

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE - NO. 12 PEARL STREET

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Lessee. TELEPHONES—Business office, No. 42; night editor, No. 22.

MINOR MENTION.

Mayor Real Estate Agency, 539 Broadway. The Red Men will hold a meeting this evening.

Bluffs division No. 27, Knights of Pythias, will meet at the hall this evening. By order of the captain.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to T. J. Thomas, aged 32, and Clara Galer aged 22, both of Pottawattamie county.

Since these rains Judson has good blue grass pasturing, after refusing 300 head during the drought. Inquire at 929 Sixth avenue.

The Ladies Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church meets Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Snyder, 217 South Seventh street.

The Lincoln post, Grand Army of the Republic, will meet in their hall at 1:30 this afternoon to attend the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. By order of the commander.

The funeral services of J. J. Hathaway will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Masonic order.

The following preliminary were read: A resolution of condolence; J. J. Townsend, convicted of forgery; C. M. Banks, attempt to kidnap an inmate of the Christian home; M. B. Baker, drunk and disorderly; Ed. Baker, larceny.

A son of Dr. W. P. Parrish of Macedonia had his leg hurt so badly by a corn shelling machine that he was unable to walk for several days. A day ago he fell from a horse and broke the stump of the amputated limb.

All members of Mizrah temple, No. 9, Pottawattamie county, are requested to meet at the Knights of Pythias hall this evening at 8 o'clock to transact important business. Knights are urged to attend. Mrs. Lily A. Hill, M. E.

It was Fred Weatherbe, instead of Frank, who was mixed up in the Lower Main street fight Sunday morning. In police court yesterday morning he was fined $10, while his companion, A. E. Gaines, had to pay $15. Frank Gainer was discharged.

All members of Excelsior lodge, No. 224, A. F. and A. M., are requested to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of attending the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. All visiting members are invited to participate. W. A. Schaeffer, M. E.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Frank M. Mithen, formerly of this city, and Miss Theresa L. Farrell of Battle Creek, Michigan. The ceremony will take place next Tuesday at 9 o'clock. They will be at home at 835 Chestnut street, Battle Creek, after October 1.

Special meeting of Excelsior lodge No. 224, A. F. and A. M., Free and Accepted Masons, Wednesday, September 12, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. Visiting brethren are requested to attend. By order of the W. M.

It has been developed that the young man who was killed by the car Saturday afternoon last week was at first supposed to be Fred Roper of Des Moines, was in reality Fred Raymaker, whose parents live in Pella, Ia. From the Pella papers it is learned that Mrs. Raymaker recognized her son as the one referred to, and on taking up the body found her fears were correct.

The annual reunion of the veterans and old settlers of Pottawattamie, Mills and Fremont counties will be held at Malvern tomorrow. Those going from here will leave over the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy at 10 a. m., returning by the Wabash at 4:42 p. m. Among the things to come up for consideration is the question of dividing the district. No action of the county may hereafter have its own reunion.

George Woodman is in the city jail on the charge of burglary. Last Sunday afternoon while working at the Sargent store, Woodman saw him climbing into the back window of the second story. He ran and told Ben Long, the proprietor, and when Long got to the saloon, Woodman was there with $45 in cash which had been there that morning, missing. The window up stairs showed signs of having been broken open. Long fled the information.

Money to loan on improved farms at low rates. Bureaus of Pottawattamie county, rent, fire and tornado insurance written. Money loaned for real investors. Lougee & Towle, 235 Pearl street.

What We Have Seen in the Shoe Business. We have watched for several years all the ways for doing a shoe business, and have found that the only way to succeed is to have honest shoes, good values and fair profits, and liberality with your customers is what has made the shoe business a success. We have always found that what Sargent has told you could be relied upon. Shoes are cheap this year, and Sargent will still sell you the best shoe for the money. SARGENT, 413 Broadway.

Strong & Carroll's and Stacy Adams shoes for gentlemen at a recommendation. Gas cooking stoves for rent and for sale at Gas Co.'s office.

