Sovereign Still Sure that the Fight Against Pullman Will Be Won-Executive Board Gets Started on Its Way-Routine Business Yesterday.

General Master Workman James R. Sovereign of the Knights of Labor arrived in Omaha yesterday and is stopping at the Dellone, where Knights of Labor quarters have been temporarily established for the next few days during the present executive session of the general officers. Mr. Sovereign left Chicago Sunday was almost tired He says that he spoke at a number of meetings Sunday in Chicago and that the sympathies of the people in Chicago are entirely with the Pullman strikers. When asked regarding the present condition of the strike, he said:

"The strike is still on and in full force. The general managers of the railroads are simply whistling to keep up courage. know just the amount of business they know just the amount of business they are doing in a general way and they are not handling any freight to amount to anything. They are unable to get men to take the places of the strikers to handle freight business."

The leaders now in Omaha are all in hearty sympathy with President Debs of the A. R. U. and express themselves as being willing to do all in their power to assest him in making an able defense.

Among other things to be considered while in Omaha is the question of forming labor military companies, and from the expressions made by the memners of the general executive board yesterday it is quite probable that an order will be issued eral executive board yesterday it is quite probable that an order will be issued isking all members of the order to become of the state militia in the various they will also be given an opportunity to tell what they think the working people ought to do.

It was rumored in the afternoon that Delegate McGuire has a scheme for having the government foreclose the mortgage on the Union Pacific railroad and have this railroad operated by the government in the future, as has been advocated by the Knights of Labor, Mr. McGuire seems to think this could be done without further delay if only congress would take actiou upon the matter, and if this congress does not do the right thing he thinks the next congress will be made up with more friends of the people, so that the people as well as the railroads will receive some consideration at the hands of the government. It is predicted that if the government would foreclose the Union Pacific mortgage the price of railroad stocks would greatly decrease and that this would be the beginning which would end in the government owning and operating all the railroads of the country.

That this matter will be considered during this session is a certainty, but it is not known yet what process will be employed to bring about the foreclosure.

WORK OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Nothing but Routine Business Under Consideration Yesterday.

The members of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor held a session yesterday afternoon at the Dellone. "Nothing but routine business has come up so far," said Press Committeeman Me-Guire, when asked about the progress made first meeting. The members say this is their regular quarterly meeting and that outside of the regular business of the order, which is gone over at stated times by the general efficers, they expect nothing strik-ingly new to come up for consideration. In the evening the visitors were introduced to a large number of Omaha people, and as all of the gentlemen are pleasant talkers those who met them were highly entertained discussing the trials and woes of organized labor and predicting what the outcome would be in the pending contest be-

When I left here I went to Louisville Ky., and in less than two weeks' time there I organized seven new local assemblies and reorganized two old assemblies that had gone down from lack of interest in the local meet In that city the trades unionists and Knights of Labor were not working together in harmony before I went there, but when I called them all together and told them how the two organizations worked together harmoniously in the Central Labor union of Omaha their leaders at once set about t bring them closer together there, and I am informed since leaving Louisville that the organizations now are assisting each othe in booming union labels and in various other ways. While there I also was successful in getting a contract with the largest steam the city to employ none but Knights of Labor girls in the laundry.

From Louisville I went to Chicago, and while there organized nine new assemblies and reorganized four old ones. And let m tell you, Chicago is going to lead all the cities in organized labor. The knights are now organizing from two to three new as-semblies there every week. As darkness came on Farmer Burgess concived the idea that he was young again and that it would be the proper thing to do a little slumming, just for the fun of the thing. While these thoughts of drinking and carousing welled up through his mind, he failed to look over the pages of the past. then and there he determined that h Right put in a night of it, for he was sure that the Starting out for a stroll on South Fifteenth street he insulted each and every lady that he met, until six had resented his indecent proposals. About this time a stranger who had been watching the proceedings started out after Patrick and as the young man was in the act of grabbing hold of the arm of another lady this stranger struck him a blow in the face, sending him sprawling upon the sidewalk. Patrick wanted to show fight after he had gained his feet and wiped away the blood which flowed from his nose, but a policeman came along

