

SOCIETY INCREASES ITS PACE

Honor of a Chicago Leader.

PRETTY FUNCTIONS OF THE PAST WEEK

Coming Minstrel Entertainment for the Benefit of the Creche-Bon Ami Club Organizes for the Season-Luncheons and Afternoons During the Week.

Preparations for the social season that opens in New York before many weeks are now proceeding on a scale of magnificence absolutely Saracenic. The money that is to be spent in balls, dinners and dinner parties can be gauged pretty accurately in advance and conservative estimates places it well up in the millions. The season, according to the newspapers, is to be what has been termed a "brass band" one-all balls, champagne and suppers. This is because so many them at their home to enjoy their delightful Me. millionaires emerge from mourning this autump. Mrs. John Jacob Astor will give six elaborate balls; the various Vanderbilts are labor. down for dinners innumerable; the Webbs will not be quiet, by any means. The Whitneys are to entertain in honor of Miss Pauline; the Gerrys, the Goelets, the Schuylers, the McAllisters will be very conspicuous. Waldorf Astor is expected on a flying trip. But the peculiar part of the coming season the departure from conventional forms of entertainment. Weird dances, elaborate merriment will be the order of the day, rather the night. Mrs. Astor reputation leader of bizarre terpsichorear, mazes. She very fond of att ring herselt in bewildering costumes which give free play to the limb and arm, after the fashion of France, in which her early days were passed. To her is due the new way of varying a figure by having some society dame wheel into the room on a b cycle, rider and machine fantastically beflowered. In the coming weeks these diversions are to be carried to bewildering extremes. There will be Hungaran carnivals, flower races, ball room rose fights, Mul-ticolored lights have been ordered, Mrs. Lidstone, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. ticolored lights have been ordered, Mrs. and Mrs. Coons, Mr. and Mrs. Sturgess, Mr. Paran Stevens being an authority in these and Mrs. Hodder, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, latter artistic details. One moment the danc- Mr. and Mrs. Rhoades, Mr. and Mrs. Mufers will be under a stream of yellow rays. fley, Mr. and Mrs. Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. ers will be under a stream of yellow rays, the next all will be dark, and then a burst the next all will be dark, and then a burst Hull, Mr. and Mrs. King, Mr. and Mrs. of green, blue and crimson light will alter- Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. nately inundate the revelers. Revelry so Ogle, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. unrestrained New York has yet to see. Some statisticians delight to predict what all this and Mrs. Angell, Mr. and Mrs. Loud, Mr. and to cost. Seven millions is the figures of

The wedding of Miss Ipez May Haskell and William Edward Palmatier Wednesevening at 6 o'clock was one of distinct social events of the week. ceremony was beautiful in its simplicity. yet withat there was a plentiful display of flowers and plants throughout the rooms. while the bride was a lovely picture in a gown of satin duchesse, with dainty pearl tringenings. Miss Haskell, who is the daughter of foremost in giving her girl friends proper recognition on their marriage days, and the memory of her brightness and her gool humor acalled down upon her devoted head two or called the order of the evening, after which debut his home in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. H. M. Baldrige of Holidaysburg, One of the best songs on the entire list, in point of classic purity and melded talent for delicate expression.

One of the best songs on the entire list, in point of classic purity and melded talent for delicate expression.

One of the best songs on the entire list, in point of classic purity and melded talent for delicate expression.

One of the best songs on the entire list, in point of classic purity and adecided talent for delicate expression.

One of the best songs on the entire list, in point of classic p called down upon her devoted head two or avenue, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the three score friends when her husband and herself left over the Missouri Pacific for the south, enroute west on their honeymoon. It immediate supervision of the chef a numwas the joillest sort of a finale to a very frequently been entertained in the past by well presented performances of local amateur tronomic capacity, were deposed from office taient, but an innovation will hold the boards amidst great hiliarity, and Mr. R. C. Bauman at Book's the complex flowers and the complex flowers and the complex flowers and the complex flowers and the complex flowers are completely as the complex flowers and the complex flowers are completely co at Boyd's the coming Thursday night, when the Ethiopian Warblers will present an entirely new and, locally, entirely origina, entertainment. Forty young ladies prominent in Omaha social circles will assist in present been delightful musics by Mr. Bauman and been delightful musics by Mr. Bauman and been delightful musics by Mr. Williams a minerical property of the common of the ing a minstrel performance, and a glance at Mrs. Williams, fancy dancing by Mr. Wilthe program below will satisfy the amuse-liams, waltzing by the company, not forgetment lovers of the city that the entertain-ment will be an expected discovery of the company. ment will be an agreeable diversion from the method of physical culture, three of the usual line of attractions at Boyd's. The olio members being under instructions. A deusual line of attractions at Boyd's. The olio includes such recent minstrel successes as "Mamma's Little Alabama Coon" and "Rainbow in the Sky," while such songs as "The Sweetest Story Ever Teld" and "You Can't Play in My Yard" are newer, but already just as popular. There wil be a cake walk, a specialty dance and other features. The identity of all the young ladies is concealed behind burnt cork and they will be become in Ome of the daintiest teas ever given in Omaha was that given by Mrs. H. C. Cole in Omaha was that given by Mrs. H. C. Cole behind burnt cork and they will be known to the public only as Effle Hustler, Sallie Annie Waddler, Patti Whisky and other names equally unique. The chorus has been effectively drilled by Mrs. Cotton and Mrs. Wilhelm, while the stage management is in the hands of Miss Jenule McConnell, who the hands of Miss Jennie McConnell, who made such a pronounced success of the min Delightful music was furnished by Mrs. T.

