Executive Board of Knights of Labor Complete Plans for Convancing Nebraska—Miss Haskell to Talk to Working Girls—Tonight's Mass Meeting.

Somehow over seventy delegates answered to the roll call at the regular meeting of the Central Labor union last night in Patterson hall. There were also a large number of visitors present. J. B. Schupp called the meeting to order, and G. W. Sabine was appointed reading clerk to assist Secretary Sebring. The following new delegates were accepted and given the usual obligations: John S. Youngquist of Journeymen Tailors union No. 52, March Boukal, John Havlik and James Hebech of the South Omaha Bohemian Federation of Labor, Fred Toyboe, George Clarke, Ernest Karantz, Anton Trussia, John Tebally and John Withnell of Bricklayers and Masons union No. 1 of Nebraska, John Williams of the Stonecutters union, W. H. Swartz of Beef Butchers union, F. A. Johnson of Brewers union No. 92 and Knights of Labor assembly No. 346, B. Hiddlemer and John Ward of Painters and Decorators union No. 109.

A motion was made and carried to invite the visiting general officers of the Knights of Labor to attend the meeting. Herman Cohen, Alfred Fawcner and John Longbein were appointed a committee to invite the gentlemen to come and visit the Central Labor union. The special committee appointed at a recent meeting to advance the initiative referendum reported that the circular letter had been sent to the heads of all the labor organizations in the country asking them to co-operate with the Omaha Central Labor union in pushing this system until it becomes the law of the land. It was suggested in the circular letter that a national delegate meeting be called to further the advocacy of the system. The arbitration committee reported having settled the questions that had been referred to this committee, and ensured Contractor Creswell of using the same language to members of the Central Labor union when they called upon him.

The special committee appointed to invite the general officers of the Knights of Labor to visit the Central Labor union returned and reported all of the delegates not at the hotel. The president announced that the election of officers was in order, and Alfred Fawcner nominated for president the present incumbent, John B. Schupp of cigar makers union No. 92. In making the nomination the speaker stated that he was in favor of electing tried and true men, and as every one present seemed to think Mr. Schupp was the proper man he was elected by acclamation.

H. H. Boyles of the Elevator Conductors union and Chris Christensen of the Southern Omaha Cigar Makers union were placed in nomination for the office of vice president. Mr. Boyles declined, and Mr. Christensen was elected by acclamation. K. S. Fisher of Typographical union No. 190 and W. S. Sebring of Machine Workers union No. 1 were placed in nomination for the office of recording secretary. The vote stood: Fisher, 16; Sebring, 16; and the president declared Delegate Fisher elected recording secretary.

S. B. Smith of the barbers union, John S. Youngquist of Journeymen Tailors union No. 52 and R. H. Jenness of Typographical union No. 190 were nominated for financial secretary. All other candidates having declined, Mr. Jenness was chosen by acclamation. George Clark of Bricklayers and Masons union No. 1 was chosen treasurer by acclamation.

Eugene Haley of South Omaha and Charles Newstrom of Clear Makers union No. 43 were nominated for the office of secretary-at-large. The vote stood: Haley, 30; Newstrom, 43; and Newstrom was declared elected.

For trustees S. B. Smith of the barbers union, Eugene Haley of South Omaha and John Michaelson of Carpenters and Joiners union No. 47 were elected. The newly elected officers were then installed by the retiring vice president and routine business was again taken up. A motion was made and carried to appoint a committee of five to consider a proposition to publish a daily labor paper in Omaha. The committee was appointed as follows: J. W. Hogan and H. Jenness of Typographical union No. 190, August Beerman of Journeymen Tailors union No. 52, Herman Cohen and Grant W. Kinney of Knights of Labor assembly No. 344.

President Schupp announced that at the next meeting he would announce the appointment of the new committee on District Master Workman Cohen announced that General Master Workman Sovereign would speak tonight at Exposition hall, and invited all of the delegates to be present.

THIS IS THE NEWS FOR THURSDAY
From the Grandest Closing Sale on Record—Greater Reductions from Tomorrow—Move Our Large Stocks Faster We Must Close Out at Once.

