PAVING PETITION POCKETED PRETTILY

Favored Contractors Had Not Been Successful and Were Given Another Chance by an Obliging Council-Inside History of the Deal.

The action of the city council last Tuesday night in deferring action on the Corby street pavement for another thirty days plea that the property owners had not had the time prescribed by law in which to file their petitions to designate the material, is severely criticised by numerous property owners on that street, who assert that such action was simply a scheme to give the brick contractors time to get a majority of the property owners on their petition or, failing in that, to postpone the paving for another year. The action of the council was on the recommendation of the committee on paving, curbing and guttering and was bitterly opposed by other members, who were arbitrarily ruled out of order

The ordinance ordering the street paved was passed by the council on June 5, and was approved by the mayor on June 8. Section 2 of the ordinance is as follows: "That the property owners are hereby notified to determine and select the material with which said street shall be paved and notify the city council of such selection within thirty days after the approval of this ordinance."

Although the projected pavement is only four blocks in length, extending from Sherman avenue to Twentieth street, the job seemed to be in great demand among the contractors. In times like these when pub-lic improvements are few and far between the contract was desirable enough so that the rival brick and asphalt contractors worked hard to get a sufficient number of signers in favor of their material. In this an affidavit was submitted to the council by property owners who assirted that the brick men were working the matter with more zeal that discretion. The affidavit was signed by Anna Schurz, who swore that T. C. Bruner had obtained her signature to a brick petition by unfair means. She asserted that Bruner had induced her to sign by representing that certain other property owners had signed the petition when they had not, and by further informing her that it was legal for her to sign the petition. when her mother was the real owner of the property in question. This affidavit was also referred to Parker's committee, from which it has never been resurrected.

The petitions for material were filed with the city clerk on July 8, or just after the thirty days allowed by the law had elapsed.
They were referred to the committee and to the city engineer. The report of the latter showed that while there was a plurality in favor of the asphalt material there was no majority in favor of either. The committee reported the petitions back to the council Tuesday night with the recommendation that another thirty days be given the property owners in which to designate a mated. A resolution to this effect was signed Parker and Hascall, who stated that this action was necessary because the property owners had only had nineteen days in which to get their petitions ready instead of the thirty days prescribed by law.

Wheeler, Saunders and Edwards demanded that the clerk produce the records to show whether the representation of the committee was a fact. This the chair refused to allow and demanded that they hould vote on the resolution without fur-They then demanded that the journal should be made to show that they had demanded this information before voting and had been refused, but the chair sum marily ruled them out of order and they voted under protest. During the time that this was going on a councilman had a quiet conversation with Bob Johnson, Hugh Murphy's confidential agent, and then he re-turned to his desk and demanded that debato be closed and the previous question To this the dissenters demurred, on ground that it required a majority of the council to move the previous question, but the chair ignored their point of order and the roll was called. A few minutes after Mr. Johnson stated to a Bee reporter that all they wanted was to get the thing put off so that it could be sidetracked until another year, when they would have an asphalt outfit of their own and be able to bid on either material. The property owners who favor the as-phalt declare that if the council attempts to lay a brick pavement they will stop them by injunction on the ground that the council was required by law to designate asphalt according to the petit.ons reported on Tues-

Board of Public Works Slow to Act on the Corby Street Paving Matter.

The resolution passed at the last meeting of the council seeking to give the property owners on Corby street an additional thirty days in which to select material for paving came up for consideration at the meeting of the Board of Public Works yesterday afternoon. Sewer Commissioner Balcombe said that the only legal way in which the council could accomplish this was to annul the old ordinance and begin proceedings over again under a new one. Any petition for material that was produced after the original thirty days had expired would be illegal, and the bars would be let down for an endless amount of liligation. Chairman Winspear said that this was the first time that they had been asked to do such a thing. He contended that the time for filing petitions dated from the day on which the ordinance was approved by the mayor, and that consequently the coun cil resolution was misleading when it declared that the property owners had not had the thirty days required by law, In support of his position he read the section of the charter that was quoted in yester day's Bee, and a written opinion from the city attorney, in which his position was affirmed. The board decided to lay the resolution over without action until the

The resolution of the council directing the board to increase the wages of city la-borers to 1715 cents per hour was read and placed on file. All members stated that would like to pay the men more if it could be done consistently, but as the present rate of 15 cents was the top note among the contractors and others who em ployed a similar class of labor they could not see their way to make a change without paying more than current wages, as dicated by the charter.