PERSONAL MENTION. L. A. Devine is in Lincoln. F. C. Hetzel of Avoca is in the city. Thomas B. Baldwin has returned from Chicago.

Theodore W. Ivory of Glenwood was a caller at the Bee office yesterday. Clarence J. Annis of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of his brother, A. D. Annis.

W. B. Cuppy, accompanied by his brother Arthur C. Cuppy, returned from Avoca, accompanied by his brother, Henry Otto on Benton street. P. Hopley of Lewis is in the city, the guest of his brother-in-law, W. R. Kemp.

Mrs. H. I. Meers of Duluth, Minn., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Edson on Benton street. Mrs. L. O. Person has been called to New York in the interest of the Equitable Life Insurance company.

Miss Blanche Archer left Sunday evening for Andover, Mass., where she will continue her studies the coming year. Mrs. J. Spindler, Mrs. Ed Overmyer and Mrs. A. C. Harkness returned from Avoca, accompanied by their son and daughter, the former of whom is to attend military school at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and the latter at Connecticut.

The Misses Inman have returned from a three weeks' visit with friends in Page county. They were accompanied by their young nephew, Mrs. A. W. Yorktown, who will visit here for a time.

Miss Webster has been appointed temporary to the place formerly occupied in the High school by Mrs. Morris Moore. The latter has been lying very ill at a hospital in Omaha for some time past, and it is thought will not be able to resume her work until after the holidays. Fred Grass is occupying Miss Webster's place.

No delay in closing loans on improved farms lands at low rates. Abstracts of title prepared and real estate for sale. Pusey & Thomas, 201 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

Instruction on the piano will be given to a limited number of pupils by Mrs. J. A. Ross, 1022 Fifth avenue.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Judicial Convention of the Populist Party a Very Animated Affair.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES WERE ENDORSED

Delegation from Fremont County Made a Fight Against Fusion and Say the Populists of that County Will Not Support the Ticket.

The populists of the Fifteenth judicial district held their convention at Liberty hall yesterday and had an attendance of about twenty populists from various parts of the district. As was looked for, the principal item of business was the endorsement of the three democratic candidates for the district here, although this was not done without a storm of denunciation from the Fremont county delegates.

W. F. Patton of this city called the meeting to order and asked that a temporary secretary be selected. Graham of Cass county was chosen. Patton evidently wanted to be temporary chairman himself, for he was about to have the committees on credentials, resolutions and permanent organizations appointed by himself, when A. J. Cook of this city intervened and suggested that it might be well to select a temporary chairman. Patton looked down his nose, and while he was doing so T. W. Ivory of Mills county was chosen chairman.

Chairman Ivory then appointed the following committees: Credentials—W. F. Patton of Council Bluffs, C. A. Dishow of Cass county, and Joseph Stropes of Audubon county; Resolutions—W. W. Cullison of United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

In the committee on permanent organization recommended T. W. Ivory for permanent chairman and A. W. Barton of Shelby for permanent secretary. This report was adopted.

Rev. George Muller read the report of the committee on resolutions, in which the convention declared for a strict adherence to the platform of the party, and that it should be the duty of the government and judicial departments of the government to support each other in itself and stick to its own legitimate functions; favored a reorganization of the judicial department of the United States, D. L. Garretson of Cass and Ed Smith of Mills. The convention then adjourned for lunch.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1901

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Lessee. TELEPHONES—Business office, No. 42; night editor, No. 22.

MINOR MENTION.

Mayor Real Estate Agency, 539 Broadway. The Red Men will hold a meeting this evening.

Bluffs division No. 27, Knights of Pythias, will meet at the hall this evening. By order of the captain.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to T. J. Thomas, aged 32, and Clara Galer aged 22, both of Pottawattamie county.

Since these rains Judson has good blue grass pasturing, after refusing 300 head during the drought. Inquire at 929 Sixth avenue.

The Ladies Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church meets Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Snyder, 217 South Seventh street.

