

MASTERS OF THE BRUSH

Society Enjoys an Evening with Burnt Cork ground a decorative subject Artists at Boyd's.

"TRILBY ' SITS FOR THE "ALL TOGETHER"

 as commendable work by local think devices the state of t people. It is not often that the west can done by Sendri. The doge's palace, the grim secure so large a number of valuable pictures old prison the green roofed campanile, all secure so large a number of valuable pictures of prison the green rooted campanile, all for exhibition purposes and it now remains with those interested in art to bestow their appreciative support on a most worthy enter-prise. Gabam contributes a landscape of marshy ground, a winding stream and clomp of

The excellent quality of the examples shown Trees which shows a fascinating bit of nature. The excellent quality of the examples shown by local students whose names are yet to be made in art, the enthusiastic sympathy and connection of pupils under the personal "Dolce far Niente" represents two haughing made in art, the influentiatic sympathy and to be superior to most men of his school, co-operation of pupils under the personal "Bolce far Niente" represents two laughing direction of Mr. Laurie Wallace, the gradual and substantial character of improvement made by them are shown in the present unqualified success of the Western Art asso-Both belong to the Cellins collection, which One sees here little attempt at also includes several pieces of historic furnidramatic effect, few faulty manuerisms of intelligent interpretation of the brush, an intelligent interpretation of intique chairs which stand at either side of the principles of drawing and color, and if intique chairs which stand at either side of inspiration is not actually to be met with the main entrance to the art gallery. Their inspiration is not actually to be met with one may content himself with some genuine glimpses of imagination. There is little of once proclaim them quite out of the ordi-that extreme mediocrity of execution or mary, as indeed they are, for they were pur-sensational experiments which disenchant, if chased by their present of the presensitional experiments which discretant, it not repell, one at the first glance, from the student who has yet to learn that all shadows are not purple nor all skies torquoi e blue. It is refreshing to look upon simple lardscapes—a bit of sunny nature as on sees it on a summer morning in a ramble the bad been carved by the original founders.

ture

Visitors will have noticed the picturesque quaint form and tall gildled backs will at chased by their present owners from the Capuchin monks at the monastery of Monte-these are the modest subjects chosen by the conscientions student as we are permitted to study him here-and the honest, if not over critical, eye or pen could not wish to find any words but those of praise for so satisfying a result.

To the right of the hall, with its rich hangings of Gobelin and Aubusson tapestries. stchings and Keramics. Here one finds himnded with a would of nictures.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1894.

Fred Parker exhibits several water fraternal and beneficial organizations in the Miss Maud Montgomery, reader, of Stella, of the Italian school, smong them the country. The parts on the program were rendered a fine selection. After the procolors of the Italian school, smong them the "Fortune Teller" by Giovanni Filosa A of the Italian school, smong them the country. The parts on the program were rendered a fine selection. After the pro-Livesey, Miss Collett, Mr. H. C. Miller, Mr. of animated Neapolitas women all who did themselves much credit and the guests enjoyed a beuntiful supper. party of animates Neapolitas women all young and preity, are delebrating a fastival is a woody neek, when a wandering band of ing of the hand begins. The smilling faces of the growth of the idea of fraternal of the women and their look of eager expect-traced the growth of the idea of fraternal on the development. The ad-DATTY ancy are well represented from a truly Nea-pulitan bit of life that is exhiliarating. "Old Nuremburg Houses," showing the co-operation in its development. The ad-dress was full of logic, pathos, wit and persuasion and was well received. The sharp pointed red roofs and overhanging bal-conies bright with blooming plants and trailspeech was followed by refreshments, served in the annies. ing vines, the houses clinging to the edge of the water, recalls to mind that, interesting old German town with its qualit wood carying and its gabled towers, the home of Al ert Durer. The pleture is by George E. "ring, "liose architectural subjects are well handled, his "Are of Drussa" and "Temple of Neptune" at Paestum being especially at-