In the order of the circuit court of the Eighth district, sitting in chamber last week at St. Paul, Judges Walter H. Sanburn and Elmer S. Dundy on the bench, and just handed down, provision is made for the continuance of the operation on the part of the receivers of the Union Pacific of the Salina & Southwestern railway, the Kansas City & Omaha railway, the Colorado & Pacific railroad, the Atchison, Jewell county and Western railroad and the Kansas Central railroad until the decision by the court of the mat ters relative to the operation of these rail roads, set for hearing on November 15, may

The order also includes the continued operation of the Carbon Cut-Off railway and the Omah & Republican Valley railway as outlined in an interview with Receiver E. Ellery Anderson and published exclusively in

The Bec of Friday last.
As to the order regarding the discontinu ance of operation of the Denver, Leadville & Gunnisen railway, the court says: "It appears to the satisfaction of this court that the operation of the railroad of the Denver, Leadville & Gunnison Rallway company in volves an expenditure far greater than revenue which can be derived therefrom, and that it is not expedient or advantageous to the trust confided to the receivers herein that the operation of said railroad should be further continued, and 'It is therefore ordered that the said receivers are hereby authorized and directed to deliver and surrender all the property in their hands of or belonging to the said Den ven, Leadville & Gunnison Railway company to the American Loan and Trust company, the trustee of the mortgage of August 1 1889, executed by the Denver, Leadville Gunnison Railway company, or to any re ceiver or receivers appointed under any bill which may be filed for the foreclosure of mortgage, and if no such bill be filed, and the said trustees decline to ac cept the surrender and transfer of the said property, then such surrender be made to executive officers of the said railway company. This surrender and deliver be made on or before the 7th day of August 1894, and the said receivers are completely relieved and discharged from all responsibil ity with respect to the said railway and from all its property, and from any liability o obligations as such receivers to pay or dis-charge any obligations for pay rolls, wages supply bills or materials, or amounts due tindividuals or corporations pertaining to th operation of the said rallfoad and accruing or to accrue from and after the 7th day of August, 1894."

PRESIDENT IVES SAYS WAIT.

Northern Pacific Bondholders Advised Not to be in a Hurry About Reorganization, NEW YORK, July 23 .- President Ivea of the Northern Pacific Railroad company has issued a circular letter to holders of the second, third and consolidated mortgage bonds, in which he calls attention to the letter issued by the board of directors on March 1, advising a general deposit of sewith the Adams-Fitzgerald ganization committee, and remarks that sub sequent developments justify the criticisms made thereon. He calls attention to the made thereon. He calls attention to the present impracticability of the preparation of a satisfactory plan of reorganization, steing that there is no fit basis of reports of earnings on which to rest a scheme. While the scope of their efforts, they do not appear to have met success, and are vigorously opposed by a strong committee of second mortgage bondholders. Nor have they se-cured the co-operation of the Chicago & Northern Pacific committee, nor of the com mittee of any branch or lessed lines, which altogether He altogether represent $57,463,000 of bonds. He claims that while the Adams-Fitzgerald committee deny that they represent Mr. Villard, they do not and cannot deny that their committee was $57,463,000 formed by men who have been for a long time on intimate terms with Mr. Villard. He states there are listed on the stock exchange $177,519,000 bonds and $84,504,131 of stock of the Northern Pacific, all of which must necessarily be more or less affected by any re-organization scheme, and of this amount the Adams-Fitzgerald committees has received deposits of but $11,594,000. It is certain, therefore, he claims, as any future event can be, that the committee as at present organized, and working on existing lines, canno be a successful factor in reorganization, and no reason exists why any committee should ask for deposits of bonds without giving an outline of its reorganization plans.

President Ives repeats his former recommendation to bendholders to retain contro of their bonds at present and confide them to a committee which is able and willing to indicate its plans, and says no possible harm can come to bondholders by delaying action until such a commmittee is found, which will be done in due time.

