

CHOSE. SUPERINTENDENT.

Mr. Fitzpatrick's Successor Elected by Board of Education Last Night.

A. P. MARBLE OF MASSACHUSETTS

Comes with High Recommendations from High Schools in His Career as an Educator—Testimonials to Worth and Character of His Superiority.

Prof. A. P. Marble, superintendent of the schools of Worcester, Mass., was last night elected superintendent of the Omaha schools.

With the exception of Mr. Bandhauer all members of the Board of Education were in attendance last night.

The lobby was largely composed of those who were there in the interest of candidates for the superintendency of the public schools.

Superintendent Fitzpatrick reported in favor of opening kindergarten departments at the Lincoln and Lenoir schools.

Members Express Regret. A number of the members spoke in very high terms of Prof. Fitzpatrick.

Prof. Marble thanked the board for the honor conferred, saying that he realized that the schools of Omaha had attained a very high standard.

FITZPATRICK'S FAREWELL. Prof. Fitzpatrick said that one of the saddest moments of his life would be the leaving of Omaha.

Mr. Marble said that he had been principal of the high school at Worcester, Mass., for twenty years.

SHED DOWN, GENTLEMEN, and give to the Nebraska the right of way for a sensible discourse about Boys' Clothes.

New—pretty—stylish—serviceable and improved clothing at shrewdly engineered buying and selling prices, deserves—methinks—first consideration—a brand new suit at a closely-shaven price is worth a sack full of suits with last year's whiskers on.

Boys' and children's clothes occupy one-third of the space in our four story building—one floor and one-third—and it takes a devilish lot of clothing to fill it.

A prettier collection of juvenile wearings, and closer prices, we never experienced before. The outlook for a free wool bill is perhaps in some measure responsible for our marvelous purchases, but "to the victor belongs the spoils"—we've watched and waited and reaped a reward.

Our clothes for boys in particular, are well known for durability—never a stitch will a Nebraska suit yield—nor a break at any abused point, but this season we've added a novelty, that'll outwear even the boy who rises at sunrise in order to be first in school—a suit with a double knee, riveted buttons, patent elastic waistband, a good thing against that everlasting sewing on buttons on waists, and a point in favor of good hanging panties.

Styles adopted this season are new and antique, double breasted, juniors, cutaways and squares have the call—patterns are chiefly dark, but if mixtures are the color becoming to your boy we can show a raft full of various such patterns.