Little Alabama Coon ... Effic Hustler Cherus ... Old Kentucky Home Standling on the Corner ... Miss Corbett Rainbow in the Sky ... Sailte Annie Waddler I Am Goin' Home to Die ... Rose Cogwheel De Order ob de Kolden Key ... Sallte Annie Waddler Lime Kiln Club ... Miss Sandow PART II.

The Musical Mastodons ... Males Song—You Cast

PART II.
The Musical Mastodons ... Melba and Calve Song—You Can't Play in My Yard.
Footprints in the Sand ... Clog Dance Cane Drill ... Omaha Guards Specialty Dance ... Eligh Low Sisters Speech ... Yelling Mary Lease Shine On ... Patti Whiskia Cake Waik ... By the Company Sisters Sponge, Soak and Wet; Dinch Yells, Miss Possum, Matilda Snowball, Melinda Caramel, Effie Hustier.

Mrs. S. A. Emerson Entertains. One of the most enjoyable events of the and artistic effects of the fine paintings remarkable record when one considers the which adorned the walls, wrought with the congonial countenance of the hostess, needed little to make the room beautiful, yet here and there were dainty ernaments and bricabrac, placed in a very attractive manner, showing a taste for art seldom surpassed, while the soft rays of light shot from the shaded lamps aided in making up a perty showing a taste for art selfom surpassed, lett and the second by Mr. while the soft rays of light shed from the shaded lamps aided in making up a pretty will be held at Mrs. Purvis'.

Morriment reigned from the assembling of the happy party until a late hour, social the happy party until a late hour, social conversation, mingled with games of cards and dominos, forming a very pleasant entertainment. Much interest was manifested in the various games, many taking part as contestants, while the remainder of the guests were distributed about the rosom as "massects" and "critics." Miss Amy Robinson responded in a very becoming manner to an impromptu program by reciting a choice selection, which reached her hearers in a touching manner and displayed marked ability in this line. A superb luncheon was served by the hostess, who left nothing undone that would tend to further the enjoyment of the guests, and not until a late hour did the gathering disperse, after expressing that the residence of Judge and Mrs. J. L. Bradley, 1917 Wirt street, Friday evening. The lady's prize was gwarded to Mrs. Van Court, Mr. A. C. Poweil receiving the booby. The members of the club present were: Mr. and Mrs. Van Court, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Dr. and Mrs. Park, Judge and Mrs. Powell, Dr. and Mrs. Bradley. The visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Gollins, Mr. and Mrs. Cuttis. Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Courtis Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Courtis Mr. and Mrs. Court, Mr. and Mrs. Court, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Dr. and Mrs. Bradley. The visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Courtis Mr. and did the gathering disperse, after expressing that an enjoyable evening, their thanks for an evening so pleasantly

Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn Maynard, Mr. Mrs. S. A. Emerson, Miss Linthian Mrs. S. A. Emerson, Miss Linthicum and Miss Edith Linthicum of Baltimore, Md., Miss Robinson, Miss M. W. DuVall, Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. McMillen, Captain Bailey, Mr. A. McMillen and Roland Robinson.

The Rifles Swell Dance.

Last Monday evening was the regular monthly full-dress inspection of the Thurston Riffes, after which the boys gave to their friends the first of their series of dancing From the north baleony hung aloft their beautiful specimen of 'old glory,' with the guidons and prize ribbons, while the pretty ontumes blended beautifully with the soldier over new dress uniforms, thus giving to the occasion the appearance of one of the prettiest military parties ever seen in After the "assembly" was sounded Rev.

Wright Butler, the company's chaplain, appeared in uniform, and in his usual pleasgratulated them upon their success as a rack military company.
Owing to the absence of Captain Scharff from the city, Lieutenants Foy and Hayward proceeded with the inspection, and during the ceremonies the orchestra rendered an appropriate selection, after which the com-pany gave a short exhibition drill, under the able leadership of Lieufenant Will Foy, much to the delight of the guests. Mrs. H. C. Cole Gives a Beautiful Tea in strains of the orchestra brought the company and friends together for the grand march, which was led by Sergeant Will Stockham and Miss Andreesen, a number of fancy figures being well executed. The march was followed by a program of eighteen numbers.

