Yesterday's game was an exhibition of what a team of ball players can do when they get a divorce from the tank loads of booze that they have been carrying around for a week and devote their attention to earning Left their salaries, instead of trying to boom the corn market by the consumption of the distilled product. The Omaha team has been having altogether too good a time for the weather. last week, and this fact is mainly responsible for the loss of those three games with Quincy. Three or four of the players have been leading a life of unrestricted liberty over night, the effects of which were plainly visible on the ball field the next day.

But yesterday told a different story. The team took a new lease of life and downed the leaders in the prettiest game that has been seen on the local diamond this year. Rourke took McVey's place at first and his muff of a thrown ball was the only misplay that marred the otherwise perfect record of the team. But Papa atoned for his miscue a minute later, when he shot the ball across the diamond to Ulrich, completing a double play that made the fans hug themselves with While the game was a beauty from start to finish there are two features that should never be forgotten. One of these was the fact that Seery spoke. Yes, actually opened his mouth and kicked when Umpire Needham called a doubtful strike on him, and Need-ham was so dumbfounded with surprise that when it was two strikes and three balls a moment later and Mauck shot one square the plate he said "four balls" and the old man went to first.

But the star attraction of the whole show was young Abbey, whom Manager McVittle has imported from Anson's aggregation to show the Western leaguers how easy it is to miss a ball three times and walk back to the bench. And maybe he didn't show those sluggers from Rock Island how that y thing was done yesterday. Nine of visitors fanned the air and in six of the nine innings only eighteen men came to bat. Six scattered hits and one base on balls was the best that he would give them, and even a hitter like Katz pounded the twice in a futile effort to connect with Mr.

HE'S A REAL HANDSOME FELLOW. The beauty of Abbey's pitching is that he oes it so easy. It apparently requires no effort at all to twist them around the bat-ter's neck and shoot them just so that he will miss them a foot, and Abbey salted down Harry Sage's hired men yesterday without even raising a perspiration. He is pretty, too, at least that is what a young woman who sat back of the press box was heard to say, and if he will pitch just one more game like that he will stand a pretty good chance of being elected governor this fall. The Omahas performed their usual feat of scoring in the first inning. Ulrich smashed one of Mauck's curves for two sacks and went to third on Langsford's sacrifice. Secry got a base on balls and Lynch fumbled Rourke's hit, while he reached first and Ulrich scored. Two long files to Sweeney and Katz ended it for the time and the Abbey's first feat was to hit Hill in the head with the ball, but Hutch got Sweeney's pop up and Seery shut them out by nailing Zeis' fly and doubling up Hill by a line throw to third.

died without a struggle in the second, but in the next Ulrich started off again with a hit and Langsford brought him around with a home run smash over the fence. In the sixth Fear hit safely and scored on Abbey's corking two-sacker, and in the sev-enth Seery duplicated Langsford's performance and hit for four bases and a run. Seery scored again in the ninth on a base on balls, Hill's errors and Hutchison's hit. The visitors tallied one in the second, when Kreig scratched a single, advanced to second when Abbey hit Cantillion with the ball and scored on a timely two-bagger, for which Lynch was responsible. In the second a base on balls, a wild pitch and a hit gave them one more, and in the fourth Hill scored their only carned run by a safe hit, a steal of second and Sweeney's

From that time on it was a slaughter. They simply walked up to the plate and struck out or were retired easily at first. They couldn't hit Abbey, and they knew it, so their inning was just a little breathing spell for the other side. Mauck, too, was but little behind in the matter of pitching, delivery. Pitcher's Battle at St. Joe.

Thener's Battle at St. Joe.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 20.—(Special Telegram to The Bec.)—Today's game was a pitcher's battle, in which Johnson, for St. Joseph, had a little the best of it. Errors by Devinney and Lohbeck in the tenth inning lost the visitors the game. The fielding on both sides was very brilliant, Mohler, Welch and Smith particularly distinguishing themselves. Cole's running catches in center were very fine, all of them being on hard drives. Score:

RYAN AND LAYTON FINISH FIGHT.

st. Joseph Athletic Club Making Great Preparations for Thursday Night's Event. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 20.-(Special to The Bee.)-Tommy Ryan of Chicago and Billy Layton of this city will battle on Thursday night for a purse of $2,000, a side bet of $1,500 and the welterweight championship of the world.