The street commissioner was directed to notify the Missouri Pacific railroad to repair the crossing at Sherman avenue. Another matter which was laid over until the next meeting was a call from numerous boards of public works of the large cities for a convention of the commissioners to be heid in Buffalo, N. Y., September 19, to discuss new methods in public work and exchange ideas on subjects connected with their departments. This call was signed by the com-missioners of St. Louis, Louisville, Boston, Cincinnati, Denver, New Orleans, Syracuse N. Y., Milwaukee and Omaha. The idea originated with Street Commissioner M. J. Murphy of St. Louis, who sent out circular letters to all the large cities, asking them to recommend a date and place for such a convention. Most of them approved the idea, and Buffalo was selected as a meeting place chiefly on account of the immense amount of public improvements that had been complished there within the past few years, and from which it was thought considerable information could be acquired. It is the intention to organize a permanent associa-tion, and the convention will probably be attended by Chairman Winspear and Sewer Commissioner Balcombe. Street Commisstoner Kaspar may also join the party.

Northsiders on the War Path. The meeting of the Omaha View Improvement club at Twenty-sixth and Lake Thursday night was on a par with the weather. To say that things were hot would be putting it mildly. Spades were called spades from start to finish, and the club achieved a reputation second only to the Fifth ward ckers" on the city council itself. The already widespread indignation at the ne-horse service of the two-horse car line on Lake street, was intensified by some of the members on their way to the club room about 8 o'clock who saw one of the cars going into the barn for the night, leaving two ladies to get from home from there on foot as best they could. The club unanimously concurred in another resolution asking the city council to exercise its right under the charter, compelling a ten-minute service until midnight on the Lake street line.

The principal bone of contention, however, was the grade and grading of Lake and Thirtieth street. The discussion developed the fact that with the exception of the Omaha Street Railway company and Mr. Patrick the property owners on Lake are nearly all opposed to the old established grade and in favor of the new grade proposed by this club. A resolution was finally passed, however, endorsing the ordie introduced in the city council at its meeting declaring the 'necessity of grading those streets, the city to pay one The election of offic rs was postponed until the next meeting on Thursday, August 2.

DIAMOND THIEF CAPTURED.

Omaha Crook Turns a Big Trick at the Iowa Capitat.

Yesterday the police succeeded in un-earthing most of the jewelry which was stolen from the residence of H. L. Beidenkop in Des Moines last Saturday night. Five of the loose diamonds were found in the possession of Banks, a North Sixteenth street, jeweler, where they were pawned in the early part of the present/week. Two more of the diamonds, so he claims, he purchased, but sold them next day, not keeping any record of who was the purchaser.

Robert O. Callahan, the man accused of the robbery, was arrosted by the police, and while on his way to the station he threw away a diamond ring. Yesterday Callahan told the officers where he threw the stones, and a search was made, locating them in the middle of Fifteenth street between Chicago and Davenport streets. This accounts for all of the stolen property, with the exception of the two stones which passed out of the possession of Banks.

Callahan waived the securing of requisition papers and returned to lowa yesterday afternoon, accompanied by the officers. the possession of Banks, a North Sixteenth yesterday afternoon long enough to hear the reading of the ordinance amending the present building ordinance, which was referred to a committee to report at the regular council meeting next Tuesday night. The amendment in question simply provides that when the building inspector shall refuse to issue a permit for the removal of a building on the ground that it is not worth 50 per cent of what it would cost to build a similar one the owner shall not be allowed to tear down the old building and reconstruct it on property abutting on any paved street of the city. The haste to get this ordinance passed was in order to get it inserted in the book provided by the building inepector for the use of builders and house movers, which is now ready for the press.

Local Labor Leaders Call a Meeting to Discuss Plans for the Coming Politieal Campaign-Expect to Get All Forces in Line.