Those Side Trips for Shriners. Considerable talk was indulged in last week by Chicago roads that the Union Pacific had agreed to give side trips to Shriners visiting Denver, but after a full investigation by the Western Passenger association the rumor was found to be entirely unwarranted although the Santa Fe was considerably nonplussed when the report was made. But a letter received by Chairman Caldwell of the Western Passenger association from General Passenger Agent Semple of the Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf shows how closely certain western lines are united in controlling business in this direction. Mr. Semple, in writing to Mr. Caldwell, ays: "I am just in receipt of a letter dated July 10 from Mr. George T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A., A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., in which he advises Messrs. Lomax, Hooper and my elf he is in receipt of your circular let No. 3,806, promulgating two letters from Mr Lomax, dated July 3. Mr. Nicholson seems to think that action taken by Mr. Lomax in regard to issuing a free side trip to Pueblo or Colorado Springs will cause a reduction in rates between Denver and these two points. The tickets that will be issued on ickets reading to Denver via the Union Pacific system are special round trip form, sample of which I enclose herewith. The body of the ticket specifies that tickets will not be honored for passage unless accompanied by original ticket, form and number and issue all being given, and I am unable to see, with this arrangement, how any great amount of scalping can be done. Howver, if Mr. Nicholson thinks he would be justified in making any rates he sees fit from Denver on account of these side trips being given by the Union Pacific company, this is to give notice that this company will mee rates made by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company for meetings Shriners and wheelmen without further advice to your office." So effective was this letter that the Santa Fe people decided to leave well enough alone, for their experience during the Knights Templar conclave in 1892 is not forgotten, although they managed to control a great portion of the business.

Santa Fe Will Reduce Wages. TOPEKA, July 23 .- Receiver Wilson of the Sarta Fe said today that a retrenchment plan, based on the reduction of wages paid engineers, firemen and conductors, would be put into effect in a few days. The order of United States District Judge Foster, issued Saturday, gives the receivers six months' time in which to examine existing contracts and determine whether or not the company should cancel or change any contracts that will permit changes. "The receivers," said Mr. Wilson, "will take advantage of this order by giving the required notice of thirty days to their engineers, firemen and con-ductors, on the presumption that new con-tracts can now be made on a basis more favorable to the railroad company."

VIOLATION OF CONTRACT IS ALLEGED

Though Stipulated For.

At the meeting of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners last night Commissioner Strickler introduced a resolution requesting the city council to instruct the city attorney to begin suit against the water works company to recover $19.081.20, which has been expended by the city in attempting to provide ample fire protection for the business and residence portions of the city. This resolution cited the fact that owing to the lack of fire pressure the city had been visited by several disastrous fires during the year 1893 and that the board had urged the city authorities to purchase and equip three steam fire engines at a cost of over $19,000. The city has a contract with the water works company to furnish ample fire protection within a radius of 1,000 feet from every hydrant. This city pays a rental of $84,000 per year to the water works company for per year to the water works company for this purpose, and now it is alleged that this contract has been broken by the water works dered sent to the mayor, city attorney and dity council.

Strickler said that he believed that the water works company should be made to stand the expenses for the three steamers, for if the company had provided ample fire protection, as is stipulated in the contract with the city, there would have been no need of purchasing the steamers. He also said that if the commissioners had not been compelled to buy the steamers they would have had ample funds to pay the firemen this year cated for about $2,000,000, and the interest on this amount would be less than the city is now paying for hydrant rental, while every family in the city, with city owner-ship of water works, could be furnished with water free of cost at the amount they are now paying for fire protection.

You know that in a small dining room every inch of floor space is valuable. Yet it is possible with clever furniture to make small room look actually large. The sideboard is the first piece to decide We have seen many ingenious arrangements for a small side-board, but never have we beheld a better pattern than the one here shown. It is absolutely unique, and it takes almost no space from the room.

Here are three large drawers, one of which is lined for small silver. The side closets are fitted with shelves. The top is 50 inches in width, having a recessed center section, with inclosed demi-top, which is very decorative.

There is a three foot bevelled mirror, flanked on either side with antique carved posts It is a beautiful model, very commodious and not at all expensive.