We find our stocks are not being reduced fast enough in order to close out in time, so we have decided to put the knife into prices, and commencing with tomorrow (Thursday) morning we will put prices on some lines that cannot help closing them out at once. Some of these special lots will go before noon, and others not until afternoon, and some are in such large lots they will last all day. We have extra help and will run the goods out just as fast as you can buy them.

Will Hear Miss Das all.
Working Girls assembly No. 3633 is preparing to have a grand time on Friday evening at Knights of Labor hall. On this occasion the assembly will be visited by Miss Das, the state secretary of the Knights of Labor of Iowa, who is now in the city attending the meeting of the general officers of the order and seeing what she can get for the benefit of the order in her own state. Miss Haskell is a very pleasant young knight of labor and is said to be a most interesting speaker. She will address the working girls on this occasion and visiting members will be welcome and especially the secretary of district assembly No. 126.

NEW LAUNCHES FOR CUSTOMER SERVICE
Government Will Make an Effort to Break Up Opium Smuggling.
TACOMA, Wash., July 25.—The local government will take up the suppression of opium smuggling with increased vigor. Four fast steam launches are to be purchased to establish a systematic water patrol on Puget sound and Columbia river. One launch will be stationed at Tacoma, one at Port Townsend, one at Astoria and one at Portland. The customs force in this district will be augmented by the addition of four active young men who are not afraid, and the launches will also carry a number of small launches and revenue cutters owned by the government will be placed at various places on the sound, Seattle among them, to watch for smuggling operations. This is the first of the recent trip here of Assistant Secretary Hanlin of the Treasury department and J. J. Crowley, supervising customs agent. Heretofore smugglers have had a soft squawking to the customs officials' small vessels and small force.

L. C. Cullen, assistant treasurer, who told of these increases, says there will be no further chance for smuggling when the new service becomes effective. More opium is smuggled across the border in this state than at any other part of the United States.

There may be some on in this vicinity who are afflicted with a stomach trouble. If so, the experience of A. C. Eppley, a carpenter, and contractor of Newman, Ill., will interest you. He writes: "I was troubled at times with a pain in the stomach, that he says, 'seemed to go through me from front to back. I began taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, whenever my pain appeared I took a dose of the Remedy. It gave me prompt relief and has effected a complete cure.' It is for sale by druggists.

Clear the Debris.

Sounds "odd" but it fits the case precisely—After a destructive cyclone, you "clear the debris," and to wipe it out of memory you must sweep it clean—after a hurricane of business—as it is customary to the Nebraska—it behooves us to "clear away the debris," or, perhaps, more Bostonishly expressed, "To dismiss the superfluous conglomeration of un-welcome accumulations."

Right here in Omaha we call 'em odds and ends—good honest merchandise they are—to be sure—but of no value to us, because we never carry goods to next season—and above all, we never begin a season on broken stock.

You'll find, by carefully looking over something you can use, in every department—and if it be your style and fit—there is a golden strike right there—because the price is likely one half what it used to be—or, perhaps a trifle above.

In our suit department we have a good many broken lots of suits—can't very well sell 'em down to the root, because we have always such a tremendous collection—same case with the trousers department—for the same reason we have some remnants in our boys' and children's department—and in our hat department—and in our shoe department and more so in our men's furnishing stock—in shirts—underwear and the like, where the supply and demand is tremendous.

We firmly believe in cleaning house of broken lots—experience taught us so—and we therefore apply the broom of reduction, and dust off the last vestige of profit—and often below the price they could be manufactured at.

A sale for mutual benefit—we clean house—you save the stuff.

PARIS MENIER
His reasons are: Tea and Coffee create nervousness with a people too nervous all day. Bitter Chocolates are not fit to make a cup of chocolate; cheap (sweet) chocolates are impure, hence injurious; COCOA is no more like CHOCOLATE than Skimmed Milk is like Cream. Chocolat-Menier is an exquisite Vanilla Chocolate, as nourishing as fat, as low priced as other beverages, and far superior. Ask for yellow wrapper. Your grocer has it.
