WILL REPUTATE HASCALL.

Populists Will Contest the Statesman's Seat

In the Convention Today. The populists of Omahs have at last pulled off the mask behind which Ike Hascall has been hiding and have discovered that he has been playing them fast and loose. They have not only performed this act, but they have repudiated him and at the same time they have taken steps to drive him out of the party. This all happened Thursday, and down in the First ward. Early in the morning Hascall's strikers started a boom for Hazcall with a view to electing him a delegate to the county con-

The primaries for the purpose electing delegates were held Thursday Six night, and when the polls opened. Hascall did not stand a ghost of a show of pulling through. Hascall's strikers realized this fact and going out into the ward they corralied a lot of democrats, who were marched up to the polls and voted for Hascali, regardless of protests and voted for mascan, regard-less of protests and challenges. Since then the populists of the First ward have been busy formulating a plan for downing the man who has post as the great champion of labor and corporations. They have decided to contest his seat in the convention and to make the work effective, they have procured numerous affidavits that he secured election by fraud, that he was elected democratic votes, that he is not a popuby democratic votes, that he is not a popu-list and that he has been repudiated by the party.

Fourth Ward Republicans.

The Fourth Ward Republican club held its annual meeting last night and elected officers for the ensuing year. Before making nominations for the offices Mr. Cree said that this was a year when the young men would be expected to put in their best licks, and, for his part, he wanted the Fourth ward club to recognize their past political work by placing in nomination only young men. He then nominated Wallace J. Broatch for the office of president. The rules were sus-pended and Mr. Broatch was elected by acclamation. The following effects, all of them young men, were elected in the same manner: J. W. Battin, vice president; K. S. Fizher, secretary; Frank P. Murphy, treas-

T. K. Sudborough, the rettring president, thanked the club for courtesy in the past, and, on assuming the gavel, Mr. Broatch promised to perform his duites to the best of his ability.

Mr. Robinson said he wanted to see the club exert more power in the campaigns, and made several suggestions for the benefit of the new president, which were accepted, and it was decided to make a house to house canvass of the ward and ascertain the pol-itics of the residents. The membership fee-to the club was reduced to 25 cents, and r to the club was reduced to 25 cents, and r Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache. Says M. W. Selby, Muncie, Ill.; "Last summer a coal miner came to my drug store one night, half dead with cramps. There was no doctor to be had. He asked me if I had anything that would help him. I opened a bottle of Chamberlain's Colle, Chol-era and Diarrhoea Remedy and gave him a large dose. In twenty minutes his pain was all gone. Fighting Over Wires.

The American District Telegraph company and the New York Life Insurance company have crosed swords and have gone into the courts, where as plaintiff the telegraph company has secured a restraining order from Judge Ferguson enjoining the life insurance company from interfering with its wires. In the petition filed in the case the plaintiff alleges that when the New York Life building was built its agent se-cured the location of wires into the walls and the placing of call boxes in the rooms of the structure. Later on a six-wire cable was strung from this building to The Bee building, across the street. At this time the plaintiff alleges that the defendant is about to remove the call boxes and cut the wires and connections throughout the building and with the cable.

Mrs. Ellen Malson, wife of Elder Malson, pastor of the U. B. chruch at Galton, Ill., in speaking of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, says "I can cheerfully recommend it." Applied to a cut, bruise or burn, it produces a soothing, pleasant effect, relieving the pain al-most instantly and healing the parts quickly and without leaving a sear. A flannel cloth dampened with this liniment and bound on over the affected part will cure a sprain in less time than any other treatment. Sold by druggists.

While e remained in that court he took great delight in pointing to the starry banners and declaring that he was an American with American principles born and bred in the blood and bone. The other judges felt that they were Americans, but they did not think that it was necessary to parade their Americanisin from the bench, so they looked at Scott's flags and said nothing. As time rolled on Scott was taken off the law and placed upon the criminal bench, though the flags did not go along, as they were for-gotten and were left in the room which he had abandoned. Since the date of the transfer of judges Scott has never pointed a bony finger up to the flag of the free and cautioned men as to what might happen if they so far forgot themselves as to "trample those starry emblems in the dust." The other day the superintendent of the
