The reception tendered the Army of the Tennessee, its friends and all Loval Legionites, by the Nebraska commandery at the Millard in Omaha yesterday, from 2 to 5 o'clock, was a fitting climax to a memorable meeting of veterans. At 2 o'clock a special train on the Omaha & Council Bluffs motor line landed the members of the well known army organization at the main entrance of the Millard, and, preceded by a fife and drum corps, the men of '65 marched up stairs, where an abundance of good cheer had been provided by the members of the Nebraska Loyal Legion. The rooms were festooned with the na-ional colors, plants were scattered here and there, waiters were present to serve eatables and drinkables, and the parlor floor given up for three hours to the notables who are members of the association. There were songs in endless number, some of the veterans in the course of the afternoon arousing great enthusiasm by the singing of stirring choruses which they had learned to sing in field and camp. Jules Lombard, although not a member of the association. was induced to sing several of his favorite songs, and it is doubtful if "My Coun-try, 'Tis of Thee" was ever heard to better advantage than yesterday afternoon, sung, as it was by the well known basso, while Sherman, Hinken Cooper, Grant, Belknap, and other eminent lights joined in the chorus. The efforts of the local members of the loyal Legion to make their visiting guests feel that they had fallen among friends were crowned with signal success, and it is worthy of record that not a single hitch marred the day, the guests leaving with enthusiastic praises of the hearty manner which they were welcomed to Nebraska

The assemblage was notable in the emin ent personages present. While the mili-tary arm of the nation was represented by men as Brigadier Generals O. O. How "d and John R. B. Allison of Iowa and C. F. Manderson of Nebraska, and the sons of General Grant, General W. T. Sherman and General Belknap were objects of interest on the part of these who had known their fathers. Among those distinguished in the throng were: General Thomas G. Lawler of Rockford, Ill., cominguished General mander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic; Colonel C. C. underwear (hygenic) is here to stay, as we predicted last year or a year before. Some persons are attached to it, and couldn't really do without. So would you if you try it, for two reasons. First-The fleece lining is tender, non irritable, smooth and heat retaining. Second-It is more durable, warmer and a good amount cheaper than ordinary wool.

Heavy demands were made upon us for this underwear last year. We sold loads of 'em, in fact we were unable to supply the demand. This year we're fixed-arranged direct. ly with the manufacturers for a full supply, and as a consequence we are also dealing with manufacturers' prices. Forty, Fifty and Sixty Cents for three lines of fleeced lined underwear that sold last year from 75c to $1.25. A stroke of enterprise we are to be congratulated upon.

The reduction on other underwear is perhaps not quite so extensive, until you reach imported wool, which received a setback, because of the decree of free wool, which goes into effect January 1st, 1895. So far we squeezed the juice of the fruit and our stock of wool underwear is shelved at a good deal cheaper than last year. Camel's hair-last year 85c, this year Sixty Cents. Double breast and back camel's hair is this year only Eighty Cents, list year $1.10. Medicay scarlet is reduced from $1.25 to Ninety Cents. Two thread striped underwear is now One Dollar, cut from $1.50. $1.75 natural wool underwear stepped down to One Twenty-five and so on-finer the value, bigger the chip.-

Cheaper underwear bearing cotton and wool mixtures, have suffered but little. Heavy purchasers, like ourselves, captured the best on closely shaven margins. Brown mixed stuff, a first class 50c underwear, is Thirty Cents, Jersey ribbed, a standard 75c underwear we sold last year at 50c, is this year only Forty. All wool is Fifty Cents.

This is underwear time-the prices lean toward you. Sizes complete. Why not buy early.

General Howard says I call the attention of General Brooke and the ordinary at the Grand hotel. The General Howard says he will room was beautifully hung with national colletters, but does not intimate what he thinks ors, while at either end hung a banner bearthe result will be. Yesterday some of the ing the emblems of the Thirteenth, Fifteenth members of the society were amusing them-Seventeenth Army corps, of which the selves framing a letter to Barber, giving in childlike, simple language a brief history of the war and the part taken by the Army Army of the Tennessee was composed. One of these banners was of silk and the other of the Tennessee.

RECEPTION TO MRS. LOGAN.

