

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Table with subscription rates: Daily (10¢), Weekly (60¢), Monthly (1.50), etc.

OFFICE: Omaha, The Bee Building, 20th and Twenty-fourth Sts.

ADVERTISING: All business letters and notices should be addressed to the office.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION: Total copies printed 175,541.

Table showing circulation statistics: Total copies printed, Total copies distributed, etc.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 1st day of August, 1894.

GEORGE B. TSCHUCK, Notary Public.

Address all letters and telegrams of congratulations to the president of the Sugar trust.

Only 534 senate amendments to the tariff bill!

The whisky trust and the wholesale liquor dealers will not suffer on account of the drought.

Tobe and Euclid had sidetracked the Bryan boomlet by setting the democratic state convention five weeks after the populists shall have held theirs.

Has it come to this, that there are only a dozen democrats in the house who are brave enough to stand up against party perjury and party dishonor?

The mutilated Wilson bill has passed, but free barb wire has been hung up with free sugar, free coal and free iron until Gabriel's horn announces the advent of the millennium.

So we are to have some repairs on the sixteenth street viaduct at last.

Indiana democrats announce that they intend to vigorously eschew national issues in the coming campaign in their state.

First-class hotel clerks and the professional sports have reason to feel gratified over the passage of the Wilson bill.

How does barbed wire come to be included in the great democratic principle of free raw material?

If the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners has so little business to transact that regular meetings are no longer necessary, the members might grant themselves leaves of absence without pay for two weeks at a time.

With two state conventions, with our Labor day demonstrations, and with an outdoor spectacular performance continuing several weeks, Omaha ought not to be so dull this fall as some gloomy forebodings might naturally lead one to expect.

For the sake of the populist income tax Congressman Bryan gladly repudiated the great democratic principle of free raw material.

Are there no populists eligible for congress in the Fifth and Sixth Nebraska districts who are not perpetually on the sick list?

The Bee cheerfully notes a marked improvement in the weather forecasts within the past week, and it voices the sentiment of the community in expressing the hope that the local weather observer will change his mind and stay with us a little while longer.

"Senate bill or no bill" proved to be the talker. With the precedent of the tariff bill before them, senate conferees ought to be more independent than ever.

How about a special session of congress in case the senate refuses to pass the popgun tariff bills?

Two state military encampments with a difficult communication between them is a device to give the telegraph companies a share in the expenditures for the maintenance of the militia.

McKeighan has been renominated by the populists of the Fifth district for a third term by acclamation.

But evidence of revival does not stop with this.

A SELF-CONDEMNED PARTY.

In his caustic speech in the house on Monday ex-Speaker Reed said: "Out of your own household has come your condemnation. Nay, out of your own mouths has your condemnation come."

The letter of Mr. Cleveland to Mr. Wilson, chairman of the ways and means committee and one of the house conferees, was read to the chairman of the committee on July 19.

DEPLORABLE RESULT OF BRUTAL SPORT. The death of Fletcher Robbins from bodily injuries received during a glove contest in a public hall at Plattsmouth is a most shocking sequel of brutal sport.

A SUFFRAGE LESSON. The business men of Cook county in Chicago are said to be considerably alarmed over the situation there.

OUR GEORGE H. BROOKLYN EAGLE. The vigilant hawk went today. The water and weather were what they ought to be.

JUDGE RAGAN'S DISCLAIMER. HASTINGS, Aug. 13.—To the Editor of The Bee: Some two weeks since a dispatch was sent from this city to the effect that I was advising the farmers to postpone paying their interest for one year.

REPUBLICAN ABJUNCTION. Excerpts from Cleveland's Opinion of the Senate last year.

GOOD EFFECTS ALREADY. Those who predicted that the settlement of the tariff question would be immediately followed by a revival of industrial and business activity have a justification of their judgment in what has already taken place.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

When the odds get too much in favor of one or the other combatants in the Korean war Russia may be trusted to see that the equilibrium is restored.

POLITICAL POTPOURRI.

Logan McFerrone's Clay went down to defeat with ex-Speaker Elder in the fight for a renomination to the legislature.

There'll be many a familiar face in the legislature this coming session, for all the parties have in many places taken to renominating people who have been there before.

