NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Efforts Will Be Made to Keep the Y. M. C. A. on Its Feet.

RESULT OF THE MEETING LAST NIGHT. Committees Appointed to Raise the Money Needed to Keep the Work from Going by Default—Talk of Having a Building.

Twenty-five or thirty gentlemen and several ladies met in the parlors of the Presbyterian church last evening in response to the call for a public meeting to consider the financial situation of the Young Men's Christian association of Council Bluffs. Before the meeting was ready to adjourn others kept dropping in until the room was completely filled. W. W. Wallace was selected chairman and Chester Lawson secretary.

Secretary Wright had stated the association had been compelled to relinquish its rooms in the Merriam block for the reason that the receipts did not begin to meet the requirements. Several directors of the association spoke, and candidly admitted that the situation was so bad and the outlook so dark that the abandonment of the work here seemed inevitable.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling cholera. He was taken to the hospital and died. I am now suffering from a like complaint. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when I return to my home in Chicago. My address is 1234 Broadway, New York City.

Money to loan on improved farms at low rates. Bargains in real estate. Houses for rent. Fire and tornado insurance written. Money loaned for local investors. Lougee & Towle, 235 Pearl street.

Settle the Question Now. Whether it is more profitable to purchase your shoes at a cash store, whose motto is "the best goods for the least money," where there are no bad debts for good customers to pay, and no poor goods at high prices. Duncan's prices are a great surprise to all shrewd buyers.

W. H. Kilpatrick of Neola was in the city yesterday. James B. Patrick is in the city in the interest of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Mayor Cleaver and ex-Mayor Rohrer spent Sunday visiting Addison Cochran at his ranch near Little Sioux.

For the annual banquet sale at the Boston Store. Never were woolsen blankets offered at such low prices. Our blanket sales of the past will be remembered by many. This one will be more notable. See show windows for prices.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 17.—The sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows met this morning at Lookout Inn, and was welcomed to this state by Governor Turney in a hospitable Washington. The grand lodge was followed by Mayor DeWitt, who welcomed the visitors to Chattanooga. The response was made by Grand Sir C. L. Campbell, who expressed the profound sense of gratitude felt by the Odd Fellows at this distinguished welcome.

When City Clerk Wiley read the resignation of Councilman William M. Wood. The first ward last night at the council meeting it proved a great surprise to every man in the room. Mr. Wood is the local ticket agent at the Union Pacific depot. He has been a member of the council for over three years. His second term would have expired in May. Mr. Wood is the only republican in the council. He has given good satisfaction to the people he represents in the ward, as well as to the general public.

HOW IT STARTED.

A Lady Traces the Cause of Her Troubles from Its Beginning.

Mrs. William Murdock, 206 Fifth Avenue Council Bluffs, is an old and highly respected resident of that city. Her husband is a Union Pacific employe. Mrs. Murdock gives her experience in this way:

"I well remember the very starting point of my whole trouble. It was in Illinois. I was about fourteen years old. The intense cold affected my head, that is I took a bad cold. It settled in my left nostril, with all the local signs of catarrh. Steadily it worked back in my nose and head. I could feel its progress plainly. It then went to the ears, which were ached, and finally gave me terrible pain. My face would swell and get tender, with burning pain around the eyes. Lumps formed in my throat and I could hardly look out of doors without taking cold. My whole head was diseased and I had had headaches for over 20 years; that is ever since my catarrh began.

"When Dr. Shepard first saw me I was almost dead. The disease had gone down into my stomach. My digestion was worthless. Food and strength seemed to steadily leave me until I was miserable with pain and a little sleep feeling all the time. I am glad to say that he has given me a new lease of life. My present condition is one of comfort, with no particle of my old misery left. Hundreds of dollars would not measure the value of Dr. Shepard's work in my case, and my judgment is that other women suffering with chronic disease can do him good will."
