Toblas Castor's Certificates Can Have No Standing in the Courts.

The lawyers of the city are just now dis ussing the result of the trick of the Castor silite democrats in getting the ticket of the bolters' convention filed with the secretary of state ahead of the ticket nominated by the regular democratic convention. There seems to be a unanimity of opinion, and that opinion is that the bolters' ticket has no standing, either with the secretary of state or in the courts. It will be remembered that the call for the state convention designated Omaha as the place of meeting of the convention, but that no hall was specified. This appears to have been the first trick of the chine managers. They now claim that, outside of all question as to bolting, they have a legal right to have their candidates on the ticket for the reason that they met pursuant to the call, and in the place se-lected by the chairman of the state central committee. In other words, the conven-tion which met at Exposition hall met there the consent of the committee. No

Fitzsimmons' Letter to Corb tt Provokes a Pugilistic Epistolary Cyclone. CHAMPION HAS ISSUED HIS ULTIMATUM

He Doesn't Propose to Fight a Map Who is Merety a Middleweight-Grand Chorus of Compliments and Criticisms Com ng Up.

PORTLAND, Mc., Sept. 28 .- James J. Corbett, pugilist, was seen by an Associated press reporter tonight in his dressing room and in answer to a query on the subject Corbett handed the newspaper man a copy of a letter mail d to Bob Fitzsimmons this evening:

evening: PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 28, 1804.-Robert Fitzsimmons: Dear Sir-1 have read in the morning papers your very amusi g chillenge to me. You say the Olympic club offers a purse. Well, maybe they do, but I have never heard from them as yet. You put H0,000 in the Olympic club's hands-why don't you put it in some newspaper office or some place where a man can see it, or is the "Olympic club" backing you? How-ever, that's neither here nor there. I sup-pose you are afraid if you put the money up in any other place besides the Olympic club some one else might cover it. It is not necessary for me to give a realy to your challenge, because you are well aware that necessary for me to give a reply to your challenge, because you are well aware that I will not accept it unless you prove your-self a champion "heavyweight" and not a "middleweight." I must acknowledge that as a "middleweight." You have no equal, but all you ever flid in the "heavyweight" class was to defeat Peter Maher and Joe Caoyinski, two second-class heavyweights, since both of these men have been defeated by Joe Goddard of Australia, another second-class heavyweight.

of these inclusion of Australia, another second-ci-fieavyweight. No one knows this better than you. Goddard of Australia, another second-class heavy weight. No one knows this better than you. I suppose you think the public will say: "You're a very brave man to challenge me and fight me. Why shouldn't you do so? It is just like buying a lottery ticket to win $5,000 for $1. All you have to lose b $1, and it is the same case in fighting me. If I de-feat you, of course you would say: "He ought to beat me. I am only a middle-weight." Just as when I beat Sullivan it was said: "He is an old man," and Mitchell. "He was a light fellow; he was too small." Now, Mr. Fitzsimmons, if you really in your heart want to fight for the champion-ship of the world, you certainly, if you are on the level, want to prove yourself a champion heavyweight and not a middle-weight. All you have to do in the world to fight me for the championship is to prove to me and the world that you are capable of defeating any heavyweight and not a middle-weight and the world that you are capable of defeating any heavyweight and creedon. When you say that you know you lie. I never even noticed you, and don't intend to unless you prove yourself a 'champion heavyweight." You want to jump over the heads of all these other people and take the dying chance with me, but I will fool you. Steve O'Donnell, my present sparring part-ner for money. Now, how can you ex-perime to recognize you when this man stank ready with money behind him to prove to the world that he is your sup-rior? If you will only meet him and defeat him I will accept an offer of twenty-flyc hous and dollars (£5,09) from the Olympic vant. If you want to fight me this is the only way you can ever get me to make a match with you, for there is no power on stank ready with money behind him to prove to the world that he is your sup-erimed the world that he is your sup-erimed ready with money behind him to prove to the world that he is your sup-send that will make me notice you until you have defeated Steve O'Donnell, and any you have defeated Steve O'Donnell, and any you have defeated

CORBETT WAS INDIGNANT.

