BONFIRE IN ANOTHER LEAGUE BALL PARK.

Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth of Pavilions, Seats and Dressing Rooms Gone Up in Smoke—Omnibus Stables Also Set on Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.—The Philadelphia ball park, one of the finest of its kind in the country, is a smoking wreck of crumbling walls, charred timbers and twisted iron.

The fire started between the partitions in the ladies' toilet room at the west end of the main pavilion of the ball park.

One of the bystanders noticed a narrow sheet of flame shooting up between the boards of the partition at the west end of the stand.

While the firemen were making strenuous efforts to save the adjoining property the long lines of bleaching benches opposite the grand stand and the seats and dressing rooms were burned.

Seven firemen were badly burned. The total loss on pavilion, omnibus stables and other property aggregates $130,000.