asting until midnight. About fifty of the young society people were present and enjoyed themselves im-mensely, while the members of the company present were: Chaplain Rev. S. Wright Builer Lieutenants Foy and Hayward Sergeants Stockham, Forby, Powler, Eastman and Fisher, Corporals Coleman, Thompsett, Yost. Nason, Bartlett, West, Larmer and McCollough, Buglers Hoffman and Eskildson vates Aminson, Frank Adair, Betty, Biddick, Buchanan, Coon, Robert Coverdale, Will Fisher, Forgan, Lipsie, Gillepsie, Melton, Bert Miner, Potter, Scramblin, Claud Stock-Stout Sheeler Bert Guin, Herbert lor, Walface Taylor, Short Radican, Vin-Wirt Thompson, Volkheart, Warren, Wearne, Hungate and White. Farewell Reception to Dr. D. K. Tindall. Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock nearly 200 friends of Dr. and Mrs. Tindall met with last, after a summer spent at Kennebunkport, company once more for a social evening and to bid them godspeed to their new field of labor. Dr. Tindall, the popular pastor of Seward Street church for the past two years. and his estimable wife and charming family have won a host of friends during their stay in Omaha. Dr. Tindall is a very able preacher, a fine singer, an excellent pastor, possessing a Christian character of the highest type, faithful in the performance of all his duties, loved and respected by all with whom he came in contact. He holds a place in the hearts of the people of Omaha that will be difficult to fill and will be kept warm by a loving remembrance of him. He has been promoted to be presiding elder of the Grand Island district North Nebraska conference, which, with his fine scholarly attainments, his strict religious principles, his commanding and ple address, he is eminently qualified to fill, and it is with feelings of the deepest regret his people at Seward street take leave of him. There were present Tuesday evening to pay their respects, the entire Epworth including a host of young people, Mr. and Mrs. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. James, Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Karr, Mr. and Mrs. Flamlin, Mr. and Mrs. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. McCune Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Hoxie, Mr. and Mrs. French. Mr. and Mrs. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. Wilder-man, Mesdames Beatty, Spyder, Cole, Platner, Rowley and Berry. The house was tastefully decorated with smilax, cut flowers and trailing vines. Singing, speeches, etc., was the order of the evening, after which de-immediate supervision of the chef a num-ber of those present indulged in a game of high five. The members sat down to the The patrons of the theater in Omaha have after the repast was finished the president made such a pronounced success of the minstrel entertainment given by the young ladies of Council Bluffs last spring. The program is as follows:

Opening Chorus

Dixie
Little Alabama Coon

Effic Hustler
Cherus

Old Kentucky Home

Delightful music was furnished by Mrs. 1.

J. Rogers, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Whitmore and Miss Wallace, and Mrs. McNab entertained the guests with a very pleasing recitation.

The guests were Mesdames Millard, Monell, Drake, Clark, Baker, Tatum, Barnard, Reynolds, Hanchett of Council Bluffs, Carson, Ringwalt, McNab, Whitmore, Rogers, Hamilton, Haller, Lininger, Metcalf, Cornish, Westphaling, Palmer, Doherty, Windsor, d'Aghion, Hawley, Davis, Clarkson, Hulbert, Marsh, Evans, Barker, Bruce, Crosby, Worthington, Her, Shiverick, Slisber, Akin, Estabrook, Clowry of Chicago, Cady; Misses Laing, Wailace, Lyman, Davenport, Kountze, Palmer, Cady, Woolworth, Hamilton, Kim-ball, Hulbert, Hawley, Drake, Her.

Bon Aml Club Revives. The first meeting this year of the Bon Aml club was held on last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Drake. in 1819. An unusually large attendance, every mem-One of the most enjoyable events of the past week was a delightful party given at the residence of Mr. S. A. Property given at have been made for memberships, but none the residence of Mrs. S. A. Emerson, Council have been made for memberen ps, but home Bluffs, in honor of the Misses Linthicum of bers is limited to forty, and for six years Baltimore, Md. There was no attempt made at any elaborate decorations, the simplicity without a single exception remained within the charmed circle. This is a most and artistic effects of the fine partitions.

tiigh Five in Kountze Place.

The "H T" High Five club of Kountze

Terpsichorean Club Dance. Among those present were: Mr. and Friday night the Terpsichorean club gave Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Dell J. Clark, its initial dance of the season at Erfling's hall, which proved a pleasant success. as the first of a series of dances to be given by this club this winter. Those present were several selections by Miss Lillian were: Misses Bowman, Southard, Wilcox, Pickering, Hobbs, Dunham, Latey, Cowles, Pickering, Hobbs, Dunham, Latey, Cowles, Miss Lawrence gave an informal afternoon the occasion of this, her were several selections by Miss Lillian first appearance before a Jacksonville audience, was certainly a great compliment to the musical abhitries of that lady. She possible, Hall, Nandain, Peak, Bassett, Van gid, King. Fowler Hamlin. Leeder. Buren, Skinner, Eastman and Wigman. and Mrs. Consaul of Denver, kins, Bowman, Barstow, Hamlin, Bolin, Halstead, Glacomini, McDonald, J. McDon-ald, Body, Potter, Berlin, Falconer, Collett, Angell, Schneider, B. Schneider, Peak, King, Witman, Readinger, Fowler, Ochiltree, Johnson, Koneck, Jones, Beeman, Kessler, Leeder, Howell, Kauffman, McGrath, Naudain, Squires and Lowe.