The fight will take place at the St. Joseph Athletic club and will be the biggest sporting event that has taken place in this section in recent years. Lou Housman, Ryan's backer, says that at least 200 Chicago sports will be on hand, and Layton's friends at his old home in Des Moines have engaged 300 seats. The Kansas City crowd has engaged 150 seats.

The rooms of the club have been rearranged and a new ring built in the center, with raised seats on all sides. This gives a seating capacity of not less than 1,200. The admission has been fixed at $5 a ticket. All money realized over and above the actual expenses of the club in arranging the match will go towards the crection of actual expenses of the club in arranging the match will go towards the erection of a fine new club house, plans for which have already been accepted.

Tommy Ryan, the world's champion welterweight, is too well known to the sporting fraternity to need extended mention. Layton is not so well known. He is a clever fighter and a thorough athlete. He is a quiet fellow, and takes good care of himself. He is now in training at the club, and is in fine condition, but wants to work off a few more pounds of flesh. work off a few more pounds of flesh. He is a native of Virginia, and is 29 years old. He has a fought sixty-four battles and has never been defeated. He has defeated fifty men in finish fights, stopped thirteen in given times, and fought one draw with George LaBlanche, "The Marine." Last year he had a second go at LaBlanche, in which he beat him into insensibility.

Layton does not rank as a top notcher in his class as yet for the reason that he has never been able to get on a match with the big fellows, but his fight with Ryan will give him a national reputation with first class men. He is cocksure of defeating Ryan, and will go into the ring full of confidence and determination. He bases his assurance on the fact that he has met some of the same men Ryan has and defeated them with less trouble. The match is a sure go, as the money is all up and all arrangements completed. The police will not interfere. Nearly every seat in the house has been reserved, and by Thursday night standing room only can be sold. Ryan and his backer and seconds will arrive here from Chicago some time Wednesday, and will be the guests of the St. Joseph Athetic club until after the fight. Even bets are being taken, but in most cases slight odds are asked on Ryan. Bets aggregating $5,000 have already been posted, part of which is even money, but in a majority of them Ryan men are givposted, part of which is even money, but in a majority of them Ryan men are giv-ing 10 to 8. FIRST ROUND OF DOUBLES

Interstate Tennis Tourney Opened at the Harney Street Courts.

ONE VERY CROSELY CONTESTED GAME

Haskell and Chiawell of Omaha Defeated by Farquian and Nicholson of Lemars in in Hard Struggle - Play for Today.

The Interstate Tennis tournament was opened yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the grounds of the Omaha Lawn Tennis club on Harney street. As is usual with the opening of any contest, the attendance was poor, but after the players reach bedrock, so to speak, and enter upon the finals and semifinals, a better crowd can be looked for. Such was the case with the late state tournament held here. Yesterday was a good day for tennis, the weather not being too hot and the wind, although at times inconvenient, was not troublesome. The courts were in good condition.

The tournament was opened by the playing of the first round in the doubles. Owing to absence several of the entries were scratched and consequently the preliminaries were omitted. There were in reality only two matches in this round, the one between Townsend-Denise and Dickey-Haverstick and the other between the Country club team of Kansas City and Sheldon and partner of Tabor. Townsend and Sheldon falled to show up and Dickey and Haverstick and the Kansas City team obtained the matches by de-fault. The original partner of Haverstick was Colpetzer, but he was also missing, and Dickey took his place in the team. ONE GOOD GAME OF THE DOUBLES.

