Wins the Great Transylvania Trot at Lexington in Straight Heats.

RALPH WILKES BURNS HIS BACKERS' COIN

Favorite in the Betting, He Acted Boldly and Was Distanced in the First Heat

—McDowell's Skillful Driving Saves the Winner.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 8.—The races did not cease till dark. The famous Transylvania stake and Liberator's big band caused a tremendous crowd to attend the trotting races here this afternoon. The sport was exceptionally good, the Transylvania being the fastest trotting race ever decided over this track and also the fastest ever trotted in the state. The fast colt, Ralph Wilkes, 2:09 1/2, who cost Thayer & Bro. of Boston $95,000 as a 2-year-old, was favored at $100.

McDowell, who was driving the colt, was backed by getting very badly at the start and breaking at the first turn. He reared up and fell back, and before he could be steadied the others had so much the best of it that he was badly distanced, Azote winning the heat with ease by two lengths. In the second heat everybody drove for Azote, and he was badly pocketed near the half by Dan Cupid, Dandy Jim and Trevelyan, who were pulling around in the back of the pack.

Azote came home a winner without one lick of punishment. In the third heat Azote won all the way, finishing in a jog by three lengths. The winner, Azote, was owned by J. W. McDowell, who was driving the colt, was backed by getting very badly at the start and breaking at the first turn.

—Fruit Defect.

The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners held a long session last night and did very little business. The early part of the meeting was occupied with the trials of two officers, and the rest was used up in trying to get out of an entanglement into which the board had been thrown by the request of Detective Sawyer, Dempsey and Haze for an investigation of the charges against them.

A talk was also had over the defect in the fire fund, but in no case was a decision reached. Officers Starkey and Tyrrell were the ones on the carpet. The former was up for leaving his post Sunday night, September 30, and entering the Fifteenth Street theater, and for disobeying his superior officer. The case against him was not very strong. Tyrrell was charged with the same offense.

The charges were preferred against Officer Peter Gustafson by Frank Carver, 65 years old, for arresting and mistreating him on the street. The trial was set for next Monday night.

Central Labor Union protests. A communication was read from the Central Labor Union stating that it objected to some of the officers of the fire and police department being done by Dennis Cunningham and that he compelled his men to work in the streets. The communication requests that the city withdraw patronage until it is satisfied that the officers mentioned are honest and capable.

MOORE MAKES A SHOW

All the Newest Things from Many Markets on Display at Moore's.

NEWEST NOVELTIES IN EVERY DEPARTMENT

As It Looks to One Who Saw It Today in All Its Glory—The Old Corner is Fairly Bursting With New Goods.

The big crowd in the Morse Dry Goods company's store, Sixteenth and Farnam streets today excited the curiosity of a Bee reporter. It was hard work to push through the throng of people eager to purchase goods at rock-bottom prices, but finally the scribe succeeded in reaching the office of Manager Wisley. The manager of this big concern was found finally engaged in looking over and checking up the incoming goods, which just received, which were being unpacked and placed upon the shelves as rapidly as possible.

In answer to the question the manager said that he had just returned from the east with his buyer. Together they had made a tour of the big manufacturing in the eastern states and had picked up a great line of goods at exceptionally low prices. The fact that these goods were placed on sale this morning explained why the spacious store was crowded. "Business is picking up rapidly in the east," said Manager Wisley, "and good times are surely coming. Our trade here is increasing every day, and if this thing keeps up," here the manager of the big store glanced at the crowd, "I will have to send my buyers back to New York before the day is over."

The store is filled from top to bottom with bargains. Everything is being sold at ridiculously low prices. The reporter made a tour of the grand establishment. Attention was first drawn to the silk establishment. An elegant line of the latest weaves was displayed. The black silks are especially noteworthy. Colored silks, plain and novelty, are shown in abundance and the prices are so low that ladies looking for bargains cannot fail to patronize this department. Columbian Blue and Blue "A" are the newest shades, and the sale of these silks increases every day. Next to the silks are the woollen goods. Colored wools, plain and novelty, are shown in abundance and the prices are so low that ladies looking for bargains cannot fail to patronize this department. Columbian Blue and Blue "A" are the newest shades, and the sale of these silks increases every day.

The woollen and dress goods department makes an elegant showing in plain and novelty. In blue and black goods, the latter is the largest and best in the city, and the goods are the latest products of the loom. A western manufacturer was heard up and about the store, saying that he had sent his entire stock to a price considerably below the regular market. This accounts for the exceptionally low price of woolsens at the Morse store.

A very pretty showing is made in the lingerie department. The goods are complete, and everything required to finish a dress is displayed. While we were away we visited a manufacturer of handkerchiefs, and by paying a visit to the factory a number of these useful articles at a very low price, which are being sold at a price that will interest the many purchasers. The ribbon counter is a beautiful one, and simply grand. Ribbons of every kind and color, all new goods are shown, and the goods are all the very latest styles, and of every kind shade.
