Shelby.

The report of the committee on resolutions was short and to the point. It favored a sound currency and advocated the largest currency of silver and the issuance of greenbacks possible consistent with maintaining the silver and paper at a parity with gold. Congressman Hager's course throughout his term of office was commended.

J. A. Traver of Harrison county nominated Congressman Hager to be his own successor, and the nomination was made unanimous by acclamation. Chairman Saunders was instructed to notify Mr. Hager by telegram of the action of the convention.

After the convention a meeting of the newly elected congressional committee was held, at which James H. Wilson of Casey was chosen president and L. C. Dale of Council Bluffs secretary.

DOMESTIC INEQUITY. It Results in Putting Mrs. W. F. Hayward in a Public Hospital.

Mrs. W. F. Hayward of Chadron, Neb., was in St. Bernard's hospital in this city up to a week ago, but is now getting up at Kelly's hotel, her relatives having secured her release. Mrs. Hayward is very well known throughout Nebraska for her earnest advocacy of a number of fads, among them being Christian science and woman suffrage.

She is also president of the State Humane association. For some time past she has been plaintiff in a divorce suit in the Chadron courts, but recently a decree in favor of her husband was rendered by the court. She appealed to the supreme court, and the case is still pending.

During the Grand Army encampment, about a month ago, Mrs. Hayward was brought to St. Bernard's hospital in company with a relative, Mr. Barrett of Omaha, president of the League of Women Voters, and Jack Kretz, her attorney, from Chadron. She was kept in confinement for about three weeks, during a portion of which time, and Jack Kretz, her attorney, secured her liberties, such as walking around the grounds. At last she was released by request of her sisters, Mrs. Jacobus of Hall's Cross and Mrs. Ross of Blair and Mrs. Woodard of Chadron.

It seems to the physicians who attended her at the hospital that Mrs. Hayward is suffering from nervous affection brought on by her domestic troubles, and which might possibly result in insanity unless careful treatment was given her.

Mrs. Hayward is about 25 years older than her husband, with whom she has been in business partnership. She never says in this city commended her husband, but she is in charge of her property, a thing which is very much to her dislike. She has secured the services of L. W. Ross of this city as her attorney for the purpose of getting possession of her rightful belongings. Mr. Ross was called by The Bee reporter yesterday, but refused to make any statement further than that there was a big story back of all this, which might come out when he had heard further from Chadron where any legal proceedings that may be undertaken will first see daylight.

Can Be Seen on Broadway. The most wonderful offers ever made on any class of merchandise is to be seen at the Banton Store show windows. Such prices were never heard of. Cloaks at 19c, worth $1.50. Cloaks at 27c, worth $3.50. Cloaks at $1.21, worth $5.50. Cloaks at $3.48, worth $12.00.

Every garment in our store one-half the original price, and some cases even less, as the above list shows. FOTHERINGHAM, WHITEHEAD & CO., Council Bluffs, Ia. P. S.—Don't fail to see show windows.

Abused the Children. William Wise and Herman Hinsky are neighbors in the Fifth ward, and each of them has some children who seem to be exceedingly hard to get along with. Hinsky filed an information before Justice Vien yesterday alleging that his children had been abused by those of his neighbor, and that Mr. and Mrs. Wise had sat by and encouraged the latter in their wrongdoing. He claimed that the young Wises had pulled the young Hinskys out of a tree and had stamped on them, kicked them and pounded them until there was not a place left on the young anatomies where a silver dollar could be laid down without hitting a black and blue spot. The case will be heard this morning.

Evans Laundry Company. 620 Pearl street. Telephone, 259. New drug store, Deetken & Whaley, 110 Broadway; also office of Dr. Charles Deetken. Come to the Methodist sociable this evening at F. H. Orcutt's.

