

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, Editor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (without Sunday) One Year, $3.00...

WHY NOT ARBITRATE THE STRIKE?

The sheriff and his deputies have been reinforced in South Omaha by five companies of state militia at the urgent request of the packing house and stock yard owners...

THE SMALLEST IN FIFTEEN YEARS.

There has just been issued from the bureau of statistics a detailed report on immigration for the year ended June 30, 1894...

OTHER LANDS THAN OURS.

The measure for the relief of the evicted tenants in Ireland is commanding greater attention than any other subject in British politics...

A Capital Congress for Republicans.

The present congress has made more capital for the republicans than any previous one...

THE SENATE OIL ROOM.

The above is a fac simile of the certificate signed by Lieutenant Governor Majors and approved by the auditor, as now on file in the office of the auditor of state.

THE TELL-TALE CERTIFICATE.

The State of Nebraska, I, H. M. Taylor, Auditor of State, do hereby certify that the above account is correct and just, and has not been paid.

Sworn to before me and subscribed by me in presence of this list of witnesses, N. P. FILL, Notary Public.

Denver appears to be coining the money with which to erect a new mint in Philadelphia.

Whatever happens, the populist income tax is safer than any other part of the tariff bill.

Milliaman at $1 a day are cheaper than deputy sheriffs, and then, too, the state pays the bill.

The democrats are rotting over their wonderful victory in Alabama merely to set the precedent by which they can exult over carrying Mississippi, Georgia, Texas and the rest of the solid south when they find that they have nothing in the north from which to draw a ray of consolation.

Not to let the tariff conference have a monopoly on deadlocks, the conference committee has developed a deadlock all for itself.

If Gorman had attempted to deliver his famous speech on the president's Wilson letter in the house instead of in the senate he would probably have been declared out of order by Speaker Crisp and compelled to stand and take his seat.

The trills on our public school system are to be found everywhere from the kindergarten to the training school. In dispensing with them the Board of Education should make a clean sweep.

County Judge Baxter deserves credit for going after delinquent administrators and executors. It has become a matter of common belief that once got an estate into the hands of a court's appointee and it is likely to remain tied up for an indefinite period of time.

It is gratifying to note that the returns from the Omaha clearing house again show a balance on the right side. This week's total volume of business is 244 per cent greater than that of the corresponding week in 1893.

The school board may as well make up its mind at once that Omaha will have to be content with its present high school building for several years to come.

It is really discouraging to note how some people find it absolutely impossible to get a distinction between prices and values driven into their skulls.

Our explanation is to be found chiefly in the industrial depression. In tending immigrants have been warned by their friends here to remain at home...

These patriotic Americans who are weeping large, salty tears over the outrage of the British flag floating over the British flag have evidently forgotten that John Bull's flag floated over Confederate States territory during the rebellion.

Mr. Bryan of Nebraska has announced his candidacy for the seat of Senator Manly in the district of Nebraska...

All America rejoices, especially all yeasting America, because George Gould, with his yacht, "Albatross," has beaten the British in the grand match in the face and eyes of the world.
