at that place. These shops were projected and planned last spring, but were greatly delayed by the strike. One hundred men will shortly be put to work on the shops, and the buildings pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. Upon the completion of the shops many additional men will be given shops many additional men will be given work, thereby putting into circulation quite a nice sum of money monthly. The work of laying new steel rails on the sixth district of the Union Pacific is progress-ing rapidly, and will be completed before snow flies, at which time every inch of the Wyoming division will have been laid with the new and heavy rails. Wyoming division will have been laid with the new and heavy ralls. The rails being laid on this division aver-age sixty to seventy pounds in weight and it is thought by officials that when all the rails are in place the spreading of the iron, which has caused so many accidents, will be a thing of the past. Aside from the laying of the new rails, over 10,000 ties have been put in on the sixth district during Au-gust, and as many more, it is thought, will be put in during September. Superintendent P. J. Nichols of the Ne-braka division of the Union Pacific stated that he was putting in about seventy miles of new steel rails on his division, from Columbus to Central City, between Grand Island and Wood River, and about thirty miles west of North Platte. The new rails are of 70-pound weight. When the road was miles west of North Flatte. The new rais are of 70-pound weight. When the road was first ironed a 45-pound rail was used, then 50, later 52, and several years ago rais averaging 65 pounds were put in. In addi-tion to the new steel the Nebraska division of the Union Pacific has required 325,000 new ties.

time ago the western roads abrogated all through tariffs because of what they con-sidered the unfair divisions their eastern connections tried to force on them. Now Superintendent Buckingham of the Union Pacific reports a steady movement of stock over the line. the eastern roads are trying to get the through tariffs restored.

General Manager Holdrege is at Lincoln, as is also Assistant Freight Agent Smith of through tariffs restored. A $13 rate from Chicago to New Orleans was announced today by the Illinois Central road. It is for the use of laborers going to the south to help gather the abundant harvests there. To be available, five or more must travel on one ticket. In announceas is also Assista the Burlington.

Thomas Meldrum, superintendent of the pattern shops of the Union Pacific, is en-route to Portland, Ore.

The Burlington took out a large number of people yesterday to the state fair, both the 8:15 and 10:15 trains being heavily loaded.

Passenger trains on the Burlington will be discontinued Saturday west of Holdrege and mixed trains, daily, substituted. The people in the section affected are up in arms, but it will avail little as the flat to cut expenses wherever possible has gont forth.

A number of cars, loaded with material, William H. Baldwin, jr., one of Charles are enroute to Evanston, intended for the Francis Adams' proteges, who was connected with the Union Pacific during Mr. Holnew shops which the Union Pacific will erect comb's time, having been assistant general freight agent, assistant to the third vice president, was the other day elected third vice president of the Southern failway com-pany, having charge of the operating department, with headquarters at Washington, D. C.

Perry Griffin, city passenger and ticket agent of the O. R. & N. at Spokane, has resigned to become city passenger and ticket agent of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway at Cincinnati. Mr. Griffin is known to all the old-time railroad men in this section and has seen twenty-eight years of active railroad service. He was years of active railroad service. He was with the O. R. & N. before it became a part of the Union Facific, remained with the Union Pacific during the amalgamation and since its segregation.

Now She is Strong Again. I have been troubled a great deal with a skin disease for over four years. My face would break out and I was tired and worn out all the time. I tried various blood medi-cines, but they seemed to do me no good until I was advised to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. The first bottle seemed to do me no good, but I continued to take it and after I had taken three bottles I feit better and now I am strong again .-- Miss Emma Parsona, Millard, Neb.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Seats can be procured on Saturday morn-ing for the coming engagement at Boyd's theater on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next of what will undoubtedly prove to be one of the most merry and acceptable entertainments of the season, "Old Hosa" Bill Hoey, in his new musical farce comedy called "The Flams." Reports from other places at which Hoey in "The from other places at which Hoey in "The Flams" has presented himself verify the re-ports that that comedian's success in his new play has been one of the cheerful and congratulatory events of the present theat-rical season. In the third act an attrac-tive series of burlesque living pictures are presented, while all three acts are attrac-tively worked with new and briefst success tively sprinkled with new and bright songs, dances and other merry specialties.

It has been truly said that "We all love to laugh at the misfortunes of others." It is so, at least, if the misfortunes are not of too serious a ntaure. In "Our Flat," the play which will be seen at the Fifteenth Street theater for four nights and Wednesday Street theater for four nights and Wednesday matinee, comemoting Sunday matinee, Sep-tember 16, the trials and tribulations of a young married couple in their first attempt at housekeeping are shown up in a partic-ularly ridiculous way. This comedy was originally produced at the Lyceum theater, in New York and was also played at the Strand theater in London, where it is even now running to crowded houses. Miss Emily Bancker heads the cast. Bancker heads the cast.
