A great crowd of spectators thronged the corridors of the federal building and struggled for places in the court room when the hearing began. United States Judges Wood and Grosscup occupied the bench and immediately after taking their seats ordered the court room cleared of the crowd which stood in the sixles and about the door. Mrs. Debs, Mrs. Keliher and Mrs. Rogers were in court early and greeted the prisoners when they were brought in. The prosecution was represented by District Attorney Milchrist, Special Counsel Edwin Walker and Assist ant District Attorney Band, while the Santa Fe road was represented by ex-Corporation Counsel John Miller and E. against the prisoners by the district attorney and the hearing of the answer as read by the defendents' lawyer, Attorney Erwin moved formally that the defendants be dis-missed. He also asked that the government elect whether it would try the prisoners on the original indictment or on the injunction. Judge Woods replied the government would elect by the going on now and Attorney Gregory began his argument in support of the motion to dismiss the bill. Mr. Gregory Judge Woods replied the government would the motion to dismiss the bill. Mr. Gregory said the injunction restrained the defend ants from preventing the employes by threats, intimidation, force, violence or persuasion from performing their duties inducing them by threats, violence, force or intimidation to leave the service of the roads. In the injunctional order the word "persuasion" was stricken out. This called out a statement from Judge Woods, who said the court has refused to enjoin men from inducing other men to leave their work. A case of that kind is now in the court of appeals in the Northern Pacific case and the court had no desire to inter-fere with it. Mr. Gregory said the injunction did not enjoin the leaders of the union from advising men to quit work. "The injunction," said Judge Woods, "was a general order not to interfere with the peration of the roads. Whether advising was an interference is a question to be decided. The attorney contended that as long as people obey the laws they could not be held responsible for the lawlessness of others He admitted there was violence in the re cent stirke, and the men who committed i were guilty of violating the injunction. The people who advised violence were also guilty, but there was not a line in the in formation charging that the defendants either committed or advised any violent acts. Judge Grosscup said the theory of the government was that violence was the natural conse quences of the telegraphic orders sent ou by the defendents. Mr. Gregory was followed by Mr. Walker for the prosection, who attacked the answer vigorously. Men Claim the Strike is Still on, but Trains Are Running as Usual.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23 .- The railroad strike in California has absolutely no new features. The Southern Pacific officials now insist that they are conducting the regular business without hindrance. It is true, too that all or nearly all of their trains are running pretty regularly. The A. R. U. men at Oakland insist, however, that the strike is still on in all its force and that they are bound to win or at least be taken back on their own terms. In Sacramento the strikers continue to quarrel among them selves, the trouble having arisen over public meeting of strikers at which a majority of those attending voted to return to work and so notified the railroad company. A large number of the striker, at Sacra mento claim that this action was withou authority. They insist that the strike is still on at that point.

The most important move today was the ordering of company F of the state militia from Woodland to Dunsmuir, on the Oregon branch. The strikers at Dun muir are said to threaten trouble. Company H, at Grass Valley, has also been ordered out. Five companies of the Fifth regiment which ar in service at Oakland have been released and allowed to return to their homes. It is conceded that there is no longer danger of serious trouble at Oakland.

DID NOT START UP AT PULLMAN.

Only Three Men Ready to Go to Work In the Allen Wheel Works. CHICAGO, July 23 .- Contrary to expectation, the Allen car wheel works did not start out today at Pullman. Out of the fifty men expected to go to work only three reported for duty. Police were thick in the town and the white-ribboned strikers were out in force. In several instances word was brought to the police that work-men were prisoners in their own homes. Officers sent to relieve the men found strikers guarding the front and back doors, but nothing more than orders were required to disperse them. Trains Running at Butte. BUTTE, Mont., July 23 .- Passenger trains are moving under guard of regulars on the Montana Union and Union Pacific railroads. No resistance has been offered or violence threatened by strikers. The crews operating trains were brought from distant divisions of the Union Pacific road. Northern Pacific employes reported for work yesterday, about 25 per cent being reinstated. It is thought the Montana Union employes will decide to go to work at their meeting tonight. President Calderhead of the local American Railway union says the strikers have lost on account of the government's interference.

The employes of the Montana Union today declared the strike off and will report for work tomorrow. Superintendent Burns says that all except those who have made hemselves particularly obnoxious will be re-The strike is now confined to the empolyes of the Union Pacific.

ARBITRATORS ARE SELECTED.