Surprised Their Priend. Thursday evening Miss Ella Kinkenon was remendously surprised by a number of her luncheon was served. friends coming in upon her unawares. But the young lady made the best of the surprise by inviting her old acquaintances into her home, where games and dancing were the surprise by inviting her old acquaintances into her home, where games and dancing were the surprise by inviting her old acquaintances into her home, where games and dancing were the surprise of the surprise by inviting her old acquaintances into her home, where games and dancing were the surprise of the surpr

Ella McVea, Lottie Frazier; Messrs. B. Gar-rett, H. Pholson, W. Grady, George Harris, Mr. Rinkenberger, Mr. Kunkel, J. E. Mc-Dill, M. S. Walklin, H. Dunn, Theodore Farnsley, Mr. Pancake, Mr. Guthrie, Mr. Kruegar

Doings of Society. Mrs. I. Hale is visiting at Fort Madison, Ia. Miss Poppleton returned from the east on Monday. Mrs. Charles G. Sprague is visiting in Stan-

Mrs. Colpetzir and Mrs. Du Bois left for he east last week. Yesterday the Misses Alexander enter-tained at high five. Mr. Brogan has been in Kansas for several days the past week. Mrs. Richard Carrier returned from her eastern visit this week. Miss Belle Dewey returned from the east n Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Charles Read of Salt Lake City is vis ting friends at the Paxton. Mrs. Oscar Baring has returned from pleasant visit with friends in Chicago. Miss Kountze returned home on Monday

Senator and Mrs. Manderson are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. H. Patrick at Happy Hollow

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bomgardner of Kan-sas City are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Nichols Mrs. Snyder of Leavenworth is the gues of the Misses Hungerford of 518 South Twenty-second street. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pinto left yesterday for a short visit with friends in Denver and Colorado Springs.

Webster returned from New York on Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Thomas Lonergan of Chicago is visit daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Spearman. at 2215 Wirt street. Miss Mary France returned Friday last, after a four months' visit to her home in Manchester, England. Mr. E. T. Ryan of Chicago is in the city.

risiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Coffey, at 2566 Marcy street. Mr. H. D. Estabrook, who has been California for some time on important busi-ness, arrived home yesterday.

Captain John F. Guilfoyle, Ninth cavalry, has left for his post at Fort Robinson, after spending a few days in Omaha. Miss Mabel Peck of Plattsburg, N. Y., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. S. Raynard, 114 South Thirty-sighth avenue. Mrs. E. F. Hooker and Miss Lizzie Hooke returned from a visit to Des Moines and the lakes and are at the Payton Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Degen will be at home to their friends at 2719 Jackson street Wednesdays and Saturdays in October. Mrs. N. H. Tunnicliff has returned from he coast, and, with her husband, has taken coms at 202 North Eighteenth street Mr. A. G. C. Quay returned to Ohnba on Thursday, after a two month's sojourn h: Europe and at his home in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Nicodemus, Mrs. W. D. Thomas and Miss Lizzie Thomas of Fremont, Neb., have been spending the week with Mrs. J. J. Colonel and Mrs. Clowry and Mrs.

Bigelow of Chicago, arrived in Omaha Friday morning, and are the guests of Mrs. H. D. Miss Bardick, who has been the guest of Miss Ruth and Miss Tukey during her stay in Omaha, returned to her home in Davenport Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Robbins returned from their wedding journey on Tuesday last, and will be at home after November 1 at 3002 Mason street. Miss Linthicum and Miss Edith Linthiavenue, Council Bluffs.

A week from Monday night a short play. "Haif a Million," will be given in the Y. M. A song that made an unusually good C. A. rooms, by Mrs. Wheeler, Miss McKell pression was Chadwick's "Good Night," and Mr. Herbert Cook.

Mr. Reyndlers returned to Pennsylvania on l'uesday, having come west to attend the quality. Royndiers-Charlton wedding. Mr. Clement Chase has issued cards for a stag party at his residence next Wednesday evening. It will have a literary and musical flavor, being "An Evening with Trilby."

Dr. J. C. Seymour left for Philadelphia Wednesday, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. L. R. Seymour, Dr. Seymour will attend the University of Pennsylvania this Mr. W. J. Broatch returned from Chicago on Thursday, having been detained there owing to the illness of his wife month. Mr. J. A. Thompson of Toledo, Ia., is visiting his son, Charles D. Thompson, and family of 2112 Douglas street. Mr. Thompson is one of the pioneers of Iowa, having been born

Broatch expects to return home next

Mr. Isaac Battin of the Omaha Gas Manuber of the club being present, showed that the interest in high five had by no means diminished during the summer months. Since

Mrs. A. S. Ackerman and son, George, and Mrs. W. Salisbury and children, arrived in Omaha Monday morning, after a summer with friends and relatives in Madison county, The Misses Hamilton gave a beautiful pink

Miss Drake, Miss Cady, Miss Chase, Miss Hartman, Miss Barker, Miss Tilton and Miss Kinzle of Fort Omaha.

prettily decorated, and during the afternoon

Ponder.

Miss Lawrence gave an informal afternoon the musical abilities of that lady. She post-thursday, for her cousin Miss Della Jones, sesses a mezzo-soprano voice of splendid Van Thursday, for her cousin Miss Delia Jones, sesses a mezzo-soprano voice of splends wher, who expects to winter in Washington. The strength and range, and evinces rare cultur guests spent a liblightful afternoon, being entertained by music, recitations, etc. masters, and withat she is a lady of pleasing Miss Gertrude Deming of Michigan City presence and of thorough culture in all de partments of music and foreign language and literatures. She has made a most happy ind., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George S. Gould at Bellwood, Neb., accompanied them to Omaha, Friday. They are the impression among her pupils, and all seem satisfied that she can give them the best guests of Colonel and Mrs. George Armstrong until Monday, 931 that could be found in any of the large Mr. and Mrs. Auton Provost were the recipients of a parx pleasant surprise party given them at their home, 1142 South Twenty-seventh street, Tuesday evening, by a few of their many friends. Dancing and games were enjoyed until 11:30, when a dainty

