AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA.

House but Are Frightened Away. Three burglars made an attempt to enter the gambling house over Pat Rowley's saoon at an early hour yesterday. Ed Harper, the colored man who sieeps in the place, fired three shots at them and they all got away uninjured.

Early in the evening a brace of professional safe blowers were seen hanging around this building. The porter was told that things looked suspicious and to prepare for a visit. Accordingly Ed took to bed with him a young cannon. He only had three cartridges or he would have been firing yet. The thugs first tried the back door and next the window. Being unable to open either they forced open the transom. One man had his head and one arm on the inside when the colored man spruced up courage enough to pull the trig-ger of his gun. Bing, bang, bing went the gun and the thieves went down the back stairs like lightning. The colored man had struck the ceiling directly over where he slept, but the report of the gun had the proper effect. The shooting of the revolver did not arouse a policeman, however, and the burglars had ample time to get out of town before an officer knew anything of the case. Had the safe been blown open the thieves would have been sorely disappointed, as there

PASSENGER MEN ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT

Prospects of an Agreement Exceedingly Blue, the Atchison Having Refused to Join in the Conference-Dickinson Not Swamped with Letters.

Transcontinental railroad circles are all gog over the meeting scheduled for today at the Auditorium hotel, Chicago, and prognostications are freely made that nothing will come of the meeting of passenger men who will be brought together by Vice President Stubbs of the Southern Pacific for the purpose of revising transcontinental rates. Saturday it was pretty thoroughly understood that all lines in interest would have representatives present, even the Canadian Pacific having expressed its willingness to attend the meeting, but this morning a telegram was received from the Santa Fe that it had no intention of joining in a new association miess conditions were materially changed. In all the discussion that has been going on since the meeting was called a very strong factor has been seemingly overlooked, the Oregon Railway & Navigation company, and the part it would play in the formation of the new association.

It is well known that Receiver McNeill is It is well known that Receiver McNelli is determined to make a paying property of the Oregon Rallway & Navigation if such a thing is possible and he means to secure business willy willy. His tie-up with the Great Northern and the rather free lance methods pursued by Jim Hill's road would seemingly warrant the prediction that the Oregon Railway & Navigation is to become a scatping road. If such a thing should occur it would seriously interfere with rates on the Northern Pacific and Southern Pacific. Mr. McNeill could give a passenger the Francisco and with the Great Northern from St. Paul. The Great Northern joins the Oregon Railway & Navigation at Spokane and from there into Portland the latter road takes the business. From Portland McNeill's road can offer a water passage to San Francisco, or an all rail passage to conjunction with the Shasta route, which, while having an agreement with the Northern Pacific, could hardly refuse the same basis of division tendered by the Oregon Railway &

Navigation. Nothing has been heard from Mr. McNeill Nothing has been heard from Mr. McNeill in regard to this meeting, at least nothing that has been made public. Should he refuse to be represented it would have the effect of breaking the combination. On the other hand, should the Canadian Pacific refuse to be a party to the proposed agreement it would also have a decided tendency to postpone action. In either case it's the horn of a dilema and everybody except possibly the general passenger agents and general traffic managers are at sea as to the ultimate outcome of this meeting. litimate outcome of this meeting.
Freight men on the other hand say that the war might go on so far as they are con-cerned, if only the freight question might be settled satisfactorily to all interests, but this is impossible so long as the Panama lines continue to disturb San Francisco rates, which the Sunset route is compelled to accept or else lose the business.

At best the situation is a trying one, and the chances of an agreement are exceedingly small. CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—The transcontinental CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—The transcontinental lines met today to consider the advisability of reviving the old Transcontinental asso-ciation. Nothing was done except to ap-point a committee of representatives of the Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Union Pa-cific, Great Northern, Rock Island and Rio Grande Western to draw up a plan for the formation of the association and report to the general meeting tomorrow. The Atchison was represented at the meeting, but it is understood that it is opposed at the present time to becoming a member of the associa-tion under any terms, although it has prac-tically said it will not turn over any organization that the other lines may see fit to aronly two names have been mentioned among Chicago railroad men as possible successors to the late President Newell of Jeffrey of the Rio Grande and John M. Egan, late general manager of the Chicago Great Western, the man who was at the head of the General Managers association during the strike. General Manager Jeffreys is considered the most probable selection, as it is known he stands well with the Vanderbilts. It is almost certain, however, that the posi-tions of president and general manager, which were filled by Mr. Newell, will be filled by separate appointments and no attempt will be made to combine them as heretofore. Nothing definite is known as yet, however, as to the probable appointees, all being rumor. It is very generally believed no man on the Lake Shore will be appointed to either pesi-

FILLMORE'S POLICY REPUBLATED.