Corbett was indignant today when shown the dispatch sent out by John L. Sullivan last night, accusing him of beating about the bush. Corbett said in substance:

These people do not out any ice with me. Sullivan had always more mouth than courage. He is a quitter from the word go, and I do not want to have anything to do with him. He is out of it, but ther is one thing-if I ever meet Fitzsimmons in the ring I will make a better fight than Sullivan did with me. Scott Reverses Himself.

After the storm of Thursday morning in Judge Scott's court came a calm yesterday, caused by his absence. The judge had business at Lincoln and adjourned court for one day, so said his bailiff. His action in reasting the attorneys in the case of Annette Carter against M. F. Martin seems to have been a tempest in a teapot for the purpose of venting his anger on Attorneys mas and Tunnicliff for daring to take the case before another judge. The proceedings show that Mr. Burbank was not conwith the other attorneys, but was simply mentioned as one of the attorneys ng the case, and the whole blame was placed upon Tunnichiff and Thomas. But after all his grand stand plays in the mat-Scott is said to have arranged to set tle the case just as Judge Ambrose did. and the property will again revert to the defendant as agreed by the attorneys in their previous stipulations. The order the settlement has not yet been made, Attorney Burbank says that he arranged with Scott for an amicable settlement, on the same basis as was ordered by Judge Ambrose, and the court will now relinquish its protection over the "burnt district" domdom-

BOSTON, Sept. 28.-Bob Fitzsimmons' let-er to Corbett was shown to W. A. Brady, Corbett's manager, at the Bowdoin Square toduy.

"All I have to say in reply to that," observed Brady, "is that $1,000 is placed for a $5,000 or a $10,000 bet, in the hands of David W. Blanchard, that Fitzsimmons cannot beat O'Donnell. O'Donnell made him quit in Australia and he can do it again. If Fitz-simmons wants to fight Corbett let him beat O'Donnell and then Corbett will meet him but not before. That is Corbett's ultimatum. In regard to the dispatch from New Or-leans, reporting that the Olympic club will declare Fitzsimmons champion unless Cor-bett fights, Mr. Brady said: "That is all relative to Fitzsimmons' challenge to Corbett: WASHINGTON, Sept. 25. --If Fitzsimmons and Corbett were brought together you would see one of the holtest fights in years. But I don't believe that Corbett wants to fight. He is making money fast and he does not want to take any chances. When I was fighting no one had to hunt me around to be accommodated. I don't see how Corbett can refuse to meet Fitzsim-mons. If he does not accept the challenge he does not want to fight.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 28 .- "If Mr. Corbett will say he does not want to meet Fitzsim-mons, I won't bother him any more, but I will claim the heavyweight championship of the world and walk off with it. See?" This was the response of Robert Fitzsimmons, champion middle weight, to James J. Corbett's statement sent out by the press last night. "He wants me to meet Stave O'Donnel, eh? Let O'Donnel whip Maher or Hall or somebody I have defeated. Then I will fight him. I shall put my fist in Corbett's face yet." CREEDON COMPLAINS.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.-Dan Creedon, the vanquished middleweight, returned from New Orleans tonight.

"Fitz is not a fair fighter," said he. "Five minutes before I went into the ring, I got a note from Johnny Carroll telling me to watch out that Fitz did not strike me with his wrist over the head, and that he depended upon that trick to win his fights. Carroll brought Fitzsimmons out here, and knows all about his methods. Contaville Times Tells Why He Changed from Harlem to Oakley.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. Sept. 25,-The Times to day publishes a statement to the effect that after Saturday Colonel Lewis Clark will sever his connection with the Harlem race tracks as presiding judge, he having tendered his resignation to take effect at that time. The cause of Colonel Clark's retire ment is said to be friction with the management. The trouble arose over a race that occurred about ten days ago, in which the winner was several times fouled by the placeholders. Colonel Clark wanted to disqualify the placeholders, but was overruled by the associated judges, Beginning the second week in October, Colonel Clark will preside at the new Oakley track in Cib-cinnati.
