

WHERE'S OUR SUMMER BIRDS

A Brief Treatise Upon the Feathered Family of Nebraska.

AMONG THE FISHERMEN AND SHOOTERS

Whisperings of the Wheel—Close of the Championship Season—The Horse and Dog and the Usual Weekly Sporting Round-Up.

That mysterious little swift, spends the frigid epochs of the year in something I have never yet seen...

WHAT becomes of our summer birds? Many have already gone and others are going, daily and nightly...

All of our summer birds, in the main, are migratory, there being but two directions of flight, north and south...

According to my years of observation here in Nebraska, the yellow breasted sparrow and the dainty blue bird are the first to greet us with their sweet notes...

The robin—I guess a favored bird the world over—is another of our early spring harbingers. He follows the blue bird...

The robin—very similar to the robin in his coming and going, is materially different. He is first seen on ruffled flocks...

The cardinal, not so familiarly known in Nebraska as in the same latitude in the eastern states...

The meadow lark is much like the robin and the dove, that is, while migratory, he often lingers...

The blackbirds of all kinds, yellow-necked and red-winged, rusty, crow and cowbirds, and the bobolink...

of the Boston players have wagers that the champions will again win the pennant. These bets look a little shabby...

President Rowe says that a new umpire system, that is in the selection of capable men, will be practiced in this association next season.

HE angles are again having quite royal sport with bass, croppie and pickerel...

There is a good deal of shooting going on nowadays, nights and mornings, at Cut-Off lake, and if all the shooters tall is true...

The blue-wing is about the first of all the ducks, save the ever present wood duck and spoonbill...

Erastus Young of the Union Pacific, in a special car, piloted a choice little party up into the mountains of Idaho...

There will be no more game. So far as the Ronrke game is concerned, they are concluded...

In the Western league the standing is pretty much as it was a week ago. The Yankers led in the pennant...

White Wings has been playing creditably in the United States. He is a very good player, and he will return to minor company next season...

made the prospect feasible at all, and I do not know of another man in the country who could have accomplished the same work in the same territory...

Looks as if there was something in the clouds. Black Clouds are all that the clouds are over their batting positions...

THE MUSCLE GRIND. From the sitting position ease yourself forward of the front of the floor around it...

THE PRIMAVERA. The prima primavera rings are so simple that detailed descriptions are unnecessary...

USE LIGHT WEIGHTS. For gymnasts who care for boxing this is an admirable apparatus. With it you can train yourself to hit a powerful blow...

INDUSTRIAL NOTES. Virginia has the greatest manganese mines. Railroad ties have almost depleted California redwood forests...

HOME MADE GYMNASIUM. Exercises Recommended for Healthful Development of the Muscles. In the article preceding this I described the making of the gymnasium...

THE HORIZONTAL BAR. This is the simplest, yet it furnishes the most varied and interesting forms of exercise...

THE MODEL LEAGUE OF THE COUNTRY. Next Sunday will close the season of the model minor league within the history of the sport...
