

ALL ARE ASKING FOR VOTES

Aspirants for Local Offices Who Seek Endorsement at the Primaries.

CITY CAMPAIGN GETTING UNDER WAY

Haskell Dons an Old Coat and Enters the Lists—Central Labor Union Pledges Backing to Deaver and Jenness—Plans Some Mass Meetings.

Political parties are now closing up their local skirmish lines and massing their forces for the final contest that is to take place November 6. The last of the primaries are slated, and when they close there will be nothing remain but to fight the battle in the streets.

Over in the wigwag of the democrats the same has been extended until the clock rolls off the hour of 12 tonight, when the books will be closed and the public will know just what gentlemen have thrown themselves into the breach.

This year both the democrats and the republicans are working under the provisions of the state law which provides that all candidates shall declare their intentions at least thirty-six hours before the evening of the primaries in order to get places on the party tickets. This being so, the republicans closed up their books at noon yesterday, the primaries opening tomorrow afternoon.

REPUBLICAN ASPIRANTS.

The time for filing petitions by republican candidates for city offices expired at noon yesterday and the headquarters of the city central committee in the New York Life building was crowded with candidates and their friends.

ON THE DEMOCRATIC SIDE.

The democratic city central committee met last night to receive applications for positions as clerks and judges of election and of candidates. There were only a few of the latter, but of the former there were a number, and more to be heard from. As soon as all are in, the list will be prepared and handed to the mayor.

LABOR ENDORSES CANDIDATES.

It also arranges for mass meetings in Omaha and South Omaha. At a meeting of the Omaha Central Labor union last evening a communication from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, asked that the Central Labor union notify him what members of the organizations had been nominated for political office.

LABOR ENDORSES CANDIDATES.

At a meeting of the Omaha Central Labor union last evening a communication from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, asked that the Central Labor union notify him what members of the organizations had been nominated for political office. The secretary was instructed to comply with the request.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Whereas, The Central Labor union of Omaha, representing the masses of the people throughout this district, believes the depressed condition of the industrial classes is partially due to the unjust legislation enacted by our national government at Washington.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this union that great good would be accomplished by bringing the measures demanded by organized labor before the people at this time. Resolved, That with this end in view a committee of seven be appointed by the Central Labor union, four from Omaha and three from South Omaha, to make arrangements for two meetings in Omaha and one in South Omaha at times and places to be decided upon by the committee.

JENNESS IS A MEMBER OF TYPING UNION

Not In Politics, but Intend to Help Elect Majors.

CALAMITY CRUSADERS' CLAIMS.

The executive committee of the Nebraska Business Men's association, recently organized to defeat Silas A. Holcomb for governor, held a secret meeting Tuesday night, which lasted for about three hours.

At the meeting the members of the association decided to prepare a statement for the public, to be published in the daily press, defining the reasons why this association is opposed to Mr. Holcomb, and stating that the organization was not a Major's campaign club, as is generally understood.

Preparations for the Battle.

OMAHA, Oct. 10.—Hon. C. J. Smythe, Chairman Democratic State Central Committee—Dear Sir: In accordance with the letter of Hon. John M. Thurston of date October 9 we desire to inform you that we have accepted the management of the debates proposed on behalf of Mr. Thurston and are ready to co-operate with yourself or any committee on behalf of Mr. Bryan in arranging the details of such discussions.

Why He Was Not Endorsed.

At the general meeting of the Municipal league, held Tuesday night, the different ward councils presented their candidates for the city council. The name of W. A. Pace was handed in from the Sixth ward.

Democratic Rally Monday Night.

The executive committee of the democratic county central committee met last night and decided upon the ways and means of carrying on the county campaign.

Mr. W. Alexander Declines.

Mr. W. Alexander, in conversation with a Bee representative yesterday, explained the reasons for his declining to be a candidate for the school board.

RUSHING PUBLIC WORK.

The City street paving which has been delayed for some time by reason of the frequent adjournments of the city council, will now be pushed as rapidly as possible.

THE SALE THURSDAY—BOSTON STORE.

Thursday Boston Store Will Sell All the Fine Shoes and Slippers. REPLENISHED BY THE SHERIFF. These are a lot of ladies' and men's shoes and slippers, which were repleished by the sheriff to satisfy a claim of certain creditors of a well known shoe dealer.

"Among the Ozarks." The Land of Big Red Apples, is an attractive and interesting book, handsomely illustrated with views of south Missouri scenery, including the famous Olden farm of 2,000 acres in Howell county.

In the running time of the Burlington's "Vestibule Flyer." Leave Omaha, 4:25 p. m. Arrive Chicago, 8:20 a. m. Between the hours of departure and arrival is an ideal experience in the luxury of modern travel.

CATHOLICS AND THE SALOON

Bishop Watterson Explains His Position on the Question.

LETTER READ FROM MGR. SATOLLI

Birthday Anniversary of Father Matthew the Occasion of a Large Gathering of Temperance Workers of All Creeds.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The birth of Father Matthew, the apostle of temperance, was celebrated today by the temperance people of all creeds and denominations by a parade in which 15,000 people participated. The chief marshal, Colonel A. J. Burbank, massed his forces on the lake front in the afternoon and a brilliant spectacle of the parade presented.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong in the system. No testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and cleansing the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Discussed Sherman Avenue Paving.

