LAST WAS THE GREATEST

Parade of the Veterans at Pittsburg Outdid Its Predecessors. WITNESSED BY HALF A MILLION PEOPLE

Crutches and Canes Took the Place of Rifles and Bayonets, but Stirring War Tales Made Patriotic Shine from Their Checks as of Yore.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 11.—Forty thousand men who fought to save the union marched through the city of Pittsburg and Allegheny today.

The music made their hearts beat as in the stirring times of thirty years ago, and amid the flash of patriotism and courage to their cheeks.

But while they stepped out boldly and bravely they could not straighten their bent frames nor conceal their gray hairs and furrowed cheeks.

They carried no heavy rifle with glittering bayonet, but added their crutches with walking sticks and canes.

Suit Over the Mexican Irrigation Scheme of Daniel Hudson N. closed. DENVER, Sept. 11.—The Associated press dispatches from New York concerning the charges of fraud made against John C. Beatty and others in a Sonora, Mex. land deal has created some excitement in this city.

James H. Brown, one of the defendants, said in reference to the company that a long while ago he saw the impracticability of the scheme advanced by Beatty and sent in his resignation as one of the directors, as he had no interest in the scheme.

"I attended but one meeting of the board of directors, and that was immediately after the company was organized," Mr. Brown said. "I have learned recently that Beatty and Miller went east and I heard that they disposed of the stock of the company."
