STEAMSHIP LINES CONSOLIDATE. T panies Will Do Business Together. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—It is stated here that the Pacific Mail Steamship company is about to absorb the Occidental and Oriental Steamship company. The latter company was started about twelve years ago by the Southern Pacific company in oppor sition to the Pacific mail. For a time there was a lively rate war, but a compromise war effected, and the steamers of the two com-panies divided the business between this port and the Orient. C. P. Huntington is flow president of both companies, and as it is stated that the steamship lines of the North ern Pacific and Canadian Pacific have into the business from this port, consoli-The Pacific Mail owns its own vessels, the Occidental and Oriental leases its steamers from the White Star line. GENERAL NEGLEY ARRESTED.

Charged with Having Obtained Severa Thousand Dollars Felsely. NEW YORK, Oct. 6 .- General James S Negley of New Jersey has been arrested on an order of Justice Lawrence of the suprem court in an action which has been brough against him by Albert H. King of Brook, byn, to recover $3,000, which it is claimed Negley obtained on false representation. He gave $1,000 bail, and was released.

King said that in October. 1890, General Negley offered to negotiate $500,000 of bonds of the King Locomotive works. He represented himself as presidents. sented himself as president of the Mexican Trust and Investment company, which now turns out to have only existed on paper. King advanced $3,600 to cover the expenses of a trip to Paris by General Negley to no gotiate the bonds. He had a good time, buddle not negotiate the bonds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.-The body James H. Crossman, a well known minin man and speculator, was found dead in hi room at the Haldwin hotel last night, and on a table at his side was a bottle of deadly compound of ammonia, and a glass half ful of the same drug. Several letters addressed to his wife and friends give poor specular tion in lands as the cause for the deed.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 6 .- John McCarthy

CHICAGO, Oct. 6 .- The young lady students in Ferry Hall, Lake Forest university, were thrown into a panic today by a small blaze