McVea, Lizzle Brown, Ada Twiss, Maggie Brown, Nellie McDonald, Emma Ekstrom, Mamie Vodicka, Ella Rinkenberger, Miss Robins, Carrie Vodericka, Helen Wachter, Anna Beacher, Lucy Baker, Gertie Gibson, Ella McVea, Lottie Frazier; Messrs, E. Garrett, H. Phologo, W. Phologo, W. Carrie Vodericka, Helen Wachter, Carrie Vodericka, Helen The table was exquisitely laid, with a rose bowl in the center and individual doll es instead of a cloth. Mrs. Richards is a very

> braska. To meet Mrs. Richards there were present: Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Garneau, M ss Jackson, Miss Jessie Millard, Miss But-terfield, Mrs. Chambers and Miss Matthews. Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock a very oretty home wedding occurred at the resi-tence of Captain J. W. Her on South Twentyfourth street. The marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. T. J. Mackay, thereby joining together in wedlock Miss Imogene Her and Mr. W. E. Coombe The bride was attired in a traveling costume Immediately after the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being pres-warm friend of the Clarksons and the Joseph H. Millards, having relatives living in Ne-

Friday evening a few of the friends of Miss Ella F. Marshall of Dayton, O., were entertained by Mrs. Samuel Rees at her home, 720 South Twenty-second street. The will be held every Thursday evening, and no new members will be accepted after Octonic Marshall and Mar dining room were nasturtlums and bittersweet. Covers were laid for fourteen, and those present had a most enjoyable time. Miss Marshall will leave Omaha this afternoon for St. Louis, where she will visit her sister a short time, before returning to Day

La Roza Social club gave its first enterfriends await her return with great pleasure La Roza Social club gave its first enter-tainment of the season Friday evening of last week, which was successful in every particular. The fore part of the evening was devoted to high five, later Mr. Rutelege and anticipation. and Mr. Ellington served a delicious supper which was prepared by Balduff. At 11 o'clock a small program of dancing was in-dulged in while Mr. Vanderfort gave a numper of selections on the banjo. A number of Mrs. John L. Webster and Miss Flora young ladies have already begun planning to entertain the La Rosa Social club this winter.

The Baltimore Sun announces the wedding bers are on the program: Chorus, "Send Out Thy Light," Gounod; quartet, "Softly Fades the Twilight Ray," Calkin; solo, "Thou at Baltimore on September 12 of Miss Annie P. Core, who has been organist at Faith Presbyterian church, and also teacher in the public schools of Baltimore, and Mr. Ernest Bross, associate editor of the Portland Oreorgan, melody in F sharp, Guilmant; Leibes-bid, Henselt; offertoire in D flat, Salome, gonian. The ceremony was performed at Faith Presbyterian church, Broadway and Biddle street, by the pastor, Rev. John P. Campbell. Mr. Bross was at one time con-nected with the Omaha newspapers, and is well and favorably known throughout this state and the west. urged to attend. Thomas Anderson, secre-

IN LOCAL MUSICAL CIRCLES.

The recital given by the pupils of Mr. Thomas J. Kelly at the First Methodist church last Tuesday evening brought out several new voices that are likely to take an important part in future musicale events. The program showed'thirteen vocal numbers, each one of which had been carefully selected to suit the individual range and ca-

Miss Lizzie Swartz, who sang one of Jensen's pretty ballads, "Beside the Window Sittest Thou, Marie," displayed a soprano voice of charming quality in the middle tones Rev. Dr. Beans, will preach in the morning soloists, but it is doubtful if it was ever sung better than on this occasion. Miss Van Kuran's soprano is as sweet as a vesper bell, and although she makes as a vesper bell, and although she makes use of a quasi-tremulo that amounts almost to a manner-ism, her perfect enunciation and smooth facility of execution are such as to disarm criticism of the minor defect. In the second part of the program Miss VanKuran was again heard to good advantage in a triple.

Mrs. J. R. Hunter and sons, Richard and Harold, have returned to the city, after a delightful summer spent in northern New York.

In solo work, Mr. Derrick's basso is distinguished for an exquisite me liftuousness that is sustained in all the registers.

"With Verdure Clad," the well known aria from the "Creation," has been rendered time and again by some of Omaha's leading day to attend the Bankers' association meeting, held in that city. He will be back this week.

Trinity Methodist—Rev. I D.D., will preach his inaugh large at 10-230 a. m. and 7-30 ing subject is: "Unfuring The evening subject is: patches."

Kountze Memorial Luther again heard to good advantage in a triple number—"A Summer Woolng," "Two Brown Eyes," and "When I Wander," by Lynes, rieg and Alden respective y.

Miss Cathryn Cortelyou has a clear limpid soprano voice that shows a special aptitude for interpreting the sentimental tenderness just such a composition as the one sung her—"Forget-Me-Not," by Bereny.

