

HONOR FOR A DEAD GENERAL

Chinese Emperor Issues an Eliot Praising General Te, Killed at Ping-Yang.

SURVIVORS OF WAR VESSELS REACHED LAND

Russia's Interest in the War—Possibility of the Czar's Death Affects European Bourses—Japanese Political Parties Getting Together.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A dispatch from Peking today says that an imperial edict has been issued by the emperor of China expressing his regret at the death of General Te, who was killed while leading a charge at the battle of Ping-Yang. As a token of his regret the emperor has ordered that posthumous honors be paid to the dead general, and imperial favors have been bestowed upon his family.

Leutenant Ching, first lieutenant of the Chih Yuen, the Chinese vessel sunk in the battle of Yalu river, has reached the Chinese camp on the banks of the Yalu river. He reported that the captain of the Chih Yuen also escaped drowning, but afterwards died of his wounds.

A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says: It is reported here that China has attacked the station of the new Ussuri section of the Siberian railway, plundered the telegraph office, and killed eight Russian employes. It is further reported that the Chinese intend to interfere in the Korean struggle between China and Japan.

The European bourses are affected by the news of the case of the health of the emperor. The news of the death of the emperor is the strongest supporters of peace, and it is feared that in the event of his death his successor would have the opportunity to renew the war.

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 25.—The German cruiser Alexandrine has arrived here. An official version of the battle of Yalu river says that the Japanese killed included Commander Sakamoto of the gunboat Akagi, Lieutenant Tekela and Senkuchi of the cruiser Hashidate, Lieutenants Shima and Ito of the cruiser Tachibana, and Lieutenants of the cruiser Akitsushima, Lieutenant Aso of the cruiser Yoshino, Chief Surgeon Miyake, Chief Paymaster Ishizuka and Surgeon Murakami. These non-commissioned officers and men were killed and wounded.

IN UNION IS STRENGTH

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The assembling of the Japanese Parliament on the 29th inst. in diplomatic circles here, of a political union or reconciliation between factions which have hitherto been irreconcilable. When the late Japanese Emperor died, the leaders of the different parties were at swords' points, but in the presence of war with a power of China's magnitude, the Japanese cabinet, to this end it is being urged that Count Okuma, Count Itagaki, Count Matsukata and Viscount Okuma should be members of the cabinet.

KAFFIRS MENACE LORENZO MARQUEZ

Attack on the Portuguese South African Town Expected Shortly.

LORENZO MARQUEZ, Delagoa Bay, Sept. 25.—Several thousand Kaffirs are threatening to attack the town. The government has distributed arms among the population for their defense. Serious trouble is expected.

LORENZO MARQUEZ IS A Walled Portuguese Town on the North Side of Delagoa Bay.

It has a good harbor, which gives it considerable importance in the trade with the Transvaal. The town has a population of about 1,000 and is surrounded by a wall of roughly constructed old fort. The town is situated in the southern portion of the province of Portuguese East Africa, on the north side of Delagoa bay, and is bounded by Mashonaland, Matabeleland and the Transvaal. The Transvaal leaders have discovered the location of the town, and the Delagoa Bay railroad, and they have also been ambitious to have a support, Lorenzo Marquez has recently been captured by the British.

JAPANESE VERY SECRETIVE

Give Out but Very Little News, but What They Do is Correct.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 25.—The steamer Empress of India arrived tonight from the Orient, bringing the following advices: YOKOHAMA, Sept. 14.—No one now doubts that the long delay in Japanese military movements is due to the completion of a great plan of invasion. Any day may bring news of a battle in northern Korea and of the sailing of 50,000 troops for some point on the inner coast of the Gulf of Pechili, but as the Japanese are so secret and so guarded in their communications, it is difficult to get any definite news.

FIRE AS A CHOLERA CUR

Afflicted District of Warsaw Burned Out—Many Suffering Tomatoes Consumed.

WARSAW, Sept. 25.—Sixty houses in the city of Hasek, in the district of Kalisz, Russian Poland, where the cholera is making fearful ravages, were set on fire last night and completely destroyed. A number of the inmates of the houses who were suffering from the dread disease and were too weak to make an effort to save themselves were burned to death.

Obdurate the Saving News

BIRMINGHAM, Eng. Sept. 25.—The Birmingham and Aston free library committees have decided to obliterate all racing and betting news from the newspapers on file in the libraries under their control. With this

HILL'S PLEA FOR HARMONY

New York's Senior Senator Made Temporary Chairman of the State Convention.

GREETED WITH VERY LIBERAL APPLAUSE

Praises for the Democratic Administration, Both State and National—Endorsed the Wilson Tariff Bill.

