

MONARCH OF COREA

An Audience with His Majesty, the King, in the Royal Palace.

HOW HE LOOKS, ACTS AND TALKS

The American Minister and Frank Carpenter Pay Their Respects.

PASSED THE GATE RESERVED FOR ROYALTY

The Circumstances and Devious Causeways Leading to the King's Quarters.

RADIANT IN RED GOWN AND GOLD BRAID

Surrounded by Pompous Ministers, Guards, Courtiers, Servants and Eunuchs—An Interview with the Crown Prince—The Queen as an Eavesdropper.

(Copyrighted, 1894, by Frank G. Carpenter.)

One of the most interesting men in the world today is the King of Corea. The war between China and Japan is being fought over him, and the future of Asia is involved in the struggle.

I had an audience with him six years ago, and I met him in one of his palaces in Seoul just before the outbreak of the present rebellion.

The king's palaces cover nearly 1,000 acres. They lie at the foot of a ragged gray mountain, and a thick wall of stone as high as a ten-story house runs around the palace.

This is how it happened. The Corea officials, who put on great airs, have been trying to lessen the rank of the foreigners in the eyes of the people.

The king was dressed in a gown of crimson silk, cut high at the neck and embroidered with gold medallions as big around as a tea plate.

guards are stationed, and all the conversation that is carried on near him must be in a whisper.

Leaving the king, I was next introduced to the crown prince, who is the eldest son of the king.

STATE EDUCATIONAL AFFAIRS

Much Interest Being Manifested in a General Way Throughout Nebraska.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Enrollment for the Year Exceeds by Several Hundred that of Any Previous Period.

LINCOLN, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—The rapid growth of the State university is a matter of pride to every Nebraskan.

During the summer vacation various improvements and alterations have been made for the enlargement of the work.

The courses in this department include bookkeeping, bookbinding, stenography, and other practical subjects.

The university general houses have been enlarged and repaired in many places.

WHO'S YOUR TAILOR?

Do You Pay Cash?

Asking—cash prices—that is prices with no profits, added to cover—bad debts—is one reason why we can offer much better value than the ordinary tailor, who charges you $10, $12 and $14 for Trousers, and then commences to "guess" about the payment of them.

Our Prices FOR Trousing $5-$6-$7-$8

By our bright arrangement, you can examine a hundred styles in a few minutes—Draped side by side for easy comparison.

Our $20, $25 and $30 Suits to Measure from imported fabrics—is our strongest inducement to get your order.

No Goods Charged to Anyone.

Samples to any part of the country.

STATE FAIR A SUCCESS

Managers Confident that the Receipts Are Equal to the Expenses.

ESTIMATES BEING RAPIDLY PREPARED

Dick Tilden's Injuries a Good Deal Less Serious Than Was at First Supposed—Features of the Exhibition.

LINCOLN, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—The State fair managers have not yet completed their estimate of the expenses and receipts of the fair, but enough is known to convince them that the fair is a success.