In Lohr's boat song, "Out on the Deep," Cyril Bruce Smith made a decided hit, winning several rounds of applause. Having a virile bass voice that is superbly sonorou cum of Baltimore, Md., are visiting their Mr. Smith possesses the added advantage of a sister, Mrs. Merwin Maynard, 2102 Sixth broad and dignified style and a splendid stage presence. He also sang with equally good effect "A Summer Night," by Goring-Thomas, A song that made an unusually good im-

Situation of the Temperance Reform." Ser-mon on "The House Desolate." Morning Miss Juliet McCune. Her deep, true contralto Mr. and Mrs. Procher, Miss Gemmill and is used with a lightness and freedom of exe-fr. Reyndlers returned to Pennsylvania on cution rarely found in a voice of so low a Miss Mai Robinson sang "Enduring Love,"

Miss Mai Robinson sang Eduaring by Bereny. Miss Robinson's unaffected grace of style heightens the effect of a soprano voice that is neculiarly sweet, pure and flexible.

pastor, will hold services on Sunday included and have the Sunday school at 2904 North Twenty-fourth street, during the time the building is closed for repairs and decthe Lindens Bloom," was rendered by Mr. Jonathan Mellen, who has a robust tenor voice that excels in passages requiring force and color. The florid style of his selection, the church is closed. which was sung with an artistle perception of its sentiment, somewhat relieved the som-berness imparted by the more serious pieces. During the evening the Harmony Ladies martet-Misses Van Kuran, Robinson, Haverly and McCune—sang "The Blue Bells of Scotland," a madrigal of a certain homely sweetness of melody, and Mr. Kelly, Mr. Smith and Miss Van Kuran gave the trio from "Israel." The program was further augmented by two instrumental numbers— Chopin's "Impremptu," by Miss Alma Ringer,

Miss Julia Taliaferro, who recently left Omaha to take charge of the musical department of the Illinois Conservatory Music at Jacksonville, made a very good im-pression on the occasion of her first public appearance in that city, as evinced by the following clipping from the Daily Illinois Courier: "Miss Tallaferro appeared three times on the program, her first number being Cavatina—"Se Romeo t'uccise un fig-The industrial school of the Tenth street mission began yesterday. Teachers are much needed, and any who are desirous of doing a little charity work can find no better opportunity than this offers.

Deing Cavatina—"Se Romeo t'uccise un figlio, La tremenda," a difficult composition by Bellini. In her second number she sang three brief songs, the first two being respectively by Denza and Grieg, and of the more classical type. The last of the street control of a little charity work can find no better oppor-tunity than this offers.

On Tuesday last Miss Clyde Blanchard entertained a number of her friends at lunch-con for Misses Mai Lawrence and Delia Jones.

more classical type. The last of the three was entitled "My Laddie," and was a pretty little ballad by Neidlinger. So pleased were her many listeners that they would not be satisfied till she had responded to an encore, who are about to leave for the east to spend singing a beautiful little aria by Donizetti. the winter. The house and table were very Her final number on the program was

Highest of all in Leavening Power.- Latest U.S. Gov't Report

SHOULD PREACHERS ASK IT? evening sermon, "A Legal View of Redemption; How Stuners Are Acquitted at the Bar of God.".

Rev. J. A. Henderson of the Park Avenue "Grande Valse," by Venzano. Miss Tali-

Mrs. J. W. Cotton desires The Bee to servatory would require. Her time is al-of the fact that there was no foundation to

Mrs. J. S. White, one of Omaha's sweet

Vesper Services.

O Lord, Art My Protector," Saint Saens;

Ministerial Union

The Ministerial union will meet tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. at the Kountze Memorial

BRIEF PULPIT FORECASTS.

Baptism of Jesus and the Reason for It.

sponsibility."

7:45 p. m.

Church.

Universalist-Sermon this morning on "The

Beth Eden Baptist-Pastor will preach in Grace Evangelical Lutheran-The pastor.

Trinity Methodist-Rev. F. H. Sanderson.

D.D., will preach his inaugural sermons today at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The morning subject is: "Unfurling Our Banners."
The evening subject is: "Celestial Dis-

Kountze Memorial Lutheran-Services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for the morning sermon by the pastor: "Hid in Christ." In the evening a charming vesper service and sermon. Sunday school at noon. Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor

First Church of Christ (Scientist)-Ancient

Order of United Workmen hall, Patterson building, Mrs. A. F. DeLong, pastor. Preaching at 10:45 a. m., Sunday school immediately

First Methodist-Frank Crane, pastor.

the evening at 7:30 prelude on "The Present ing at 9:45 a. m. Epworth league, 6:30 p. m.

orating. The place of meeting is three doors south of the present church building. There

A-Dollar-ar d-a-Half

Will Buy a Wife---

Rev. Luther M. Kuhns, will preach at 11 a.

m. on "Our Reedeemer's Scepter of Grace.

and on "Christ's Teaching on Rectitude"

Evening topic, "The Ideal

La Grange, Mrs. White's many largely taken up, se

Dr. Chapin Believes Wives Should Not Be Required to Promise Obedience. in her rendition of the munic of the great

ANTIQUE WORD IN MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Opening Night with the Young Men's Chris sian Association-Pastor Fisher's First Work-A "Geographical Social"-Among the Local Churches.

state that she does not contemplate asso-ciating herself with the Omaha School of Music. Talking of the matter Mrs. Cotton said Mr. Jones had been anxious for her to take charge of the vocal department of the The British Weekly, London, in a recent issue, propounded the query, "Should wives promise obedience?" and solicited replies, conservatory, but she told him from the very first that she did not desire to connect Among those responding Dr. Augusta J. herself with any school, much preferring private pupils to class work which a con-Chapin of the First Universalist church, this city, wrote as follows:

