The assessment roll must cle to one of the leading newspapers in be completed on or before the third Tuesday Toklo, in which, I hope, its translation may in December, and immediately thereafter the city council shall sit as a board of equaliza-tion for not less than five nor more than ten The city council shall pass the gen-vy ordinance at the second regular days eral levy meeting in February.

The committee recommended a maximum levy of 48 mills, and this section of the report was referred back to be still further re-duced. The tax list must be completed by the commissioner and turned over to the city treasurer on or before the 1st day of May

The provisions relative to the sale of prop erty for delinquent taxes are similar to those now in force and which were recently decided by the supreme court to be good law. The report of the subcommittee on paying was presented by City Engineer Rosewater and was in substance similar to the plan which was detailed in The Bee some tim ago. This provides that the mayor and coun cll shall have power to order the paying or repaying of any street or alley, the ordinance to become a law at the end of thirty days from the date of its passage unless within that time there shall be filed a protest from a majority of property owners on the streat, the selection of material to be left to the

We've served the people with Overcoats for the past ten years-served you in an honest, honorable and straightforward way. Furnished you with the best and with a good many dollacs of saving. We were never known to trick, gull or mislead This year we'll serve you with a better Overcoat for considerable less money than we ever dared hoping for. Where, in former years, we saved a dollar for you, we will triple it this year. Six Dollars and Seventy-five Cents is all you pay this year for single or double breasted black Kersey, all wool, Italian Lined Overcoat, for which you paid $10.00 last year right here, and not less than $15.90 clsewhere.

Ten Doliars and a Half for a handsome, long cut, dress Overcoat, fancy wool lined and richly trimmed-excellent Kersey in black-is another proof. $15,00 was the price last year and $20.00 invested elsewhere bought no better garment. And so on-one by one they fell into our money grip-from the ordinary $6.50 Ulster, which will sell at Four Dollars, up to the extreme tailor-made garment, which we exhibit in abundance-long, half and full box-extreme long full box-and the body-fitting, swoll "Paddock."

Considerable discussion followed on this point, and a motion to adopt the amend-ment as recommended by Mr. Rosewater prevailed. An additional smendment prowided that the bonds should be issued pay-able in six, seven, eight, nine and ten years able in six, seven, eight, nine and ten years respectively, instead of making them payable each year, as at present, and that they should draw 5 per cent interest, instead of 6. This was adopted without discussion. Mr. Burkley, as chairman of the com-mittee appointed to consider measures for removing the Board of Health from politics.

reported an amendment which provided that the board should be reduced from six members to three. This contemplated the retirement of the plumbing inspector and two councilmanic members, leaving the mayor, chief of police and health commissioner to constitute the board. This was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Dumont introduced a resolution pro-viding that a committee of three be ap-pointed to consider the feasibility of re-ducing and consolidating the various de-partments of the city government. It was carried, together with an amondment that Mr. Howeil be made chairman of the com-mittee. Mr. Dumont and Mr. Table Com-Mr. Howen be made chairman of the com-mittee.