Trapped the Court. Justice Fox was made the victim of what looks very much like a confidence game yesterday, in which the prime mover was a stranger by the name of H. H. Ward, and in which the machinery of the justice court was manipulated so as to give Ward possession of some property that he was not entitled to. B. A. Wyman of the Council Bluffs and Omaha Transfer company on Lower Main street, has a fine young horse which he has been keeping at his stable. Three or four days ago Ward went to the stable and looked the horse over, remarking that he was a good looking horse. The people at the stable did not have the same feelings of regard for Ward that Ward had for the horse, and his visits were not encouraged. Yesterday he went to the justice office and swore out a writ of replevin, alleging that he had some claim or other to the horse. The horse was seized and taken away, and after several hours Wyman was unable to find it. It was at last found in the St. Joe barn, where it remained all night. Wyman claims that Ward has not the slightest shadow of title to the horse, and the writ of replevin was simply a ruse to get the horse. Wyman hoped to get it into his possession and make way with it. It is stated that even the bond Ward filed with his petition for the writ of replevin was worthless, so that if he loses he will be nothing out.

Held to the Grand Jury. Charles Minor was arraigned in police court yesterday morning for stealing some hinges from S. W. Bealey's place. He was tracked down Main street to a point near the Crystal mill, where he had the hinges, property, and was nailed by a policeman just as he emerged from the darkness. He was held to the grand jury and his bond fixed at $200.

Frank Trainer, Gregory Jensen's burglar, took another break yesterday and waived examination. He was bonded over to the grand jury and his bond fixed at $200. Neither Minor nor Trainer gave bonds, and both were taken to the county jail.

A nice, cool swim at Manhattan beach, Lake Manawa, is the proper thing to take these hot days.

Claim There Was No Shooting. Harry Larison and John Bishop, the two Silver Creek township men who are claimed to have shot at D. M. McKinley and son last Sunday, presented themselves at Justice Field's shop yesterday, having been arrested by Constable Jackson the night before and released on their own bond to be on hand in the morning. They denied having had any revolver or done any shooting. Each gave a $100 bond and a preliminary until the 30th, when they will have a preliminary examination.

Change in Quarters. The League club has decided to give up its rooms in the Woodbury building August 1 and will take the two west rooms in the south end of the Merriam block now occupied by the Young Men's Christian association as chapel and reading room. The association has not yet decided upon its future location, although the Elsteman building and Beno's hall on Pearl street are mentioned as possibilities.

A nice, cool swim at Manhattan beach, Lake Manawa, is the proper thing to take these hot days.

Will Try It Again. Peter C. Miller filed a petition in the district court yesterday asking for a divorce from his wife, Rose E. Miller, on the ground of desertion. He commenced an action of the same kind some little time ago, but had it dismissed at his own costs because the court found that the statutory time for filing a petition of this kind had not elapsed.

TO RESTRAIN STRIKING MINERS. Judge Holmes of the Des Moines District Grants an Injunction.

DES MOINES, July 18.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—An injunction was granted today by Judge Holmes restraining the striking employes of the Great Western Coal Mining company from interfering in any way with the operation of the mine owned by new men. The Great Western mine is one of those in the county which refused to accept the schedule of wages adopted at the conference of miners and coal owners at Okaloosa and which ended the strike. The mine has not been operated for some months, and the union men have attempted to force its operation. They have moved their tools. Other miners who have been hired, and the union men have attempted from time to time to force the mine out of the mine. The owners claim to have offered considerable inconvenience, and so applied for the restraining order. No further trouble is anticipated.

Receivers for an Insurance Company. SIOUX CITY, July 18.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Creditors of the Underwriters Mutual Fire Insurance company of Sioux City are today asking that a receiver be appointed for the company, charging that the sheriff was not allowed to exercise his property to satisfy a $100 judgment; that the company has liabilities of $3,500 on unpaid notes, with no assets; that the company has mismanaged the business. It is further charged that the directors have made false statements of the condition of the company, and that its premium receipts were used to pay the officers' extravagant salaries.

Denise of John A. Patterson. CRESTON, Ia., July 18.—(Special to The Bee.)—Attorney John A. Patterson, one of the most widely known lawyers in the west of Iowa, died this morning after a lingering illness. At one time he was mayor of the city and held many positions of honor. He was an old soldier. His funeral will occur Friday morning.

About 1 o'clock this morning fire destroyed the barn, stable and sheds on W. D. Harper's farm, about two-thirds of a mile from the city. The fire was caused by a lantern, a wagon and all his harness. During the day he had put up ten loads of hay. A fine stallion, valued at $200, was burned. Loss, 2,000; insurance, $500.

Welcomed by a Detail of Police. SIOUX CITY, July 18.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Forty-two men, claiming to be an industrial army, captured a Sioux City & Pacific freight train at Missouri Valley and made the crew bring them to this city. The train was loaded with detail of police here and the industrialists hailed to jail in patrol wagons and locked up.