This is one of the three Greek temples which stand on low, marthy ground, descried by every living thing but the wild birds that come and build their nexts under its erembling curnices. Low and insidious maturia poisons the air and compels these more to stand along in solitude. Mrs. Clement Chase cohibits three pieces from her own brush which show her at her bit of color, a bunch of large white poppies. It was a literary and more stand more the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will show. The following the show the poppies of the night will the show the poppies of best. "California Peppics" is an exquisite best. "California Peppics" is an exquisite bit of color, a bunch of large white poppics with deep yellow hearts on a yellow back-ground a decorative subject painted in charming spirit and with a tenderness of charming spirit and with a tenderness of charming spirit and with a tenderness of entiment truly poetic. Her "Japanese Lanterns" is another piece which merits, recognition for its good drawing and artistic handling: "A Portrait" shows her in a dif-terent style, also pleasing and strong in many lines. modest manner upon croam white paper, ar-ranged in booklet form, and was as follows:

artists of international reputation, as well a number of Venetian pictures which tell their own story of the City by the Sea. They show the various sides of Venetian life, the they founded schools instead of following any.

An Evening with "Tritby."

Without going into a general discussion of the papers themselves, they were all exceed ingly clever, their tone was delightful, then criticism of the novel kindly and their praise of the novel very pronounced. Some new things were brought out in connection wit the story which were interesting budy. But while there was a decided lit erary tinge to the evening, the music was by no means an inconsequential factor, and helped to give the occasion light and color. The "Nussbaum" of Schumann was beauti-fully rendered by Mr. Dan Wheeler, who has

'Julius Caesar" was the play considered

La Rose Club Dance.

W. O. W. Supper.

ment and oyster supper Wednesday night

times and many of their cell like rooms. Two antique settles in the same collectory of people thirty years ago, was sung by Mr. Two antique settles in the same collectory of people thirty years ago, was sung by Mr. Two antique settles in the same collectory of people thirty years ago, was sung by Mr. Two antique settles in the same collectory of people thirty years ago, was sung by Mr. Two antique settles in the same collectory of people thirty years ago, was sung by Mr. Two antique settles in the same collectory of people thirty years ago, was sung by Mr. Two antique settles in the same collectory of people thirty years ago, was sung by Mr. The back is shown the coart of arms of the brack is shown the coart of arms of the brack lis shown the coart of the family, among the mathematic fill the control of the family, among the samellers. Mr. Abset closed the set program by Schubert, heard for the first time in Omaha, the was prichased from his private The second settle is also of enry Italian origin and is of walnut claborately carved al During as visit to one of the old busie of Italy, whose name, by request, is To review the One of the first to attract is the "Game of collection in the Borghese palace. Rome, Chess," by Simoni, whose "Tale of a Sinve" The second settle is also of enry Italian won the artist much favorable comment at origin and is of walnut chaborately carved soligs and stories, bright bits of sality, to cellent flashes of wit, in short, just such a night as the three jolly Englishmen used to have in their studio in Paris when Trib have in their studio. Thereive pleture, full of color, and well treated from an artistic standpoint. "Old Age Has Its Trials" shows an old monk in the garb of the Capuchin order was posing for the foot, the head "and the iltogether." any morning of a triumph which the gen-erous heart of Omaha made possible. But to tell some of the jokes which the end women indulged in would be to give them a larger audience than they had at Boyd's. Among the conundrums asked were: "Why is the blg diamond on Dr. Lee's chirt front like a ship at sea?" The interlocutor was at a loss to know so was the next of The guests were: Messrs, Louis Bradford Joseph Lehmer, J. R. Ringwalt, C. S. Chase R. W. Breckenridge, Robert Patrick, Charles Elgutter, J. E. Baum, F. C. Grable, Victor Rosewater, Martin Cahn, H. Muentefering, Arthur Acheson, Thomas R. Kimball, G. M. Hitchcock, D. H. Wheeler, Jr., Alvin Krech Henry D. Estabrook, Charles W. Martin was at a loss to know, so were the rest of the company. When the answer came it caused a stampede in the audience- 'Be-Dr. Despecher, George B. Eddy, Edgar C. Snyder, C. Will Hamilton, R. B. Peattle, L. G. Charlton, Thomas J. Kelly, W. M. Rogers, cause it is on the bosom of a heavy swell." But when the young woman told of her experiences as a poulterer and having named Frank L. Haller, Joseph Gahm, Hans Albert J. Laurie Wallace, Paul Charlton, Dr. Bas a rooster Robinson, because it Cruso (crew so), men collapsed and one man had to be taken out on account of memories which ens Unity Club Begins Work.