SARATOGA, Sept. 25.—The state democratic convention to nominate candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and judge of the court of appeals was called to order here today by Senator Murphy, chairman of the state committee. He named David B. Hill as temporary chairman. Mayor Gilroy of New York and Hon. Daniel L. Woods of Erie escorted Senator Hill to the front of the platform, and then occurred a remarkable scene. The vast body of delegates stood on chairs, waving handkerchiefs and yelling themselves hoarse as they greeted the senator with the loudest and most enthusiastic approval. The senator, who had been in the city for several days, was greeted with a shout of "Three cheers for Dave." Pandemonium reigned for at least five minutes. Senator Hill stood pale and motionless, one hand resting on the table, until the applause subsided, and then at once began to speak, partially and temporarily as a party for notes.

South Dakota Deputies Breaking Up a Gang

Another Man Jailed.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Another of the gang of counterfeiters who have made the northwestern part of Charles Mix county the scene of their operations has been run down and captured by Deputy United States Marshal Ryan. These dispatches have already told of the arrest of Levey Clark, who had in his possession, when captured, a complete outfit for the manufacture of silver coin of various denominations. After being held in jail for some time, he was released on the condition that everything was very dark for him. Clark weakened and made a confession to the discovery of the gang, and now it is known that he is also a prisoner. The matter is made public. He was captured at Gaville, Yankton county, while attempting to get out of the county and now he is in jail here. The discovery of the counterfeiters' den was made entirely by chance. Henry Pederson, a farmer, while out on a hunt, saw a man in a dark coat and hat, who he recognized as one of the counterfeiters, and he followed him to a house near Gaville. He traced the thief to a house across the line in Charles Mix county, and he followed him to a house near Gaville. He traced the thief to a house across the line in Charles Mix county, and he followed him to a house near Gaville.

FOUND COLGATE'S REMAINS

Rarely Enough Left to Identify Them as Those of the Unfortunate Cook.

MISSOULA, Mont., Sept. 25.—The Missoula tomorrow morning will contain a sensational story of the recovery of the body of the remains of George Colgate, the deserted cook of the notorious hunting party headed by William A. Carlin, son of General Carlin, late commander of the Department of the Columbia. The discovery was made about August 25 by Lieutenant Elliott, eight miles below the spot where the desertion occurred. The body was found in a hole in the ground, and Colgate's body was found with a broken bone and one leg, these mangled and gnawed by the wild beasts infesting that region. It is presumed that the body was carried to the spot by animals into mountain fastnesses. At the same spot were also found the matches, fish and other articles identified as Colgate's property. The body was found in a hole in the ground, and Colgate's body was found with a broken bone and one leg, these mangled and gnawed by the wild beasts infesting that region.

Fort Crook Rids All Rats

Figures Placed Too High to Suit the Department—New Bids Will Be Asked.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The bids for the construction of the fort at Fort Crook, in the Territory of Dakota, were opened at the War department, with the result that none of them were accepted. They have been thrown out by the department as excessive, and advertisements for new bids for the work will be published within a short time. No formal report was given out at the department today, but it is believed that the bids were all rejected. The bids were for the construction of the fort at Fort Crook, in the Territory of Dakota, and were opened at the War department, with the result that none of them were accepted.

SHOT BY A WYOMING COWBOY

Cook of the Ft. Colgate Outfit Dangerously Injured.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Ed Dickson, the cook for the Ft. Colgate outfit, was shot Saturday evening by Jim Smith, a cowboy in the employ of the same company. The shooting occurred at Gillette, in Johnson county. Smith and Dickson had some words about washing dishes, when the former drew his 41-caliber Colt's revolver and shot at Dickson, who was taking effect in his right breast and lodging under the right shoulder blade. Immediately after the shooting Smith mounted his horse and rode off, leaving Dickson lying on the ground. Dickson was brought to Sheridan, where he received surgical attention. He will recover.

STOOD FOR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

The democratic party stands in this state, as it has ever stood, for religious liberty which is guaranteed them by our constitution, and I arraign the republican party for its covert sympathy with and encouragement of the proscription spirit, which attempts to set up a religious test as a qualification of official preferment in this land of the free, and which is propagated by a certain political organization, which deserves execration at the hands of every fair-minded man, but which the republican state convention distinctly refused, though earnestly asked, to condemn.

Senator Hill declared that Governor Flower was among the best governors New York state has ever had and predicted Lieutenant Governor Stearns, whom he designated as "young and brilliant," had a dazzling future. The senator then concluded as follows: "Sinking every prejudice, subordinating every selfish consideration, actuated only by high and patriotic motives, realizing how much is at stake, to be won or lost, amidst the grand traditions which belong to the party of Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden, knowing a unified democracy in this state means an old-fashioned democratic triumph, let us stand up for the principles which have made the Macedonian phalanx of old, with locked shields and measured tread to the music that swells us on our course, with resolution, with confidence, believing our cause is just and that God and the right will surely give us the victory."

