A telegram has been received announcing the death of Mrs. G. W. Chamberlain in Colorado, where she has been visiting for some time in the hope of benefiting her health.

Get in on the boom by having a set of Johnson's blue print plates and ink. Council Bluffs and all additions, up to date, with list of all lots as of record. L. P. Judson, 928 Sixth avenue.

Miss Edith, the 6-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Chauson, died at 3 o'clock yesterday. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence, 1929 South avenue.

An information was filed in police court by W. L. Weller yesterday charging William Schroeder with stealing a cutaway suit from room 29 of the Ogden house July 4. The suit was valued at $44.

James S. Chrisman and George W. Robard filed a petition in the district court yesterday for a writ of ejectment against W. H. Bussey, who occupies six lots at Manawa park and is said to be in debt $120 for rent.

The Unity guild ladies served supper last evening in the parlors of the Grace church to several hundred people. The guild's suppers are becoming very popular, and the church basement will soon be too small for the guests.

W. P. Craft sued out a landlord's writ of attachment in the district court yesterday against Frederick Lundberg, who lives on Craft's farm in Washington township. The amount of rent claimed to be due and unpaid is $22.

Robert Hall, the young son of F. W. Hall, was thrown from a horse last evening and severely hurt. He is now in the hospital at the knee, left arm broken and his hip cut, requiring several stitches. He was taken to his father's home on Mill and Williams streets, and Dr. Macrae called to attend him.

Lizzie Schmidt commenced divorce proceedings in the district court yesterday against J. C. Schmidt. She married him in Omaha May 19, 1892, but two months later she claims he deserted her without cause and has not shown up since. She wants the permission of the court to use her maiden name.

The old "haunted house" formerly occupied by the late Captain Price as a residence, is now occupied by a blacksmith named Wilson. East end citizens claim he found a $500 bill rolled up and tied with a black thread the other day on the premises. A piece was torn from the center, but the remainder was sent to Washington and redeemed.

Secretary F. M. Wright states that the plan of putting up a new building for the Young Men's Christian association has been laid by the present, until some of the wealthy friends of the association have returned from their summer vacations. He thinks that when they get home and the hot weather is over they will look more kindly upon the project, which will then be pushed for all it is worth.

Albert Brooks, a runaway boy who has been charming the inmates of the city jail and the inhabitants of the surrounding country by his rendition of "After the Ball" for the last week, was sent to Ogden last evening in charge of the conductor of the train. His mother is very anxious to have him at home, but it is very doubtful if she ever sees him again, for he has boasted that he would never stay at home.