before last at Exposition hall, should have honor of their eleventh year of married life, appeared in last Sunday's Bee, but the manuand the turning of the 35th milestone by Mr. Granville. A handsome rocking chair script failed to turn up and therefore did not set into the paper. The correspondent, writing of the occasion, says: A very nota-ble gathering of ladies on "mercy bent" took Nothing could have been more interesting place in Dr. Ensor's Institute parlors Wednor charming in its informality than the evening with "Trilby." George Du Maurier's bronne of the studio of Paris, planned and heroine of the studio of Paris, planned and carried out with such ecist by Clement Chase, the editor of the Excelsior. It was such a novel idea and so thoroughly original that it interested the men greatly, and as there were to women "expected" the men looked forward interested the men greatly, and as there were no women "expected" the men looked forward to a real Bohemian night with Mr. Chase and the creations of George Du Maurier's being very beautiful and worthy of a notice League of America. Considering the inclem-ent weather, the attendance was large, the enthusiasm pronounced, which augur factory, as the receipts of the night will show. The following is a partial list of the indies composing the party: Mesdames D. J. Murphy, Dr. Shindel, J. G. Sullivan, A. H. well for the futurity of the club. Miller, E. Corey, R. Gilchrist, J. Flynn, M. D. Calkins, A. Gerharz, T. A. Black, W. B. Meyers, Dr. McCrano, C. Moore, C. E. Scarr, consin last Monday. Dr Ensor, D. Rafferty, B. F. Adams, F. Etter, O. Ihnen, A. W. Patterson, M. Rock, T of the Misses Gilmore. Rock, E. C. Anderson, A. W. Babcock, G. V. Dare, D. Anderson, B. H. Sanger, J. C. Ca roll, C. L. Talbot, L. Fenner, H. H. Ame ill, is recovering rapidly. C. Car J. J. Ryan, J. J. Wear, J. Ryan, C. M. Rich, J. J. Ryan, J. J. Wear, J. Ryan, C. M. Rich, F. H. Boyd, C. M. Kostors, E. C. Johnson, J. M. Tanner, C. Y. King, O. K. Paddork, M. Grandon, C. J. Heman, J. S. Gosney, N. A. Williams, P. S. Casey, R. H. Richard, C. C. Clifton, F. A. Cressey, E. L. Goodwin, A. L. Lott, F. N. Atherton, D. F. Shatar W. trip through the Black Hills. of her sister, Mrs. H. P. Whitmore, A. L. Cutton, F. A. Cressey, E. L. Goodwin, A. L. Lott, F. N. Atherton, D. F. Slater, W. Paterson, A. R. Bemke, J. Bolan, Thomas K. Hefferman, W. T. Whelan, M. J. Heafer, William Kelley, A. O'Nell, Misses M. Crinion, M. Guteheter, M. C. Stater, Stater, C. Stater, C. Stater, C. Stater, C. Stater, Stater, C. Stater, a visit with friends at Grand Island. Hefferman, W. T. will not return for several weeks on account M. Gilchrist, A. Riley, Anna Riley, M. Ward, J. Kyne, A. Crinion, M. Grandon, H. Halbert, of illness. J. Kylle, A. Crimon, M. Grandon, H. Balbert, M. Kirby, M. Jordan, A. Carey, C. Gosnoy, L. Gosney, Lu Erion, K. O'Neil, H. Dacey, K. Crinion, A. Carlos, I. Corey, M. Sullivan, M. Mugan, A. McDonald, M. Raymond. dence from 2519 Chicago street to 3004 Farnam street. turned on Tuesday from a six weeks' visit The committee desire heartly to thank Dr. T. H. Ensor, T. Thompson, K. Elliot, N. B. Falconer and the street railway comin New York. Mrs. J. Weiss of Topeka, Kan., is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. B. Gilmore, at 2019 Calipany for favors granted, all of which helped fornia street greatly to make the "Ladies Night" Miss Kiasam, who has been the guest of Miss Alexander, left Monday for her home in .Gounod grand success it was.