Three matches were played. Two of these eveloped only fair tennis and the winners had very little difficulty in pulling out victorious. But the third match, that between the Lemars team, Farquhar and Nicholson, and Caldwell and Haskell of Omaha, fully compensated for the mediccrity of the former two. It was made up of frequent brilliant plays and required the full five sets to de The feature of the match was the vicious and terrific smashes of Farquhar. Many of these could not be touched at all, and when they were a good return was rarely made. It seemed, however, that if his op-ponents had tried more of a net game the effect of these smashes would have been considerably lessened, as no effort was made to place them. They simply went through, their speed making them successful. olson ably seconded his partner, some of his pickups being especially noteworthy. Both played a net game, Nicholson particularly placing frequent balls out of reach of his opponents. The team work of the pair was good, especially in contrast with that of Caldwell and Haskell. These latter frequently collided and spoiled what would otherwise have been easy strokes. The work of the two, however, was very good, and often brilliant. Haskell placed some very Rifficult balls, while Caldwell made a number of fine returns. The former has a disagreeable habit of coaching his partner, which cannot be very turns. conducive to steadying his nerves. The match resulted in a victory for Farquhar and Nicholson by the following score: 6-2, 4-6, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2. Austin and Battin beat Haverstick and Dickey, 6-3, 9-7, 6-1. The victory could hardly be called doubtful at any point, although the second set was somewhat close. The defeated pair had had no practice together, Colpetzer having been the original partner of Haverstick, and Dickey taking his place just previous to the game. This accounts somewhat for their easy defeat. Haverstick put up a good game, his activity spoiling many good strokes. His net work was fine, he being able to get in front of many balls that might otherwise have been good. Battin also played well. Austin's play was listless and far from his usual

Hopkins and McClure, who took the place of Boham and partner of Corning, beat Noteware and Hamilton, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4, 6-2. The playing was fair and the game was won

PLANS FOR TODAY.

The second round in the doubles will be played today, and will doubtless be full of No winner can as yet be picked. The Kansas City team is still an unknown quantity, but report says it is a hard one The singles will begin this morning, and this part of the tournament be as interesting as the doubles. A seems to be the favorite, but he will have some hard players to meet. Cullingham will appear on the courts, as his hand has recov-ered, but he will, of course, be out of practice. In its entirely, today's program is a decidedly good one, and lovers of tennis should turn out in force. The schedule is as follows:

as follows:

10 a. m.—Young and Hart of Omaha play Whiting and partner of Kansas City; Farquhar of Le Mars plays Crockwell of Council Bluffs; Haverstick plays Hamilton; Nicholson of LeMars plays Austin of Omaha; Hopkins plays Battin.

The offer is a bona fide offer, and the notes of the members, which are as good as the money, are up, on condition the fight is brought here, and will be replaced by the money, which will be deposited to the credit of the stakeholder, in the bank, as soon as articles are signed to fight here, or under the auspices of the club. How the club can guarantee noninterference is not known, but its members say that they can and will forfeit a large sum if they do not bring the fight off on the day and time advertised. It is not intended that the fight shall occur in Sloux City, but in this immediate vicinity. Minnesota, South Dakota and Nebraska are all within an hour's ride of here by rail. It is generally believed here, however, that the fight is to be pulled off on an Island in the Missouri at the Nebraska, South Dakota and Iowa boundary junction, over which neither state claims jurisdiction, and which is five minutes' walk from the street cars. William Brady has telegraphed Corbatt's acceptance of the offer. Jackson has not been heard from 'et. Jackson today asked for a guarante of training expenses, which was given him.

"I will not permit this prize fight to occur within the caporate limits of Sloux City," said Mayor Fletcher, in speakig of the effort being made to get the Corbett-Jackson match here. "What is more, I doubt if it will be allowed to be fought on lowa soil. So far ifs my jurisdiction is concerned, I shall-atmalterably oppose the movement to have the obattle fought here."

SLIM CROWDS AT BREEDERS RACES. Attendance at Washington Pack Dispoints the Management Greatly. CHICAGO, Aug. 20.-The attendance at the second day's trotting meeting was disappointing to the management, over 1.500. The victory of Etchel A in the side wheel stakes pleased the crowd immensely. If the little gray mare keeps her gait to maturity she is likely to become even more popular. In every heat she drev away at the finish, in the first easily reduc away at the finish, in the first easily reducing her record to 2:13%. Her owenr, Mr. Conley, thinks she will be in the first division as a 5-year-old. She has won fiveraces this year, being beaten by Rubenstein at Detroit. Scourine was picked to win the 2-year-old, but he has not recovered from his sickness. Whalebone won easily in straight heats. In the 2:20 pace Star Pointer had no trouble whatever in disposing of the field, although it contained several good ones. The fight for second honors among Hyannis, Guerita and Hal Pulaski was close. Guerita is very fast, but breaks too frequently. Tomorrow Alix will go against Nancy Hanks' record of 2:04. It is believed the track is too soft for her to succeed. Wednesday Directly will try to break Arion's 2-year-old mark of 2:05, and Thursday Directum will be sent against his own record. Results:

FIRE AND POLICE.

