OLD LADIES' HOME.

Thursday's Donations and Calls Made Many Good Hearts Happy. Those in charge of the Old Ladies' Home lesire to publicly express their thanks for the very generous response to their request for donations. Thursday was a day long to be remembered. Gifts many and in great variety, from a pound of bologna sausage to a pound of silver dollars, with groceries, coal, fruits and flowers, made all at the Home very happy. The pleasure that the old indies derived from receiving calls in their own rooms was one of the most enlovable features of the occasion and it is loped that those who came for the first time on that day will come often and brighten the lives of those who are infirm and aged and "shut in."

Master in Chancery Complete after section

Master in Chancery Cornish, after verifying the figures and giving generally the manner in which the roads have been operated, says, somewhat significantly: "The results as shown by said statement are that while the trust properties have as a whole earned more than the cost of operation, several of the constituent properties have been operated at allows. These deficiencies have necessarily been borne temporarily by the receivers out of the moneys derived from the operation of the paying properties and it has not yet been determined how these deheiencies of the non-maying properties shall be finally borne, and if it shall be determined that these deficiencies or any portion of them shall be charged against any proper-ties other than those against which they occur, material changes in the resources, of the paying properties as indicated by said statement by actual operations will result."

Furniture, carpets and stoyes, for 10 cents. BATTLE WITH A BURGLAR.

inclinati Saloon Keeper Encounters a Night Prowler and Captures Him-CINCINNATI, Sept. 29.-Louis Balzer, sleeping in the rear of his saloon on Central avenue, was awakened at I o'clock this morning by what he thought was a big dog on the floor. He sprang out and encountered a burglar, who tried in vain to shoot him, the revolver missing fire. After a desperate struggle Balzer was joined by his desperate struggle based wife and son, and the burglar was r.ndered insensible by a bung starter. Both were taken to the hospital. The burglar gave the name of William Meyer of Louisville,

THE MORSE DRY GOODS CCMPANY.

Opening Week of Fall Novelities as We Advertised

It was our purpose certainly for September

I to have closed out our business either by retail or in a lump to some one who would take the goods off our hands. But with the 1st of September we found that our store had a very large and selected stock of fall and winter goods that must be sold, and, as we did not succeed in finding a purchaser for the stock, the only thing left for us to do was to assort up our stock with attractive nevelties, also staple and seasonable goods. Our buyers have been in New York buying for spot cash, and at the new tariff prices (which are much below the old (ariff rates) novelties that you cannot see alsowhere. Nov elties in all lines that will please you and at prices made much lower by the new tariff law. All will be sold at prices for spot eash only, that we guarantee to be much below the regular prices charged for same quality and style of goods. New capes, new cloaks, new dress goods, new silks. In fact, our store is full of new and desirable goods in all lines. Inspection by yourself and friends is solicited. THE MORSE DRY GOOD COMPANY.

WILL FOLLOW SUIT. Union Pacific Will Strike the Pace Set by

Its Southern Competitor Should the Southern Pacific put on its Sunset limited to New Orleans from San Francisco, as now rumored it will do, it will result in complications with other transcontinental roads that promise to be very hard to untangle. The Union Pacific, the moment the train is put on will make a de mand on the Southern Pacific for a shorteming up of the time between Orden and San Francisco to offset the effect which the limited specials would have in diverting traffic by the southern route. The $53 miles between San Francisco and Ogden are now covered by the Central over 1 n 1 fast mail in thirty-six hours, while th Union Pacific trains between Ogden and Omaha cover 201 more miles of territory in two hours and a half less time. The Unior Pacific believes the time between Ogder and San Francisco could be materially re duced, in which event the time between Ogden and Omaha could be lessened sufficiently to offset the effect of the Sunse