"A word from a woman minister on this side of the Atlantic may contribute to the into full connection at the First Methodist for her to undertake any outside work if she desired to do so. She regrets solution of what still appears to many a the report was made so universal in view perplexing problem. "Woman in our day has come into pos session of her inheritance as a human soul. Mr. Knabe, the manufacturer of the planes All doors of culture and opportunity are open bearing that name, was in the city last week, the guest of Mr. Adolph Meyer. This was to her, and entering, she has come unto the guest of Mr. Adolph Meyer. This was Mr. Knabe's second visit to Omaha, but he Mr. Knabe's second visit to Omaha, but he This was her own. She is no longer a child; still Mr. Knabe's second visit to Omaha, but he less is she a chattel or a servant. She is expects to make a trip here at least twice a now an intelligent, responsible human being year in the future. Thursday afternoon Mr a conscious child of God. The word obey to the marriage ceremony of some of Knabe visited the Omaha Conservatory of the churches is a mere survival from former condition of society. In our age Hans Albert and Harr Joseph Gahm will be is an anachronism. It is not too much to say that to right-minded men and women the soloists at the concert of the Liederkrauz and Saengerbund given at Germania hall Octhe word is without significance. Charles Petersen is the conducworthy the name can ask such a promise from his wife, and no woman who understands her duty to herself, to her husband The following ladies and gentlemen compose Dr. Baeten's violin class: Misses Darlene Coe, Emma Balbach, Genevieve Jeffreys, Mrs Rutter, Council Bluffs; Miss Lewellyn Allen, Messrs, Emil Rorbach, Charles McConnell, Mart Brown, Hubbard, and to heaven dares make it without reser-The mere word must bring a sense of humiliation alike to both. reason sufficient for striking it out forever Every syllable of the sacred marriage vow should mean something to those who take

When marriage is what it should be there is no question of authority or obedience on the part of either husband or wife. True love is law. It delights in giving gives without measure and never willingly asks of the beloved one what would be hard ingers, sailed from New York October 3 on or painful to grant. It is when the union is not what it should be, as often happens, the Noorland for Antwerp, enroute for Paris, where Mrs. White expects to remain a year that the intrinsic wrong of the old form under the instruction of such an artist as one party precisely what it does to the appears.

'Holding these views, it has been my in-Organist J. E. Butler has gone on a cycling variable practice in performing the marriage trip for a week, and during his absence Mr. W. T. Taber will occupy his place at Trinity man as from the woman. And this, I cathedral today, morning and evening. think, is the prevailing custom in the United States, except in the Romish church and in one or two of the more conservative protestant bodies. Even by the latter the The usual vesper service will be held at the First Congregational church at 4 o'clock the request of the contracting parties." this afternoon. The following musical num-

Y. M. C. A. Opening Night. Thursday night was opening night with the Young Men's Christian association. Persons who are familiar with the old association hall, with the stage on the west end, were surprised and pleased to note that everything had been made over in the interior

The stage is now on the north side of the hall and seats have been arranged in semicircular form facing the stage from all points is attracting great attention. The Paper by Rev. Dr. Murray, "How to Popularize Our Evening Services." All the pastors of the city and vicinity are than formerly, this feature in itself being a great improvement. There is a new ceiling of light pine with beams as girders, which, taken in wall paper, make the room one of the most our artistic as well as the best music halls in Omaha or in Nebraska. The orchestra under the direction of Mr. A. Pinder rendered choice selections through the evening under the auspices of the local wheelmen on "The Wheel." out the evening. The First Spiritualistic society of Omaha will hold meetings every Susday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Ancient Order of United Exercises in the gymnasium attracted much attention. The galleries, and any place from which a view could be obtained of the work being done in the "gym," were crowded from Workmen hall, upper floor of Patterson 8:36 to 9:30. Unitarian-Rev. Newton M. Mann, minis-

Mr. E. B. Cook is the physical director and the work of his classes showed the result of ter. Service at 10:45. Subject of sermon, much systematic drilling and training. Much "Forgiveness." Sunday school at noon. of this work might seem like play to an on-Shakespeare section of Unity club Friday looker, but to one who knows it is work, and evening. tone of health and strength which is the natural birthright of the body, but which is often lost from lack of proper training and instruction. There were no circus tricks perormed, just simply the daily working of the

The Mozart quartet's numbers were elected and admirably executed. The first number was encored three times.

Mrs. Sunderland's recital of "How the Church Was Bullt" showed a degree of talent and a depth of feeling which were appreciated by the audience, as evinced by generous ap-plause and a hearty encore, to which she responded by reciting "Nine Young Men. Lovers of the trombone were given a treat by Mr. Aryten, who was formerly solo trombonist of the Elgin Cornet band, Young People's Club.

By the efforts of Rev. Mr. Fisher, the new pastor, a young people's club with a membership of thirty has been organized at the Plymouth Congregational church in Kountze lace. The organization was perfected last Tuesday night and hereafter regular meetings will be held in the church parlors each following. Public cordially invited. Reading alternate Tuesday evening. At the meetings rooms, in same building, open during the of the club there will be a literary program rendered each evening, the features being readings from standard authors, debates and week from 10 a. m. to 5. p. m., to which all the discussion of live subjects. In addition to the regular meetings of the club twice each month the members and their friends will be entertained at the home of some young service at 10:30, with a sermon on "The lady member. Having placed this organiza-Opening of the School Year." Full chorus choir. Sunday school at 12 m. Class meet-his attention to forming a men's club, the objects and purposes of which will soon be United Presbyterian Notes. Dr. Russell, who is holding the Evangelistic services at the Central United Presbyterian church, will give two interesting discourses today. Subject of the morning ser-mon, "God's Demands Upon His Own Peowill be ne evening services during the time mon, ple; the Penalty of Shirking." Subject of a sister, or a mother a hundred visiting cards, with her name neatly engraved-or

-show her our most complete line of fine stationery for weddings, parties, etc.

neatly engraved to your order.