The time of the general officers of the Knights of Labor was taken up yesterday in answering several communications from eastern assemblies relative to the private business of the order and considering an agreement about to be entered into between district assembly No. 216 and the trades unionists in its district. This qistrict assembly is proposing to form a combination with the trades unions so that the various local organizations may be enabled to exchange cards that will be recognized by the ocals comprising the district. Secretary Hayes says they have not as yet considered any general proposition to unite all of the labor organizations, but that the knights are willing at any time to enter into an agreement for exchanging cards with Federa-The question of a general unity sideration before the executive board ad-General Master Workman Sovereign went

It is the intention of the knights to show their power in defeating Oates for the governorship in such a way as will be a warning to wrongdoers in the future. When all of the evidence is secured regarding Oates' record in congress it will be furnished to the state assembly of Alabama to use in the campaign, in addition to Mr. Sovereign's personal efforts in trying to bring about his LOCAL LABOR CONFERENCE. A call for a local labor conference to take place on August 11 was issued yesterday. The call is signed by Michael Nelson, secretary of district assembly 126 of the Knights of Labor, and will be sent to the secretarie of all labor organizations in the city. After reciting the need for labor to unite at the ballot box it says; "The time is fast ap-proaching when we as laboring men will be called upon to cast our votes for men to fill tional governments. Let us see to it that the mistakes of the past are not repeated. You can all see the result of our past folly, but let us all join hands as brothers and elect some of our own representatives to fill these offices. With this object in view district assembly No. 126, Knights of Labor, calls upon you and all other labor organizations n the city to elect five delegates from among your best representative members regardless of their political affiliations of the Fourteenth street, on Saturday evening, August 11, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of taking the necessary steps whereby organ ized labor in this city can unite and act as one solid body at the coming election." Organizations that from some cause should nappen not to receive the call by mail are requested to accept the above as official. The originators of the call say that this will be the best means to unite the labor vote and they expect every organization in the city to send its quota of delegates.

County Commissioners and Platte Cana Company May Reach an Agreement. The stockholders of the Platte Canal and Power company will meet the county com missioners in conference at the court house this morning. The object of the conference is to try to compromise the differences Letween the commissioners and the county in a manner that will be satisfactory to both parties.

When the local stockholders decided to accept the proposition of the county commissioners, as formulated by the citizens committee, their action was made conditional upon the approval of Mr. Kountze, who was then out of the city. Afterwards this condition was the cause of a temperary lull in negotiations, and for a few days i seemed improbable that the company would accept the proposition unless it was medified to a considerable extent. The com nissioners were unwilling to retreat, and after that no material advance was made toward an understanding until yesterday when the parties interested held an informal conference, at which the difference

According to the statements of one of the participants, it is likely that an agree-ment will be reached. The company seemed to be inclined to come half way, and it was believed that everything could be settled satisfactorily. There are still two or three points which bang fire, but it is hoped that these will be adjusted and a proposition definitely accepted within a few days.

Clear the Debris.

Sounds "odd" but it fits the case precisely --- After a destructive cyclone, you "clear the debris," and to wipe it out of memory you must sweep it cleanafter a hurricane of business-as it is customary to the Nebraska-it behooves us to "clear away the debris," or, perhaps, more Bostonishly expressed, "To dismiss the superfluous conglomoration of unwelcome accumulations."

Right here in Omaha we call 'em odds and ends-good honest merchandise they are-to be sure-but of no value to us, because we never carry goods to next season -- and above all, we never begin a season on broken stock.

You'll find, by carefully looking over, something you can use, in every department - and if it be your sty'e and fit-there is a golden strike right there-because the price is likely one half what it used to be or, perhaps a trifle above.

In our suit department we have a good many broken lots of suits-can't very well sell 'em down to tho root, because we have always such a tremendous collection same case with the trousers department-for the same reason we have some remnants in our boys' and children's department-and iu our hat department-and in our shoe department and more so in our men's furnishing stock -- in shirts—underwear and the like, where the supply and demand is tremendous.

We firmly believe in cleaning house of broken lots-experience taught us so-and we therefore apply the broom of reduction, and dust off the last vestige of profit—and often below the price they could be manufactured at.

A sale for mutual benefit—we clean house you save the stuff.

Bon't Fool With Your Eyes

Headache Cause I by Eye Strain. Many persons whose heads are constantly aching have no idea what rolled scientifically fitted glasses will give them. This theory is now universally established. 'Improperly fitted glasses, will invariably increase the trouble and may lead to TOTAL BLINDNESS." Our ability to adjust glasses safely and correctly is beyond question. Consult us. Eyes tested free of charge. THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO., Opposite Paxton Hotel.