There was a meeting of citizens at Erving's hall last night, to discuss the material to be used in paving Sherman avenue from Nichols to Locust street.

Burlington Route Dining Cars.

Beginning Sunday, October 7, a palace buffet sleeping car service will be inaugurated between Chicago and New York City via the Nickel Plate road and Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Ex-Governor James E. Boyd is ill. Ex-Senator Parlock is at the Dellone. M. R. Parsons of Salt Lake is a Dellone guest.

NEBRASKANS AT THE HOTELS.

At the Paxton—Walter J. Lamb, Lincoln; F. C. Fisher, J. J. Bartlett, W. C. Tibbels, Kearney; Mrs. O. E. Green, Mrs. G. M. Saar, Genoa.

TREATMENT OF INDIVIDUAL CASES.

"No one knows better than she how to make just and equitable distinctions when the case is one of individual cases. But we are now speaking of saloons as a class, and as they have made themselves, not of exceptions, but the rule; of a condition, and a theory, the apostolic delegate affirmed a decree not communicating individual saloonkeepers, but regulating the relations of Catholic societies with those who are engaged in the liquor business, and this was done with full knowledge of the nature, condition, methods, practices and effects of the liquor traffic in this country.

AWARDED

Highest Honors—World's Fair. DR. CREAM DAIKING. The brilliant orator, Hon. Benj Butterworth of Ohio, will speak at Coliseum Friday evening, October 12, at 8 p. m., doors wide open. No tickets. Special invitation extended to all labor unions and K. of L. assemblies.

Nothing Second Rate

THE MORSE DRY GOODS CO. RYA MERCANTILE. EXACT SIZE PERFECT. THE MERCANTILE IS THE FAVORITE TEN CENT CIGAR. sale by all First Class Dealers. Manufactured by the F. R. RICE MERCANTILE CIGAR CO., Factory No. 304, St. Louis, Mo.

ing and defiant as to be unable to be controlled in any other way than the legal wiping out of the saloons.

Bishop Watterson concluded his address with an eloquent appeal for temperance and a eulogy of Father Matthew.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong in the system. No testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and cleansing the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Discussed Sherman Avenue Paving.

There was a meeting of citizens at Erving's hall last night, to discuss the material to be used in paving Sherman avenue from Nichols to Locust street.

Burlington Route Dining Cars.

Beginning Sunday, October 7, a palace buffet sleeping car service will be inaugurated between Chicago and New York City via the Nickel Plate road and Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Ex-Governor James E. Boyd is ill. Ex-Senator Parlock is at the Dellone. M. R. Parsons of Salt Lake is a Dellone guest.

NEBRASKANS AT THE HOTELS.

At the Paxton—Walter J. Lamb, Lincoln; F. C. Fisher, J. J. Bartlett, W. C. Tibbels, Kearney; Mrs. O. E. Green, Mrs. G. M. Saar, Genoa.

TREATMENT OF INDIVIDUAL CASES.

"No one knows better than she how to make just and equitable distinctions when the case is one of individual cases. But we are now speaking of saloons as a class, and as they have made themselves, not of exceptions, but the rule; of a condition, and a theory, the apostolic delegate affirmed a decree not communicating individual saloonkeepers, but regulating the relations of Catholic societies with those who are engaged in the liquor business, and this was done with full knowledge of the nature, condition, methods, practices and effects of the liquor traffic in this country.

AWARDED

Highest Honors—World's Fair. DR. CREAM DAIKING. The brilliant orator, Hon. Benj Butterworth of Ohio, will speak at Coliseum Friday evening, October 12, at 8 p. m., doors wide open. No tickets. Special invitation extended to all labor unions and K. of L. assemblies.

Nothing Second Rate

THE MORSE DRY GOODS CO. RYA MERCANTILE. EXACT SIZE PERFECT. THE MERCANTILE IS THE FAVORITE TEN CENT CIGAR. sale by all First Class Dealers. Manufactured by the F. R. RICE MERCANTILE CIGAR CO., Factory No. 304, St. Louis, Mo.

HAYDEN BROS.

Special Dress Goods Day at Haydens'. Thursday, October 11, will be the most remarkable dress goods day in the annals of the trade.

From the main entrance down the main stairs and into the mammoth dress goods department in the annex, will be found tables loaded down with the greatest values ever known. We have determined to bring this department to as high a plane as that occupied by any house in America.

Our buyers in dress goods were given unlimited powers, and they ransacked the markets of the world, and have brought to this department the choicest products of this country and the lands beyond the sea. Every item below is a special bargain. Do not miss this great dress goods day.

DRESS GOODS. 36-inch English cashmere, worth 29c, 19c. 46-inch English cashmere in brown, green, worth 45c, 25c. 36-inch all wool cord green, worth 48c, 25c. 36-inch fancy, worth 29c, 12 1/2c. 36-inch novelty wool mixtures, the 75c quality, 38c. 36-inch covert, worth 45c, for 22 1/2c. 42-inch covert, worth 70c, for 48c. 52-inch covert, the regular $1.50 quality, for 89c.