Robbed the County Treasurer

SHERMAN, Tex., Sept. 25.—At 1 o'clock this morning a party of five men, who were riding on the Texas and Pacific, robbed the county treasurer William Scott in the court house. He had been lying on the floor of his office, bleeding and unconscious, and the robbers had taken from him a large sum of money. The robbers were seen to get into the court house and to get out with a large amount of money. The sheriff and his posse were called out, but they were unable to catch the robbers.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Portuguese Cummings, Tenth infantry, made the best showing today at the cup Sheridan shoot, scoring 112 at the thirty-shooter, and 100 at the last day of the cavalry skirmish. Private Martin, Sixth cavalry, is thought to have the best chance for the cavalry gold medal.

GIFT TO THE SUGAR TRUST

Governor McKinley Talks of the Successor to His Tariff Bill.

OPENING OF THE INDIANA CAMPAIGN

Ex-President Harrison Introduces Him to an Indianapolis Audience—Condition of the Country Compared with that Under Republican Rule.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 25.—The formalities of opening the republican campaign in Indiana were run through with here today. Upon Governor McKinley of Ohio devolved the pleasant duty of making the declaration of war upon the entrenched democracy of Hoosierdom, and he discharged it as courageously and defiantly as he was wont in other days to carry battle into southern fields. The occasion was given added consequence by the presence of ex-President Harrison, who, in a ten-minute speech, introduced Ohio's governor to the thousands of cheering people who were gathered in the city.

PULLING THE WIRES

A cold, storm is evident, a dense spatter of rain, followed by bright sunshine, greeted the delegates to the convention this morning.

Everybody was astir early in the morning, and the large contingents of delegates to swell the crowd. Hotel corridors and streets were full and at the Grand Union, where democratic headquarters were established, the delegates were gathered in the streets were lively all night, marching crowds of boomers shouting at the top of their lungs and the night and most of the early morning hours. Senator Hill was an early riser and as the first contingent of leaders went into the city, he was seen to be in the city. Senator Hill had eaten his breakfast at 7 o'clock. From that time on until almost noon he sat behind closed doors, refusing to see any of his friends, and he was not seen until he had eaten his breakfast at 7 o'clock. From that time on until almost noon he sat behind closed doors, refusing to see any of his friends, and he was not seen until he had eaten his breakfast at 7 o'clock.

Whitney boom still retains its promise of a close contest, and the party of the leaders to wait until Mr. Whitney's arrival in New York or in Saratoga tomorrow before making a nomination.

The Whitney boom still retains its promise of a close contest, and the party of the leaders to wait until Mr. Whitney's arrival in New York or in Saratoga tomorrow before making a nomination. The Whitney boom still retains its promise of a close contest, and the party of the leaders to wait until Mr. Whitney's arrival in New York or in Saratoga tomorrow before making a nomination.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

GIFT TO THE SUGAR TRUST

Governor McKinley Talks of the Successor to His Tariff Bill.

OPENING OF THE INDIANA CAMPAIGN

Ex-President Harrison Introduces Him to an Indianapolis Audience—Condition of the Country Compared with that Under Republican Rule.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 25.—The formalities of opening the republican campaign in Indiana were run through with here today. Upon Governor McKinley of Ohio devolved the pleasant duty of making the declaration of war upon the entrenched democracy of Hoosierdom, and he discharged it as courageously and defiantly as he was wont in other days to carry battle into southern fields. The occasion was given added consequence by the presence of ex-President Harrison, who, in a ten-minute speech, introduced Ohio's governor to the thousands of cheering people who were gathered in the city.

PULLING THE WIRES

A cold, storm is evident, a dense spatter of rain, followed by bright sunshine, greeted the delegates to the convention this morning.

Everybody was astir early in the morning, and the large contingents of delegates to swell the crowd. Hotel corridors and streets were full and at the Grand Union, where democratic headquarters were established, the delegates were gathered in the streets were lively all night, marching crowds of boomers shouting at the top of their lungs and the night and most of the early morning hours. Senator Hill was an early riser and as the first contingent of leaders went into the city, he was seen to be in the city. Senator Hill had eaten his breakfast at 7 o'clock. From that time on until almost noon he sat behind closed doors, refusing to see any of his friends, and he was not seen until he had eaten his breakfast at 7 o'clock.

Whitney boom still retains its promise

of a close contest, and the party of the leaders to wait until Mr. Whitney's arrival in New York or in Saratoga tomorrow before making a nomination.

The Whitney boom still retains its promise of a close contest, and the party of the leaders to wait until Mr. Whitney's arrival in New York or in Saratoga tomorrow before making a nomination. The Whitney boom still retains its promise of a close contest, and the party of the leaders to wait until Mr. Whitney's arrival in New York or in Saratoga tomorrow before making a nomination.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts, but this year they have been particularly extravagant and unblushing in their boasting.

Mr. Hill said: The untried democracy

of the Empire state has been unduly dismayed at the premature boasts and assumed confidence of our adversaries. We are not accustomed to their annual and more or less exaggerated boasts