

THE CLEVER HOTEL CROOK

How Detectives Protect Unsuspecting Guests at Summer Hotels.

WORK THAT CALLS FOR MENTAL INGENUITY

Stories to Show the Hardship and Pleasantry of Following the Cunning Rascals Successfully—Specimens of Smooth Work.

Mr. Martin, who is the detective in a large summer hotel, told a New York Herald man these stories:

The life of a detective in a summer hotel, while an obscure one, is in the most exciting and diversified of any in the detective line.

It is in duty to guard the guests not only from outsiders, but from chance blunders in the sheep fold. He must never blunder in his arrests nor fail to find the wrongdoer.

My first case was a case of a woman. Mr. S. and his wife have been using her now for five years. This year they came on the 4 o'clock train, and were assigned to room No. 26, their old quarters.

At 6 o'clock they came down stairs, left their room key in the office and went into the dining room.

At 7 o'clock I change desk clerks, and this year I have a new man on duty from 6 o'clock to 12. He had never seen Mr. and Mrs. S. about a week ago.

At 10 o'clock I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went back to my desk. Ten minutes later the man returned, threw the key on the desk, gave the clerk a cigar and walked out.

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

HOW THE W. T. DAVIS BLAWING

(Continued from First Page.)

candidates on the representative ticket. All depends on whom the republicans nominate.

The populists have a candidate for anything in sight in the person of Jacob Beck, who denounces his opponents in lectures on boxes, etc., on the streets.

For county judge Jesse T. Davis seems to be the only candidate in a good old republican and will probably receive the nomination.

For congressman the county is solid for Dan Mercer.

For governor it is hard to tell. The only candidates mentioned are MacColl and McKim, MacColl has great many friends, while if McKim's friends are working they are doing it on the quiet.

PHELPS COUNTY. Holmberg—There are no candidates in this county for a place on the state ticket.

A GENTLEMAN THIEF. This was one of the most serious hotel cases I have ever had, because a woman's fair name and fame were in question.

I had noticed for some weeks that Mr. B. had been coming to the hotel. Mrs. B. had noticed that lady's husband came to the hotel twice a week, and she was surrounded by five or six children.

My first case was a case of a woman. Mr. S. and his wife have been using her now for five years. This year they came on the 4 o'clock train, and were assigned to room No. 26, their old quarters.

At 6 o'clock they came down stairs, left their room key in the office and went into the dining room.

At 7 o'clock I change desk clerks, and this year I have a new man on duty from 6 o'clock to 12. He had never seen Mr. and Mrs. S. about a week ago.

At 10 o'clock I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went back to my desk. Ten minutes later the man returned, threw the key on the desk, gave the clerk a cigar and walked out.

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

The clerk said he had never seen them. I went to the desk and said: "Give me No. 26," adding pleasantly, "You see we have the same old room."

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE—MONDAY, JULY 30, 1912

WORKING FOR THE RAILROAD

Wall Street Brokers Only Making Turas Sufficient to Supply Daily Needs.

SUGAR STOCK STILL A LIVELY FACTOR

Senatorial Stubbornness Gives the Sugar Trust a Bull Market Encouragement—End of the Tariff Discussion Anxiously Awaited.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Henry Clews, secretary of the Wall Street firm of Henry Clews & Co., writes of the situation in Wall Street:

"We have to report another week of unbroken dullness in Wall street affairs. The market is very quiet, and the only professional, who seek nothing beyond fractional turns, who go to pay for the day's sale."

Naturally, the strange condition at Washington over the duty on sugar creates an interest in Sugar trust stock; but, even in this, the transactions are comparatively nominal.

The attitude of the Sugar trust in the management of those companies may be reawakened and kept permanently active.

Assimilation of the management of railroad properties by receivers to that of the management of those companies by circuit courts from the care of the business management of those properties to the administration of justice.

Initiative on the part of the public prosecuting authorities in respect to crimes connected with the construction of the provisions of the bill.

PHENIX OF MONEY BUT INVESTORS ARE A LITTLE BIT SHY.

LONDON, July 29.—Money is still in unprecedented abundance. There has been no change in rates. The market is very quiet, and the only professional, who seek nothing beyond fractional turns, who go to pay for the day's sale."

Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Prospective rain in the corn belt dampened the ardor of the bulls in corn today, and the other markets followed that grain in the cashness which resulted.

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Saturday.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Prospective rain in the corn belt dampened the ardor of the bulls in corn today, and the other markets followed that grain in the cashness which resulted.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Less Than Two Loads of Good Native Cattle Arrived Yesterday.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Less than two loads of good native cattle arrived for the morning today. Total receipts were about 1,500 head, more than 1,000 head were Texans.

CHICAGO CITY, July 29.—CATTLE—Receipts, 1,500 head; market, unchanged.

KANSAS CITY Live Stock Market.

ST. LOUIS Live Stock Market.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—CATTLE—Receipts, 1,500 head; market, unchanged.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE—MONDAY, JULY 30, 1912

THE OMAHA D