"LAST DAYS OF POMPEIL."

Arrangements for Paine's Big Attraction to Be Presented in Omaha.

The prospect that Omaha will be able to invite her friends in Nebraska and western Iowa to witness the great spectacle illustrating the "Last Days of Pompeii" are brightening daily, nothing now remaining to be done but the closing of a few final propositions. The financial part of the work has been well handled. In the first place Paine, the great pyrotechnic artist, who owns the spectacle, asks $15,000 for placing the picture before the public for twentyeight nights. The Courtland beach people will expend $6,000 in advertising the specta-Mr. Paine has agreed to accept the $12,000 secured from admissions, then the beach peoble will reimburse themselves the advertising out of the next $6,000. and Paine will take the final payment of $3,000 due him after the expenses have been The Courtland beach people ask the paid. citizens of Omaha for a cash guarantee of $5,000. This amount has practically been secured, about $1,000 yet remaining to be subscribed. Commissioner Utt of the Commercial club, who is assisting in the enter-prise, is confident that the rest of the guarantee will be made up within a few hours, although he regrets the fact that some of the Omaha interests which will be largely benefited are extremely backward about contributing to the guarantee.

The railroad companies will fix an ex-cursion rate to prevail during the entire three weeks. This will enable thousands of people to visit Omaha, transact their fall business with the wholesale merchants of this city, bring their families with them and witness the great spectacle at their leisure. In addition, excursion trains will be run daily, permitting many other thous-ands to witness the greatest picture ever painted in fire, and return to their homes the same night. The street railway com panies have agreed to make a round rate of 15 cents from the city to Courtland beach and return. The East Omaha com-pany will operate twenty trains of two cars each at one minute intervals. This ar-rangement, it is believed, will fully care for the thousands who wish to reach the city after the close of the performance.

Commissioner Utt is sanguine of the suc cess of the enterprise from a commercial should offer some attraction to the thousands of retail merchants of the state who come to Omaha to purchase their fall stocks of goods. The amount of money expended by thousands of visitors daily for three weeks will more than compensate the busi-ness men of the city for the small amount they contribute to the guarantee fund.

Her run of 4361/2 miles in 425% minuts stands as a world's record, and her mile in 32 seconds has never been equaled in this or foreign countries. But it is more than probable that within the next few months the New York Central officials will order one of those records broken by another engine, and then will give the 999 an opportunity to enter into the record-breaking business again.

Engines 888 and 870 came out of the New York Central's shops at West Albany, where the 999 was built. The 870 will be re christened and will be known as the They are now running regularly on the Em pire State express, and the company is ex-perimenting with them by running them first on one division and then another, under dif-

The engineers of the three flyers are as follows: On the 999, Archie Buchanan and Dennis Cassin; on the 888, Thomas Dormady and Edward Chase; on the 870, James Foyle and Matthew Rea

The other day Mr. Chase left Albany with the Empire State express, thirteen minutes late. The distance, ninety-five miles, was made in 96 minutes. Mr. Dormady says he made the run from Utica to Albany in 90 minutes the other day. Continuing he said:
"I made thirteen miles in ten minutes last week, and I could have kept up that speed Considering the run of ninetyfive miles in 90 minutes, I believe that could make 190 miles in 175 minutes. That may sound like bragging to some people, but I am sincere in making the statement, for I made the ninety-five-mile run without the least bit of trouble, and could have done t much quicker.'

The difference between the speed which an ordinary engine can make and the average speed of the 999 is shown in a run made by that engine last Thursday. The engine left Syracuse one hour and ten minutes late with the St. Louis express. The train consisted of eleven cars and had two stops to make, one at Utica and the other at Schnectady. The train arrived in Albany on time, time having been made up in a run of 153

DES MOINES, Ia., July 31,-(Special Tele gram to The Rec.)-Quite a number of dele gates to the democratic state convention which meets here tomorrow, have arrived but it is not expected that not more than half of the 1,125 members of the convention will attend. Very few of the allege candidates for nominations are here, and there will be no contests for any of them. Indeed, the convention will do well if it succeeds in getting the nominees to accept. Those who are on the ground are mostly office holders, and they attempt to appear sanguine, but the most of them privately admit that this is not a good democratic year and that there is no hope for them in Hon, Edward Campbell, the Neston of the party in lows, in an interview today predicted republican victory by anywhere from 75,000 to 100,000 plurality.