Their Names Have Not Yet Been Authoritatively Announced. WASHINGTON, July 23 .- The president has practically made his selection of the two members who will serve with Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of labor, on the commission to investigate the late strike. The appointments have been formally tendered, but the names of the commissioners will not be announced until their acceptances are received.

It is stated on what is considered reliable authority that the president's choice has fallen on Judge Lyman Trumbull of Chialways taken a deep interest in the question of labor and whose judgment is fair and im-partial. The name of the New Yorker, it s stated, has not been mentioned, excep in confidence to one or two of the president advisors. It is assertd, however, that he has accepted and as soon as Judge Trumbull indicates his acceptance the commission will Lyman Trumbulls selection is generally credited. It is known that the president has had under consideration that of Lyman J. Gage, the Chicago banker, and Lyman Trum bull, and has intimated his intention of selecting the Hillinois member of the committee early this week. Don M. Dickinson, who left for Michigan on Friday night, said before his departure that the president would appoint both members of the commission before the end of the week.

is thought Mr. Dickinson suggested Trumbull as an able and conservative man, who would command the respect of all parties to the recent labor controversy whose decision would be received without cuss the personnel of the commission with Mr. Cleveland, and it is understood he told a western member prominently interested in labor legislation that he intended to name a well known New Yorker. The president is reported to have said he was waiting to hear from the man to whom the commissioner ship had been offered and that as soon as reply was received the appointment would be made. It was reported last night that the name of ex-Secretary Fairchild had been discussed by the president in connection with a commissionership, but whether Mr. Fairchild will be named cannot be learned. CHICAGO, July 23.—The Daily says that on Friday a telegram was re-ceived at the law office of Hon. Lyman Trumbull from President Cleveland tendering Judge Trumbull a membership on the arbitration committee to investigate the railroad strikes. The telegram simply stated that the appointment had been made and expressed the hope that the recipient would be willing to serve; that the dispatch was at once forwarded to Mackinaw, Mich., wher Mr. Trumbull is. As yet he has neither ac cepted nor declined the honor tendered him and what he will do in regard to the matte is an open question, though, owing to his advanced years, his acceptance is considered

DEBS ORGANIZING A NEW UNION.

New One Will Take in All Trades and Professions. KANSAS CITY, July 23 .- J. S. McFadden. secretary of the local A. R. U. in Argentine and a personal friend of President Debs, returned yesterday, after a week's visit with Debs in Chicago. Mr. McFadden stated that Debs and his co-workers now in jail under federal indictments were busily engaged perfecting plans for a new society, namely, "The American Labor union." It is the intention, said Mr. McFadden to a reporter, to include in this organization all labor of whatever kind not merged under the head of rail U. and doubtless be controlled by the same officials. There is to be no class of labor, no matter how insignificant, that cannot find a place in this union, and when the aims of its projectors shall have been fulfilled, then will be formed an organized body, powers will apparently be limitless.

Trial of Wyoming Citizens for Participating in the Strike CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 23.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)-The contempt cases against Edwin T. Burke, clerk of the district court of Carbon county: James Eagan associate editor of the Rawlins Journal Daniel Haley, city marshal of Rawlins; James McDonald and Ed Mallon, formerly in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad at Rawlins, are being tried in the United States court here today. The defendants are charged with threatening and intimidat ing deputy United States marshals who were sent to Rawlins to guard railroad property during the strike. The prosecution ha established a very strong case against the first named defendants, and there is little question about their convicition.

Don't Know Whether They Are Striking. SAN FRANCISCO, July 23 .- There is a peculiar state of affairs in the strike situation in West Oakland. The general impression of the rank and file of the strikers is that the strike is off. The leaders maintain just as persistently, however, that the strike is on and cite the action of Saturday night's meeting of the A. R. U. as positive proof that such is the case. When asked what they proposed doing or how the strike stands, the strikers confess themselves as absolutely in the dark. Licutenant Genry said yesterday that several companies would be sent home

Shopmen Returning to Work. SACRAMENTO, July 23 .- Eight hundred and twenty men went to work in the shops today and 1,000 applications were received The boiler and moulder shops were opened the first time since the strike. W. Vice is a candidate for the assembly on the ticket of the reorganized democracy He was released on $5,000 bonds.

Little New Evidence Introduced. WOODLAND, Cal., July 23 .- The preliminary examination of the five A. R. U. men charged with murder and train wrecking is still dragging along. Today's proceedings were devoid of exciting incidents. Nearly all the testimony taken tended to identify the prisoner Worden as the man who conducted the party of supposed train wreckers to the bridge just west of Sacramento where the disaster occurred.