For sixteen years all the candidates for the legislature in Nebraska county have been farmers. Now the populists have broken the record by nominating a town man, David Gutbrule of Superior.

Kearney Hub: W. E. Andrews was again nominated by congress for the position of the Fifth district, and well informed people think that there is a great deal more than a fighting chance this time for his election.

There promises to be trouble in the Gage county delegation to the republican state convention when the voting begins.

Plattsmouth News: Representative Davies has succeeded in securing a renomination at the hands of the populists, but a nomination is not equivalent to an election for J. A. Gage.

Plattsmouth News: Representative Davies received the support of the people of Red Willow, regardless of party, have too much self-respect to allow themselves to be represented by a rowdy and a gambler.

Lincoln News: Mr. Majors' old friends, who have been asserting that the disclosure about his official career only makes his nomination surer, have apparently tumbled to the fact that this is equivalent to saying that to prove a man to be a traitor to the people an corporation to take to insure his nomination at the hands of the populists.

Philadelphia has a George Washington club with 300 members. One of the qualifications of membership is disbelief in the cherry tree incident.

Both the republican and democratic conventions will be held in Omaha now if the state will come either local irrigation will be given a decided boost.

California will pay dearly in the end for the bounty of $5 granted for every coyote killed and presented to the state treasurer.

Chicago Record: Whatever motive may have led to this legal stop just at the present time it may have one beneficial result in securing a more rigid definition of corporate powers.

Chicago Post: Mr. M'Jonehy might have attacked the town of Pullman on much broader grounds.

Chicago Tribune: The supreme court may have to decide between the two constructions of the attorney general and of the Pullman company's lawyers of the powers given by the charter.

Atlanta Constitution: Girl at seaside. Reading book. Steals a look.

Girl romantic. Views the wave. "I jumped in." "Would he save?"

Looks dejected. Seems to weep. Plumes headlong in the deep.

Young man snuffs his cigarette. Cries: "Your dress is going west!"

Girl swims shoreward. Mutter: "Knew he would be a fool!"

THE TELL-TALE CERTIFICATE.

Shall the Party Commit Itself to a Tattooed Standard Bearer? The candidacy of Thomas J. Majors confronts the republican party of Nebraska as a menace to its success in the impending campaign.

It could not withstand. Every candidate and every party leader on the stump would be compelled to champion the candidacy of a man who is tattooed with a record of indelible infamy.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

During the session of 1891 the state was scandalized by the abduction of Senator Taylor, a populist, who had been elected on the anti-monopoly platform.

It is notorious that Taylor was on confidential terms with Lieutenant Governor Majors, and especially with his private secretary, Walt M. Seely.

THE TELL-TALE TAYLOR ORDER.

Senate Chamber. Lincoln, Neb., 1891. Portland, Oregon, April 11th, 1891. I hereby authorize Walt M. Seely to sign my name to vouchers, and warrants.

THE AITCHISON SCANDAL. Chicago Post: The offense of rebelling with Reinhardt states accused, crushes and grinds the very lifeblood out of small merchants by giving honor advance places to large shippers.

Buffalo Courier: No Angelina! a funeral does not follow a dead head. Your impression was doubtless gained from the fact that the hopes of a good many bettors are buried by such an event.

Indianapolis Journal: "Poor man, I know you used to be hungry," said the kind-hearted woman who came to the door.

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

THE TELL-TALE TAYLOR ORDER.

Senate Chamber. Lincoln, Neb., 1891. Portland, Oregon, April 11th, 1891. I hereby authorize Walt M. Seely to sign my name to vouchers, and warrants.

THE AITCHISON SCANDAL. Chicago Post: The offense of rebelling with Reinhardt states accused, crushes and grinds the very lifeblood out of small merchants by giving honor advance places to large shippers.

Buffalo Courier: No Angelina! a funeral does not follow a dead head. Your impression was doubtless gained from the fact that the hopes of a good many bettors are buried by such an event.

Indianapolis Journal: "Poor man, I know you used to be hungry," said the kind-hearted woman who came to the door.

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"

Washington Star: "What barbarians these Asiatics are!" exclaimed one puglist. "Yes," replied the other. "They are actually fighting!"