Hunting on Says the Southern Pacific Will Not Pursue Its Employes. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.-A fortnight ago a local newspaper printed an interview with J. A. Fillmore, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific railroad, in which Mr. Fillmore was quoted as follows: "If I know that a man was not true to this company and if I find out that he has got a job anywhere I will pursue him and use my best efforts to get him discharged."

The men referred to, of course, were the
A. R. U. men who took prominent parts in the recent strike on the Southern Pacific system. The interview provoked a storm of adverse criticism, which was mainly directed adverse criticism, which was mainly directed at the Southern Facific company, for there were many who charged that Mr. Fillmore had spoken without authority. C. P. Huntington, president of the company, has written a letter from New York in which he positively declared Mr. Fillmore's reported policy is not the policy of the Southern Pacific company. Referring to the interview, Mr. Huntington says: "I can hardly believe that Mr. Fillmore said this. If he did I think he was all wrong. We of course owe it to ourselves and to the patrons of the road to reselves and to the patrons of the road to re-fuse to take back men who destroyed any of our property or made any effort to prevent others from taking their places; but when we have done that, that is refused to take them back, I think we should wish them to get places elsewhere, if it could be done without injury to the public, and it is not our business to follow them, but when they go, wish then well."

In closing his letter Mr. Huntington says:
"I hope our people will consider these things carefully and bear in mind that in handling the great interests which we are caring for it is not enough to look for the right of the company, but also for the rights of every member of the community in which we are working and where our influence is felt." The letter is made public by H. E. Huntington, assistant to the president.

Public Not Interested. General Manager Dickinson of the Union Pacific said to a Bee man that the rumor | again.

published last week in this paper that he was being deluged with letters from business men and others along the main line of the system west of Cheyenne, requisiting the restoration of strikers, was considerably of a restoration of strikers, was considerably of a mis-statement. "I have received some few letters asking for certain restorations and the resumption of work at division points, but they have been very few, not nearly so many as The Bee would make out. As a many as The Bee would make out. As a rule the business men and others who are represented to have sent me letters, understand the situation on the system. They know that if we had work to do, old employes would stand the first show of being put back, but there is nothing to do but wait for an improvement. We are sailing close to the wind these days to save even the pennies wherever possible."

New Iron and Coal Road to Be Built.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 27.-An imortant rallway enterprise with St. Louis and Chicago capital back of it has come to light here. A newly organized company has for several weeks had a surveyor at work runseveral weeks had a surveyor at work running a line from Superior to Silliwater, Minn., on the St. Croix line. It is intended entirely for iron and coal. It is to take iron ore at the docks here and transport it to barges at Stillwater, which will run down the Mississippi to St. Louis, returning with coal. The St. Louis frommongers have concluded that they must draw on the Messba and Vermillion ranges for one. A number and Vermillion ranges for ore. A number of wealthy lumbermen are also said to be interested in the project.

Opening a New Depot-

The opening of the new St. Louis union station will formally take place September 1. Nearly all the St. Louis lines with general offices in that city have negotiated with the Terminal association for the use of the new station. It is said that the station represents an outlay of between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000, and that those who own a controlling interest propose that this investment shall earn at least 10 per cent per year. They calculate upon receiving 6 per cent of this amount from interested lines in rentals for the use of the station, and the remaining 4 per cent from express companies and the letting of the many desirable privileges in the station proper.

Hot Meeting in Sight.

The annual meeting of the protective board of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen of the Union Pacific system meets in this city October 1, and it promises to be a hot session. While there are few grievances to adjust on the main line of the system, the members of the board accuse some of the division superintendents of interpreting the orders of Judge Caldwell wrongly, and these matters will be taken up with General Manager Dickinson

Will Not Close Labor Day.

"No," said a local retail merchant yesterday, "I cannot close my store Labor day for reasons that are obvious. Personally, I feel disposed to do so, but the wretchedly dull trade the past sixty days has made it necessary for me to use the greatest discretion in my business affairs. I believe that Labor day this year will be popularly observed; that the depression in industrial circles will cause all working people and mechanics to celebrate the day as they have never done before. This fact will draw hundreds of people from fact will draw hundreds of people from neighboring towns to Omaha on that festal occasion and I want a share of their trade, In fact, the retail merchants of Omaha are entitled to take any advantage of a big day, in Omaha, and no one, I feel confident, can consistently criticise them for it. In prosperous times it would be different, but under existing circumstances the retail merchant cannot always do what he would like to do."