52-inch imported covert, worth $1.88, for $1.25. 52-inch all wool novelties, worth $1.75, 95c. 50-inch serpentine, the $2.25 quality, for $1.60. 52-inch all wool ladies' cloth, the 69c quality, 25c. 52-inch all wool broadcloth, the 98c quality, for 59c. 45-inch all wool henrietta, worth 58c, for 49c. 48-inch all wool henrietta, worth 58c, for 49c. 48-inch best grade of Navy goods in America, 69c. 40-inch all wool serge, worth 95c, special day, 45c. 38-inch plaid for children, worth 40c, for 20c. 50-inch serge, the $1.50 quality, for 75c. 40-inch English henrietta, worth 39c, 19c. 25-inch English henrietta, worth 39c, 19c. 2,000 yards of novelties in black goods, worth 75c, 85c, 95c, special day, 50c. 25 pieces of henrietta, extremely fine quality, worth 95c and $1.25, special day, 69c. 40-inch serge, extra quality, extra weight, now selling at 50c, special day, 35c. 45-inch all wool serge, selling freely at 59c, special day, 35c. 50-inch storm serge, worth $1.25, special day, 75c. 50-inch broadcloth, worth $1.25, special day, 69c. 50-inch broadcloth, the $1.35 quality, special day, 79c. 40-inch pure mohair, worth 45c, special day, 29c.

All our Priests novelties, goods selling from $1.39 to $2.50, go special sales day at $1.00 quality, for $1.00. 10 pieces 44-inch silk wrap henrietta, worth $1.50, special day, $1.00. Remnants of black at 33 1/2c of regular prices. As this remarkable sale begins at 8 a. m. Thursday and closes at 6 p. m. it is needless to say that first choice is always the best.

HAYDEN BROS.

Hayden Bros' $1.75 Shoe Sale. Tomorrow we put on sale some of the finest bargains ever offered in ladies' fine shoes, at $1.75 a pair. Sale begins at 8 a. m. Don't miss it! Ladies' make ladies' fine $2.50 and $4.00 shoes $1.75 tomorrow. Adams & Pettigill's make ladies' fine patent vamp $4.00 shoes $1.75. Kireland-Jones & Co's make ladies' fine $2.50 cloth top button shoes $1.75. Carroll Shoe company's make ladies' fine hand turned $3.00 button shoes $1.75.

HAYDEN BROS.

The Nickel Plate road now operates a through sleeping car service to New York City via West Shore road, and after October 7 a daily buffet sleeping car service will be inaugurated via Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad.

MEASURES REDUCED.

Measures reduced: $2.00 to $3.00 per day. Heaps, apples, peaches, pears, grapes, oranges, plums, Buffets's, 14th and Harney. DIED. Mrs. Annie, aged 73 years, of paralysis, Tuesday evening, October 9, 1894, at 2 p. m., from the residence of her son, A. S. Cook, 1031 1/2 Honey street, Inverness, Indianapolis, Ind.

BOY'S CLOTHES is the subject of this advertisement. We've always clothed thousands of the boy's cheaply. Our clothes are known for reliability, durability and attractiveness never rip, tear or fade. This year they're not better but considerably cheaper. Not much more than one half to what we used to get them for A DOLLAR DOLLAR-AND-HALF buys for you a good substantial school or every day suit. Not altogether all wool, but wool and linen warped, that'll outwear any all wool suit. DOLLAR-NINETY-TWO-AND-QUARTER - TWO-AND-HALF - TWO SEVENTY-FIVE buys at the Nebraska a suit of all wool cloth, that would cost from $4.00 to $5.00 any place, and likely not as good sewed, as well trimmed nor as large a pick. Finer and more artistic suits improve—here—not by dollars but quarters—every quarter you add better returns from your investment. TWO - THREE - SEVENTY-FIVE - FOUR-SEVENTY-FIVE FIVE-FIFTY - SIX-FIFTY buys a fine suit for your boy who wears a vest and long pants. By buying here you save one half—Finer the garment more you save. As to any one having finer cloths better made or fitting is all both, our wonderful success, was not earned while we were dreaming.

Nebraska Clothing Co. Catalogues are getting scarce hasten if you wish one. McKINLEY had 12,000 at His Meeting. But LOGAN has many thousands more who have heard about the wonderful results in the use of Logan's Sarsaparilla and Celery Compound. Logan Sarsaparilla and Celery Co., OMAHA, NEB. Was $7.00 Now $3.00. THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO., Opposite Paxton Hotel. LOOK FOR THE GOLD LION. Was $10.00 Now $6.00. THE IRON BANK. Shiverick's October Sale. NEBRASKA NATIONAL BANK. U. S. Depository, Omaha, Nebraska. CAPITAL, - - $400,000 SURPLUS, - - $55,500. Officers and Directors—Henry W. Yates, president; John R. Collins, vice-president; L. S. Reed, Cashier; William H. & Eugene L. Lee, assistant cashiers.