EDITORIAL. We rejoice in the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs...

With the approach of the conventions that are to select the candidates for the school board...

The Sugar trust ought to make some very liberal contributions toward defraying the campaign expenses of Senator Hill...

Now that the political leave of absence of the Board of Health has expired, it is pretty near time that the force does some work for the city...

British admiration for Chairman Wilson will probably have just the reverse effect on his West Virginia constituents...

The folks who are insisting that Boyd's chances are improving must have had a very poor opinion of Boyd's chances in the first instance...

Industrial recovery is still waiting and is now explained as the uncertainty caused by uncertainty of the coming elections...

Congressman Springer of Illinois says that the next democratic presidential nominee must be a western man...

No, we hardly think that "for" or "against Omaha" is the issue of the vote on the canal proposition...

Secretary Morton has fearlessly agreed to read another address before a farmers' national congress...

The artisans whom the managers of the Welsh tin plate industry want to call back to Wales...

The shrewdness of the Chinaman is again illustrated by the device resorted to by the Chinese residents of Mexico...

JUDGE JENKINS REVERSED.

The reversal of the most obnoxious part of the now famous strike injunction of Judge Jenkins is a distinct victory for organized labor...

This new decision cannot but recall the decision handed down last fall by Judge Caldwell, covering much the same ground, but taking a position precisely the opposite of that of Judge Jenkins...

Because strikes are declared to be legally possible, however, is no reason why they should be encouraged. It ought, on the contrary, to emphasize the demand for legislation that will do away with their necessity...

What does this mean for American wool growers? They must now compete in the open market with the Argentine product and that of all other countries admitted free and raised on cheap lands...

How could any agreement with officers of the Union Pacific be enforced unless it was authorized by the United States court, which is now in control of the road, and the agreement was ratified by the Union Pacific receivers under direction of the court?

An interesting question for our government seems likely to arise out of the termination of the reciprocity agreement with Brazil, of which that government gave formal notification recently...

The shrewdness of the Chinaman is again illustrated by the device resorted to by the Chinese residents of Mexico who desire to return to China without paying for their passage...

Acta products entering Brazil, while under the new tariff the principal product of that country will continue to come into the United States free of duty. Thus there will be no restriction, by reason of import duties, upon Brazil's products...

According to the minister to this country of the Argentine Republic free wool is proving to be a great boon to the wool growers of his country. He says that the Argentine wool industry has been very much stimulated since the removal of duty by the United States...

Senator Hill has not yet made known what he intends to do about the nomination for governor so enthusiastically given him, and his delay is said to be causing his friends some anxiety...

The report of the work accomplished since its establishment by the lodging house for women, conducted by the Women's Christian association, must be gratifying to those who have contributed to this commendable charity...

Judge Brentano certainly does not exhibit much confidence in the efficiency of the Chicago police force when he places in the hands of a private detective agency the work of investigating the source of the shots that have been fired into his house during the past week...

It is to be feared that should Mr. MacVeagh succeed in satisfying his present ambition with a seat in the senate the temptation to repeat all those campaign speeches on the floor of that house would be altogether too great to be resisted...

Mr. Cleveland's remark to a reporter that he was "out of politics" was not far from the way. He does not seem to be in it at all these days.

It works both ways. When the tariff on iron went up Carnegie made it an excuse to lower wages and cause the steel workers to strike...

Industrial co-operation has met with many setbacks and has often taken a step backward. In England, in twenty years, ending with 1887, the number of co-operative societies increased from 79 to 1,533...

Some time ago the Time Telegrapher's association held a reunion in Baltimore, but the event attracted much less interest than it had in the past...

Will the American Republic Endure? From the time that the American Republic was proclaimed in 1776, it has been a constant question...

HILL WILSON ABROAD.

Minneapolis Journal: The ovation to Wilson is a strong campaign document for the republicans, and the national congressional and state committees should not fail to use it in the current campaign...

Chicago Tribune: No wonder the English are "enthusiastically applauded" them. They have earned the applause and approval of every European manufacturer and exporter...

Chicago Inter Ocean: Congressman Wilson of the United States, having been of a social character, the people of England and the plutocratic manufacturers of London only paid a debt in giving him a costly banquet...

New York Tribune: The Wilson tariff was for the benefit of British industries and made, nevertheless, and if it did not go as far as some greedy manufacturers on the other side of the world, it was far enough to prevent the iron producing works in this country...

New York Advertiser: Beside Mr. Wilson, at the dinner given last night in London by the free trade Chamber of Commerce, was Secretary Morton of Cleveland's cabinet...

New York Tribune: Mr. William L. Wilson never appeared to greater advantage both as an American and as a democrat than in his speech at the dinner which was given in honor of him in London...

Syracuse Post (rep): This is just as good a time as any for the people to settle accounts with David B. Hill. He is the Mephistopheles who set in motion all the series of devils from the executive office immediately before and after Flower's accession to the governorship...

New York Sun (dem): With Hill as the nominee, nothing is impossible. The New York democrats will forget everything else in the fever of the fight and in the determination to give their antagonists an opposition so quiet and stubborn that the republicans will be incapable of withstanding it...

Philadelphia Inquirer (rep): By the selection of Hill New York practically ignores and repudiates Cleveland. It is gall and wormwood, and yet in the long run Cleveland is more likely to have his revenge, for the president will still be in the swim when the senator is a mangled corpse...

Philadelphia Press (rep): At last the voters in New York state have an opportunity to strike a blow for pure politics and a human political method such as rarely comes to a man in a lifetime. They have the opportunity to strike this blow as emphatically and distinctly as it will ring out to the whole nation against everything that is base and mean in politics...

Washington Star (ind): It is not to be imagined that the Cleveland men in New York will labor with very much of zeal to bring about an endorsement of him who in season and out of season has done his utmost to embarrass the administration of their chief...

GREAT WAS MOHAMMED.

SIBYLBE, Wyo., Sept. 29.—To the Editor of The Bee: I notice a paragraph in your "religious" column stating Mohammedanism has a history of thirty centuries and has a following of 200,000,000, etc., and makes a disparaging comparison with Christianity, and morally, socially and mentally the comparison is justifiable, though it is not made in that light, but numerically and longevity...

CHINESE TREATY RATIFIED.

Compact with the Emperor Is Finally Accomplished.

UNITED STATES NOTIFIED OF THE FACT. Publication of the Details Not Made Until Numerous Criticisms Had Been Indulged In as to the Time Consumed in Diplomatic Deliberations.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Notification has been given to the government in an informal way of the ratification by the Chinese government of the new treaty between the United States and China which was negotiated by Secretary of State Gresham and the Chinese minister, Yang Yu, and ratified by the senate on the part of the United States...

Truth: Washington Lady.—The feet of the ladies of your country are so small, I believe, Japanese. Attach—no, no, madam; that is a Chinese custom. We in Japan allow our feet to grow to their full size (politely)—not that they can ever hope to rival yours, madam.

Philadelphia Record: There is a big, fat girl clerk in a confectionery store on Ridge avenue. "What do you weigh?" a fresh customer asked. "Candy," she sweetly replied.

Buffalo Express (rep): The head of the ticket in the evil genius of the democratic party in this state, the man who for years has shown how by holding a firm grip on the throttle of the machine, it is possible to utilize democracy and expediency so as to over-ride all political decency in your own party and to rob your opponents of their rights.

Little Bee's Faith. Little Bee's papa is an advertising man. Who talks his business everywhere, wherever he can.