The Lincoln post, Grand Army of the Republic, will meet in their hall at 1:30 this afternoon to attend the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. By order of the commander.

The funeral services of J. J. Hathaway will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Masonic order.

The following preliminary were read: A resolution of condolence; J. J. Townsend, convicted of forgery; C. M. Banks, attempt to kidnap an inmate of the Christian home; M. B. Baker, drunk and disorderly; Ed. Baker, larceny.

A son of Dr. W. P. Parrish of Macedonia had his leg hurt so badly by a corn shelling machine that he was unable to walk for several days. A day ago he fell from a horse and broke the stump of the amputated limb.

All members of Mizrah temple, No. 9, Pottawattamie county, are requested to meet at the Knights of Pythias hall this evening at 8 o'clock to transact important business. Knights are urged to attend. Mrs. Lily A. Hill, M. E.

It was Fred Weatherbe, instead of Frank, who was mixed up in the Lower Main street fight Sunday morning. In police court yesterday morning he was fined $10, while his companion, A. E. Gaines, had to pay $15. Frank Gainer was discharged.

All members of Excelsior lodge, No. 224, A. F. and A. M., are requested to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of attending the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. All visiting members are invited to participate. W. A. Schaeffer, M. E.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Frank M. Mithen, formerly of this city, and Miss Theresa L. Farrell of Battle Creek, Michigan. The ceremony will take place next Tuesday at 9 o'clock. They will be at home at 835 Chestnut street, Battle Creek, after October 1.

Special meeting of Excelsior lodge No. 224, A. F. and A. M., Free and Accepted Masons, Wednesday, September 12, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. Visiting brethren are requested to attend. By order of the W. M.

It has been developed that the young man who was killed by the car Saturday afternoon last week was at first supposed to be Fred Roper of Des Moines, was in reality Fred Raymaker, whose parents live in Pella, Ia. From the Pella papers it is learned that Mrs. Raymaker recognized her son as the one referred to, and on taking up the body found her fears were correct.

The annual reunion of the veterans and old settlers of Pottawattamie, Mills and Fremont counties will be held at Malvern tomorrow. Those going from here will leave over the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy at 10 a. m., returning by the Wabash at 4:42 p. m. Among the things to come up for consideration is the question of dividing the district. No action of the county may hereafter have its own reunion.

George Woodman is in the city jail on the charge of burglary. Last Sunday afternoon while working at the Sargent store, Woodman saw him climbing into the back window of the second story. He ran and told Ben Long, the proprietor, and when Long got to the saloon, Woodman was there with $45 in cash which had been there that morning, missing. The window up stairs showed signs of having been broken open. Long fled the information.

Money to loan on improved farms at low rates. Bureaus of Pottawattamie county, rent, fire and tornado insurance written. Money loaned for real investors. Lougee & Towle, 235 Pearl street.

What We Have Seen in the Shoe Business. We have watched for several years all the ways for doing a shoe business, and have found that the only way to succeed is to have honest shoes, good values and fair profits, and liberality with your customers is what has made the shoe business a success. We have always found that what Sargent has told you could be relied upon. Shoes are cheap this year, and Sargent will still sell you the best shoe for the money. SARGENT, 413 Broadway.

Strong & Carroll's and Stacy Adams shoes for gentlemen at a recommendation. Gas cooking stoves for rent and for sale at Gas Co.'s office.

PERSONAL MENTION. L. A. Devine is in Lincoln. F. C. Hetzel of Avoca is in the city. Thomas B. Baldwin has returned from Chicago.

Theodore W. Ivory of Glenwood was a caller at the Bee office yesterday. Clarence J. Annis of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of his brother, A. D. Annis.

W. B. Cuppy, accompanied by his brother Arthur C. Cuppy, returned from Avoca, accompanied by his brother, Henry Otto on Benton street. P. Hopley of Lewis is in the city, the guest of his brother-in-law, W. R. Kemp.

Mrs. H. I. Meers of Duluth, Minn., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Edson on Benton street. Mrs. L. O. Person has been called to New York in the interest of the Equitable Life Insurance company.