From 3 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon ception was tendered Mrs. John A. by the Woman's Relief corps in the Grand Army hall on Pearl street. Mrs. Cam bell and Mrs. Spencer escorted Mrs. Logan and Miss Mary Logan Pierson to the hall where they were met by the other members of the committee, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Weath erbee and Mrs. Ayres, and an informal and highly enjoyable meeting followed. Mrs. Logan made a few remarks in her graceful manner, at the close of which she was presented by Mrs. Ayres with a beautiful bunch of flowers in behalf of the corps. Miss Pearson also made a short talk and sang a couple of war songs, in which all those present joined. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Logan left on the evening train for St. Paul, the home of her daughter Mrs. Tucker.

The pupils of the High school were given an opportunity which was much prized by then of becoming acquainted with some of the notables brought here by the reunion. General G. M. Dodge, Colonel Fred Grant, P. Tecumseh Sherman, General O. O. Howard and Governor Frank D. Jackson visited the school at the morning session by invitation of Superintendent Sawyer and Principal Eastman, and each made some remarks in which the lessons of patriotism were taught more effectively than they could possibly be by the inauguration of the custom of having the school children compelled salute the flag each morning. As General Dodge and General Howard stood before the young people as representatives of the flower of the country thirty years ago great enthusiasm was aroused, which manifested itself in loud applause. And when "My Country, "Tis of Thee," rang out from 300 young and vigorous throats the effect was electrical, and it was hard to tell whose eyes hore the strongest suspicion of mola-ture, the old generals who had carried the flag when it was all a man's life was worth to do so, or the young people who had been accustomed to think of the flag as something all-powerful.

The reception committee has covered itself with glory throughout the reunion nplimentary remarks have been heard on all sides for the way in which the visitors have been made to feel at home. The other committees did their share of the work equally well and contributed to the success of the entertainment. And while the others are receiving praise, Secretary Oliver Anson should not be forgotten. On him the burden of looking after all the details feil, and he managed to spread him-self out over the entire field and become as near omnipresent as any one man could.

MALVERN, Ia., Oct. 4 .- (Special Telegram.)-The fair at Silver City today was well attended, estimated at 2,000. Yesterday there were not over 800 present. The fair will close tomorrow. The exhibits, especially apples and vegetables, are very good. The principal attraction today besides horse racing was the expected speech of General James B. Weaver. The speaker was here, but the speech failed to materialize. The general excused himself by stating that as there e so many good things to that he would not make a speech now. were but promised that before the campaign ended he would address the people of Mills county in two or three places. This is the third time he has been advertised to speak here and failed.

Suing Cedar Rapids Saloon Keepers.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Oct. 4 .-- (Special Telegram.)-A decided sensation in saloon circles was created today when notices were served on nine of the beginning of suits against them for heavy damages. The plain tiff in each case is Mrs. Charles F. Floyd, whose husband has run through with several thousand dollars because of his appetite for strong drink. At one time he was the owner of the Center Point Journal, and has since held many good positions, all of which he lost because of his drink habit. Last summer he took the gold cure, but was soon drinking as hard as ever. It is understood Mrs. Floyd will bring suit against other saloon keepers than those upon whom notice was served today.

delivered the address of welcome in behalf of the union, and Rev. J. G. Vanness in behalf of the churches. The response was made by Mrs. Godfrey. Miss Francis Wil-lard will arrive tomorrow and Friday evening will deliver an address. Mrs. Dunham, state president, in her address scored the "sifting committee" of the house of the last legislature, declaring it responsible for the defeat of the bill rais ing the age of consent. The passage of the mulct law was characterized as a legal permission to violate law, which handed the state over to the power of the liquor traffic and was a descent from its previous high Mrs. Dunham was frequently plauded during the delivery of her address

Creston's Coal Field.

CRESTON, Ia., Oct. 4 .- (Special.)-While Mr. Wildman was digging a well on the residence lot of Mr. Devoe on North hill he discovered coal at a depth of thirty-five feet in quite liberal quantities. The coal came on the augur. The discovery a vein of coal at that shal-depth was quite a surprise, up or of a although it is generally believed by geologists that the surface of Union county is underlaid with black diamonds in abundance. If coal can be found in paying quantities it will be of immense value to Creston and the Burlington.