Strikers Bound Over at Milwaukee. MILWAUKEE, July 23.-United States Court Commissioner Bloodgood has rendered a decision in the railroad strike cases, holding C. S. McAuliffe, Frank W. English Anarchist Makes His First Bow to NICW YORK, July 23.—Charles Wilford Mowbray, the English anarchist, made his first public appearance tonight at Clarendon hall, where he spoke to an audience of communion." Captain Cross and a police detail were present, but found no cause for detail were present, but found no cause for interference. 'I believe in free speech,' said the speaker, "and if the provisions of the constitution were carried out there would be no cause for anarchists, Monopoly flourishes under the stars and stripes as well as under the union Jack. The object of anarchy was not to arouse men's worst passions, but to stir up their menso of duty. Capital was the result of labor and was essential, but capitalists should be done away with.' He asserted the labor organizations were being surely forced into the ranks of the anarchists. They were losing faith in the government and realized that its abolition meant their salvation. 'If our missters will shoul,' continued the speaker, "don't blame us for what might happen, but we place more reliance in mental dynamite than any other."

After the shooting Johnson sprang to the platform, grasped the beil cord, stopped the train, jumped off and escatood. The second shot brought several white men to their feet with weapons, but instantly every negro in the coach arose, ready to shoot, and it would have been folly to fire into the crowd. At last accounts a posse was still trying to capture him. Six negroes are under arrest at Watterson under suspicion of being accomplices. Last night the train carrying Conductor Nelson's body stopped for wood. As Sam Brantley, a negro train hand, entered the car a white man shot him, wounding him seriously, but not fatally. 196.

DENVER, July 23.-A special to the News from Butte, Mont., says that another turn has been taken in the A. J. Davis will case, has been taken in the A. J. Davis will case, Some time ago the district court decided that the claim of A. J. Davis, ir., that his uncle had given him $1,000,000 was sustained. The decision was reached mainly on the testimony of W. C. Durnold, a former bookkeeper in A. J. Davis' bank. Today Judge John H. Certis and J. R. Royce, both prominent citizens, filed affidavits to the effect that Durnold had on several occasions told them that he had committed perjury, and that none of his statements were true. ILLINOIS, I. T., July 23.-The Cherokee payment for the Canadian district began oday. Not less than 5,000 people are present and it takes on the nature of a big protracted picnic. There are hundreds of refreshment stands and temporary stores on the ground, but the Indians are not buy-ing much. One child was reported drowned in the Arkansas river and four women ac-cidentally shot, but their wounds are not sections. serious.

no delay in appiying at Frank Bandle's cigar store and securing their berth in the special Pullman. The train leaves the Webster street depot at 5:30 Wednesday evening, returning leaves Minneapolis Friday morning and gets here in the afternoon, so that those who are pushed for time will lose but a single whole day. Thursday. The fight takes place Thursday evening. So far about thirty gentlemen have secured their passage, but there is plenty room for more. Chicago runs two excursion trains of two special Pullmans each, but no delegation will be better cared for than Omaha's. Mr. Griswold has secured the entire front row of seats around the ring, made special hotel arrangements with the West hotel, and left nothing undone to enhance the pleasure of his party.

All over the country the fight is considered one of the most important that has taken place in a good many years. Just how good Tommy Ryan is is as yet an uncertain quality. He has whipped a regiment of good men, and whipped them plenty, yet has sever bumped up against one of the premiers in his class in a finish mill. He has met Billy Smith twice in limited round contest and came out of both first best unquestionably, but a six-round go is not a finish fight by a long ways, and many a man that gets bested in a few rounds would easily win out if he had a journey to go. In New York and Boston, and there will be numerous representatives from both cities to see Thursday night's contest, the preponderance of opinion is decidedly in Ryan's favor, and while I think myself he will win, I know that there is no degree of certainty about it.

Billy Smith is one of the stiffest, quickest, most aggressive fighters the ring has known for many a decade. He is a human cyclone and is capable of making any man in the world in his class do a whole lot off guessing. He is powerful, quick as electricity, and always in motion. He is merciless when he gets the upper hand, but none too fond of a punch in the face, and the probabilities are that when he gets Tommy's left rammed in Tea and Coffee Dealers Fatl. CHICAGO, July 23 .- A. H. Blackall & Co., extensive dealers in teas and coffees, made an assignment today. No statement of as-stes and liabilities has been made, but they are about equal.