Miss Blanche Archer left Sunday evening for Andover, Mass., where she will continue her studies the coming year. Mrs. J. Spindler, Mrs. Ed Overmyer and Mrs. A. C. Harkness returned from Avoca, accompanied by their son and daughter, the former of whom is to attend military school at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and the latter at Connecticut.

The Misses Inman have returned from a three weeks' visit with friends in Page county. They were accompanied by their young nephew, Mrs. A. W. Yorktown, who will visit here for a time.

Miss Webster has been appointed temporary to the place formerly occupied in the High school by Mrs. Morris Moore. The latter has been lying very ill at a hospital in Omaha for some time past, and it is thought will not be able to resume her work until after the holidays. Fred Grass is occupying Miss Webster's place.

No delay in closing loans on improved farms lands at low rates. Abstracts of title prepared and real estate for sale. Pusey & Thomas, 201 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

Instruction on the piano will be given to a limited number of pupils by Mrs. J. A. Ross, 1022 Fifth avenue.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1901

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Lessee. TELEPHONES—Business office, No. 42; night editor, No. 22.

MINOR MENTION.

Mayor Real Estate Agency, 539 Broadway. The Red Men will hold a meeting this evening.

Bluffs division No. 27, Knights of Pythias, will meet at the hall this evening. By order of the captain.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to T. J. Thomas, aged 32, and Clara Galer aged 22, both of Pottawattamie county.

Since these rains Judson has good blue grass pasturing, after refusing 300 head during the drought. Inquire at 929 Sixth avenue.

The Ladies Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church meets Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Snyder, 217 South Seventh street.

The Lincoln post, Grand Army of the Republic, will meet in their hall at 1:30 this afternoon to attend the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. By order of the commander.

The funeral services of J. J. Hathaway will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Masonic order.

The following preliminary were read: A resolution of condolence; J. J. Townsend, convicted of forgery; C. M. Banks, attempt to kidnap an inmate of the Christian home; M. B. Baker, drunk and disorderly; Ed. Baker, larceny.

A son of Dr. W. P. Parrish of Macedonia had his leg hurt so badly by a corn shelling machine that he was unable to walk for several days. A day ago he fell from a horse and broke the stump of the amputated limb.

All members of Mizrah temple, No. 9, Pottawattamie county, are requested to meet at the Knights of Pythias hall this evening at 8 o'clock to transact important business. Knights are urged to attend. Mrs. Lily A. Hill, M. E.

It was Fred Weatherbe, instead of Frank, who was mixed up in the Lower Main street fight Sunday morning. In police court yesterday morning he was fined $10, while his companion, A. E. Gaines, had to pay $15. Frank Gainer was discharged.

All members of Excelsior lodge, No. 224, A. F. and A. M., are requested to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of attending the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. All visiting members are invited to participate. W. A. Schaeffer, M. E.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Frank M. Mithen, formerly of this city, and Miss Theresa L. Farrell of Battle Creek, Michigan. The ceremony will take place next Tuesday at 9 o'clock. They will be at home at 835 Chestnut street, Battle Creek, after October 1.

Special meeting of Excelsior lodge No. 224, A. F. and A. M., Free and Accepted Masons, Wednesday, September 12, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. Visiting brethren are requested to attend. By order of the W. M.

It has been developed that the young man who was killed by the car Saturday afternoon last week was at first supposed to be Fred Roper of Des Moines, was in reality Fred Raymaker, whose parents live in Pella, Ia. From the Pella papers it is learned that Mrs. Raymaker recognized her son as the one referred to, and on taking up the body found her fears were correct.

The annual reunion of the veterans and old settlers of Pottawattamie, Mills and Fremont counties will be held at Malvern tomorrow. Those going from here will leave over the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy at 10 a. m., returning by the Wabash at 4:42 p. m. Among the things to come up for consideration is the question of dividing the district. No action of the county may hereafter have its own reunion.