Routine Business Transacted by the Commissioners Last Night. The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners held a meeting last night. Commissioner Smith, who has been ill for the past two weeks, was not present and he sent the other members word that he would leave today for Colorado Springs for the benefit of his health. Secretary Brownlee is still en-joying a vacation, so Commissioner Colurn filled that position temporarily.

Ten police officers were granted leaves of absence, as follows: Sergeant Sigwart and Acting Sergeant King, fifteen days each, Officers Stiles, Baldwin, Leaverton, Flint and Patrol Driver Osborn, ten days each; Jailes Havey, twenty days; Officer Burr, thirteen

Chief Seavey asked the commissioners to provide the police department with three sets of grappling hooks, with 200 feet of rope, to be used in recovering the bodies of drawned

Officer M. M. Starkey requested the board to appoint him as sergeant to fill the va-cancy made by the dismissal of William H. Shoop some time ago.

Chief of Police Wright of Syracuse, N.

Y., requested the board to give Chief Detective Haze and Sergeant Ormsby sufficien leaves of absence to appear in Syracuse Ser tember 10 as witnesses against Charles Wil son, accused of murdering Detective Harve last summer. The request was granted.
The board was given official notice of the death of Officer Frank Robbins, and th association voted to pay the widow of the deceased $500 out of their funds as a death benefit, subject to the approval of the commissioners. Resolutions of condolor tiso read and ordered spread on the records

Special Policemen W. H. Warren and Matt Gahlan tendered their resignations, which were accepted, and Thomas Fitzgerald and Charles Djurcen were appointed in their stead.

The people of Central park and Lake View requested the board to appoint a rollceman for that part of the city. They allege that burglaries and thefts are of nightly occurrence and they need a policeman so had that they will pay half of his wages if the board will pay the other half. Commissioner Hariman said that the proposition struck him favorably, and he suggested that the board agree to pay $25 per month to an officer whom they might appoint for the purpose of giving this district protection, and let the citizens pay the remainder to the officer's Firemen Sullivan, Baker and Anderson asked for leaves of absence, but their requests were referred to the committee on

BABY'S "SECOND SUMMER"

Most Anxious Time for Mothers and Nurses.

Greater Susceptibility to Sudden Intestinal Disorders,

Worse Than the First Few Months of Its Life—Lactated Food The dangers of the "second summer"

have always been a familiar piece of nursery wisdom. Every year, with a regularity that strikes terror into thousands of homes there comes with the midsummer weather the present fearful jump in the death rate umong children. As physicians continually warn parents, extraordinary care in baby's food b now essential.

An intimate knowledge of just who babies require to keep well and free from summer illness, produced lactated food. Children fed on this thoughtfully consid-ered nutriment grow rapidly and develop bone and muscle, as well as into fat, plump It contains every necessity to baby's rapid growth.

A food as simple in its composition, as rich in nutritive parts, and as closely re-sembling healthy mother's milk has never before been produced. Lactated food is also the proper thing for children when weamed, because they like it, and are thus easily led to this important change in diet. In thousands of cases where nursing pro-tracted into warm weather has reduced the vitality and richness of the breast milk, vitality and rishness of the breast milk, babes that showed signs of fretfulness and often colic become again fat and aturdy when put on a diet of lactated food. It is undoubtedly true that bables that have the advantage of their mother's milk seem to stand the heat of summer best, providing the natural food agrees with them. But when hot weather brings down the strength of both mother and child there is always danger of the severe bowel affections which come on so suddenly and are so often fatal. Physicians prescribe lactated food to be kept always on hand and used at once upon the first indication of looseness or loss of the first indication of looseness or loss of strength, or if baby is evidently not thriv-ing on its present diet. Lactated food is the diet physicians use in their own families.

"Recently I wrote for your symptom blank and began the home treatment for a catarrh I had had since childhood. I had centinual rearing and singing in my ears, with a headache that never stopped. My throat was always sore, the vocal organs impaired not the tonsils discharged yellow lumps. The broachial tubes yielded to the malicity, and I had hard work to breathe, my chest had lumps being sore and painful. The eyes were blurged and watery, so that my sight became very imperfect. I was more like a dead woman than a five one when you took me in hand, but you have given me excellent health in exchange for my former distress. I praise the wonderful home treatment to all my friends."