MRS. R. H. DAVIES,

Popular Millinery.

ask $7.50 for, and BRAG that they rob the people, we sell for $1.25-the very same thing. So they say themselves. We can beat them all to pieces on style and qua'ity

1520 DOUGLAS STREET,

The largest assortment in the city, best quality and ex clusive styles. Reasonable prices. Hats that other Milliners

DAVIES, 1520 Douglas-st.

RAYMOND, Jeweler and Art Stationer,

15th and Douglas.

Cor. 16th and Farnam Sts., OMAHA

United Presbyterian church is quite ill with nervous prostration. His pulpit will be occupied this merning by Ur. Williamson of the Central church, there being no evening

Items of Methodist News.

The Chautauqua college will hold its first ession at the First Methodist church Thursday evening. November 1, continuing thereafter every Thursday evening for twenty weeks. The membership roll is rapidly increasing. It includes those from all walks in life, all religious denominations and many an annual reunion today, to which all of the old scholars and parents and others inter-

Today the pastor of the First Methodist church begins a series of Sunday evening preludes on corrent events, the first being on "The Present Situation of the Temper-

A number of probationers will be received church this morning.

Major Halford will today resume charge of his bible class at the First Methodist church.

LATEST STYLES-LOWEST PRICES

COMMIT THIS TO MEMORY -

The First Methodist Sunday school holds of no religious faith.

ested, are invited.

ance Reform.

AN INVITATION

Is extended to every resident of Omaha South Omah, Council Bluffs and the surrounding towns in Iowa and Nebraska to visit our store and see the many varieties of new style garments in this day of extravagantly worded advertisements, to try to convey a correct idea of what we have in the way of bargains or convince you that our styles are newer than those shown elsewhere. We think there will be no ceremony to require the same promise from trouble in proving it, however, if you will visit other establishments, and then come to us. In some instances they may have the same material, but you'll notice at once that there's a difference. Ours will have a newer style collar-the lapel will be cut in newer shape-the sleeves newer or a newer style back-and at no higher cost to you. It's all in the cut and finish of the garment, after all, and the cost of manufacturing is no more for the new than for the old style. Our

It's Useless,

Advance Sale of Furs

and are from two to four inches further apart above statements hold good in this line also. Every variety of fur made up into latest style garments and selling at lower prices than can be named connection with the harmonizing tints of the next month. Many ladies are buying

Fine Tailored Suits.

Are you one of the fortunate ones? If not, better come and look now or you'll regret it later on when you see them worn.

Fine sealskin garments a specialty

CLOAKS, SUITS, FURS. Cor. 16th and Farnam Sts., OMAHA PAXTON BLOCK.

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYD'S THEATER. FRIDAY and SATURDAY. OCT. 19-20 MATINEE SATURDAY.

Rose Coghlan

HER OWN COMPANY OF PLAYERS. - Including -

Frederic de Helleville, John F. Sullivan, Cecil M. York, J. W. Shannon, Miss Maxine Elliott. Miss Hattie Russell, And Others.

FRIDAY EVENING. . Sardon's Masterpiece, DIPLOMACY SATURDAY MATINEE, OSCAR WILDE'S

A WOMAN of No IMPORTANCE By Request. FORGET ME NOT

Special Superb Scenery Settings. PRICES-$1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c Sale of Seats and Boxes opens

Free list suspended. BOYD'S ALL ISJOY-EVEN THE Thursday.

SUNDAY, MONDAY AND Oct. 14, 15, 16

Gus Heege's Idyllic Farce Comedy, RUSH CITY

"A GLIMPSE OF PERFECT JOY."

Laughter provoked by Mathews & Bulger, Jos. Coyne, John Gilroy, M. J. Gallagher, Frank O'Brien, Addiade Randall, Merri Osbourne, Gussie Hart, Clain Sisters.

Presented with a wealth of elaborate scenic, mechanical and cyclonic effects.

Under direction of

THOS. H. DAVIS and WM. T. KEOGH.

Sale opens Sattralay morning at usual price. Sale opens Saturday morning at usual price. 550 SEATS AT 50 CENTS EACH.

ISTH ST. THEATRE POPULAR. 25, 35 AND 50 CENTS.

Telephone 1531. 4 Nights, Commening Sunday Matiner, Oct. 14

A CRACKER JACK.

FINE COLLECTION OF Oil and Water Color Paintings

And Other Works of Art.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING Open daily (except Sunday) 9 a.m. to 10 p.m Open Sunday from 12 m. to 6 p. m. Admission 25 cents.

Morand's Assemblies Fridays, at 8 p. m. Orchestra Music, New Dances taught. Season Ticket to May 1st. $10.00. Lessons for Adults, Tuesday and Thursday; Children. Saturday, 10 a. m. or 2 p. m.