George Woodman is in the city jail on the charge of burglary. Last Sunday afternoon while working at the Sargent store, Woodman saw him climbing into the back window of the second story. He ran and told Ben Long, the proprietor, and when Long got to the saloon, Woodman was there with $45 in cash which had been there that morning, missing. The window up stairs showed signs of having been broken open. Long fled the information.

Money to loan on improved farms at low rates. Bureaus of Pottawattamie county, rent, fire and tornado insurance written. Money loaned for real investors. Lougee & Towle, 235 Pearl street.

What We Have Seen in the Shoe Business. We have watched for several years all the ways for doing a shoe business, and have found that the only way to succeed is to have honest shoes, good values and fair profits, and liberality with your customers is what has made the shoe business a success. We have always found that what Sargent has told you could be relied upon. Shoes are cheap this year, and Sargent will still sell you the best shoe for the money. SARGENT, 413 Broadway.

Strong & Carroll's and Stacy Adams shoes for gentlemen at a recommendation. Gas cooking stoves for rent and for sale at Gas Co.'s office.

PERSONAL MENTION. L. A. Devine is in Lincoln. F. C. Hetzel of Avoca is in the city. Thomas B. Baldwin has returned from Chicago.

Theodore W. Ivory of Glenwood was a caller at the Bee office yesterday. Clarence J. Annis of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of his brother, A. D. Annis.

W. B. Cuppy, accompanied by his brother Arthur C. Cuppy, returned from Avoca, accompanied by his brother, Henry Otto on Benton street. P. Hopley of Lewis is in the city, the guest of his brother-in-law, W. R. Kemp.

Mrs. H. I. Meers of Duluth, Minn., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Edson on Benton street. Mrs. L. O. Person has been called to New York in the interest of the Equitable Life Insurance company.

Miss Blanche Archer left Sunday evening for Andover, Mass., where she will continue her studies the coming year. Mrs. J. Spindler, Mrs. Ed Overmyer and Mrs. A. C. Harkness returned from Avoca, accompanied by their son and daughter, the former of whom is to attend military school at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and the latter at Connecticut.

The Misses Inman have returned from a three weeks' visit with friends in Page county. They were accompanied by their young nephew, Mrs. A. W. Yorktown, who will visit here for a time.

Miss Webster has been appointed temporary to the place formerly occupied in the High school by Mrs. Morris Moore. The latter has been lying very ill at a hospital in Omaha for some time past, and it is thought will not be able to resume her work until after the holidays. Fred Grass is occupying Miss Webster's place.

No delay in closing loans on improved farms lands at low rates. Abstracts of title prepared and real estate for sale. Pusey & Thomas, 201 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

Instruction on the piano will be given to a limited number of pupils by Mrs. J. A. Ross, 1022 Fifth avenue.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1901

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Lessee. TELEPHONES—Business office, No. 42; night editor, No. 22.

MINOR MENTION.

Mayor Real Estate Agency, 539 Broadway. The Red Men will hold a meeting this evening.

Bluffs division No. 27, Knights of Pythias, will meet at the hall this evening. By order of the captain.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to T. J. Thomas, aged 32, and Clara Galer aged 22, both of Pottawattamie county.

Since these rains Judson has good blue grass pasturing, after refusing 300 head during the drought. Inquire at 929 Sixth avenue.

The Ladies Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church meets Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Snyder, 217 South Seventh street.

The Lincoln post, Grand Army of the Republic, will meet in their hall at 1:30 this afternoon to attend the funeral of J. J. Hathaway. By order of the commander.

The funeral services of J. J. Hathaway will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Masonic order.

The following preliminary were read: A resolution of condolence; J. J. Townsend, convicted of forgery; C. M. Banks, attempt to kidnap an inmate of the Christian home; M. B. Baker, drunk and disorderly; Ed. Baker, larceny.

A son of Dr. W. P. Parrish of Macedonia had his leg hurt so badly by a corn shelling machine that he was unable to walk for several days. A day ago he fell from a horse and broke the stump of the amputated limb.

All members of