Webster County Teachers Meet. FORT DOUGLAS, Mo., July 18.—(Special to The Bee.)—The Webster County Teachers' institute started Monday. Prof. Hezlewood of Humboldt is in charge, assisted by Prof. Young of Horton and Prof. Young, Monk and Green of Fort Dodge. Superintendent of Public Instruction Sablin delivered a lecture before them Tuesday night.

A Cure for Chronic Diarrhoea. I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a 50-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have his name put on the wrapper. W. C. Weeks, Melrose, Mass. For sale by druggists.

Political State Broken. GRAND FORKS, N. D., July 18.—At the opening of the republican state convention it was thought that the state headed by Roger Allen for governor would go through. It was, however, decided to make Stearns Spalding temporary presiding officer. When the convention was called to order, the plan was antagonized by the supporters of ex-governor Miller, and Miller was made chairman. The temporary plan was made permanent and a recess taken till afternoon.

Carbonic acid is largely used in cham. agency, is excellent for the cure of indigestion, and is sold by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Non-partisan Nominations at Holt. ATKINSON, Neb., July 18.—(Special to The Bee.)—A citizen's non-partisan convention for Holt county was held in Atkinson last evening for the purpose of placing in nomination two candidates for the legislature pledged to work for the repeal of the three-fifths county division law. One of the precincts of the county were represented.

Speaker Crisp Sees Light. ATLANTA, Ga., July 18.—Speaker Crisp, while passing through this city on his way to Washington, said of the conference on the tariff bill: "I am sure the whole matter will be settled in a satisfactory manner. It is very important at this time that the business should have the careful consideration of every member and that is why I am going back to Washington."

IRRIGATION IN SOUTH DAKOTA. Interesting Experiment Being Conducted with Artesian Wells by the State Agent. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., July 18.—(Special to The Bee.)—A. J. Bartholomew, an agent of the State Agricultural college, is making some interesting irrigation experiments on the farm of Hammel Bros., in Wilbur township, this county. He is working under the plan of one of the ditches leading from the artesian well in that township. Bartholomew says that a year ago he took his school to the place and found that the farmers of the county can irrigate their land at less expense than any of the states west of here that are now irrigating. Colorado and Utah, for instance, besides irrigating from artesian wells, use the artesian well with profit and big advantage. Although they have to go deeper, some wells being 300 feet, and do not get nearly the flow of the average South Dakota artesian well, they are able to irrigate that Utah now has 3,000 artesian wells and Colorado over 4,000. The water to carry on the artesian wells is from the government. It is used from the allowance made for experimental work.

Sam Medicine Bull's Grievance. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., July 18.—(Special to The Bee.)—Sam Medicine Bull, an Indian worthy son of a Sioux chief, is an Indian with a grievance. Sam lives on the Lower Brule reservation, and he has been in the army. He has been in the army in several acts. Included in his farm were about 100 acres of land, and he has a very good quality of soil. The land is now a goodly number of the Lower Brule Indians had refused to remove to their reservation. Sam had been one of the first to go there. Recently the kickers, who are called the "Reds" in the army, refused to remove to the reservation, and also secured their allotment of land. A treaty was made with the Indians, and they had their share of any timber and water that happens to be on their reservation. Chamberlain being scarce, some of the new arrivals naturally cast covetous eyes upon Sam's land, and he was driven from it with the result that the timber has been nearly all taken from the son of a chief and his family. Sam has a number of Indians belonging to the common herd. Sam is in town to consult a lawyer.

ENCOUNTERED A WATERPOUT. Elkhorn Train Passes Through a Flood Near Douglas, Mo. GLEN ROCK, Mo., July 18.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—About two miles west of the bridge across the Platte river at Douglas the Elkhorn train yesterday afternoon encountered a waterpout. On both sides of the track the water ran three feet deep, and in ten minutes from the time the engine encountered the water the vast Fetterman bottoms, embracing about two townships of level land, had the appearance of a lake that would average a foot deep. The cloud burst just east and south of the Elkhorn cut. A stream twenty-five feet wide and five feet deep poured out the east mouth of the cut. It was the biggest waterpout ever known in that section. The Fetterman bottoms are uninhabited.