Floyd and Hornsby.

Newton, Conn. A very notable wedding took place on Wed-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swobe have taken nesday, October 17, at high noon, at the beautiful home of the bride's mother, Bunker Hill, Ill., being the union of Miss Martha boraey Hornsby and J. Warren Floyd of Hilespie. The Episcopalian ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Bailey Hill, rector of Gillespie. brist church, in the presence of a very dis-inguished company. The attendants were Misses Lida Dorsey, nicce of the bride, as maid of honor; Viola and Lottle Lee Floyd, sisters of the groom, Emma E. Steinberg of Louisville, Ky., Jennie Stookey of Bellaville, III., as bridesmaids; Messrs, Arthur G. Ellet will soon be able to be out. Mr. George Haynes and Mr. Charles Hun f Kansas City, Mo., George Thorpe of Sloux Sty, Ia., Henry T. Floyd of Omsha, Neb., trehibald Clement Wells of Kansas City, gate left last evening for the Pacific coast on a two weeks' tour of recreation. trehibald Miss Louie Drake left Wednesday for Buf Charles Cockrell of Lincoln, Neb., as ushers Mr. Ellet acting as best man. The flower falo and Franklin, Pa., where she will visit friends until the Christmas holidays. girls were Cordelia Stivers, niece of the bride, Edna and Jessie Butt of Kansas City, cousins thread lace. The bride wore a rich ivory satin gown en traine and veil, fastened with a diamond sword, the gift of the groom, col-lar and girdle of pearls. The maid of honor was dressed in buttercup taffeta, and the bridesmaids in white number have returned from set. Mr. W. S. Rector has leased the Woman's Relief corps will be given at Myrsummer at Mrs. Baum's home in New Jerwho dressed in bittercop taffeta, and the bridesmaids in white plain mustin over white silk petitionats, with trimmings of buttercup duchess satin. The bridal dinner to the at-tendants was given by Mrs. Budd, sister of the bride, Monday night preceding the wed-ding. Following the ceremony an elaborate breakfast was served by Deckmann of St Mr. W. S. Rector has leased the brick residence, corner of Twenty second and Wirt streets, Kountze Place, and has removed his family there. Colonel and Mrs. S. S. Curtis and family In the country-a grass-grown lane, a farm house and some cows, or perhaps a tempting rolling heap of rosy peaches, or a bewilder-ing mass of ragged chrysanthemums, or a guiet bit of still life, a pill of books, a rose of canatious and a wee small mouse jost showing its inquisitive head above the table-these are the modest subjects chosen by the have removed from Thirty-first and Pacific streets and are now domiciled at Thirty-ale Bauman, Miss Balley, Miss Zanuck, Miss Songster, Borsen, Peterson, Thacker, Bohaworth, Mr. Mullen and Mr. Pierre Garneau, Songster, Dorsen, Petrick, White, Schneider, nan, Elrod, Cunningham, White, Schneider, Casters, Lenz, Trout and Benning. It is the Intention of this club to give these dances

A "hard times fea" is to be given next Thursday evening from 5 until 10 o'clock in the crypt of Trinuy cathedral under the suspices of the King's Daughters. There will be some good music and an admission fee of 15 cents will be charged.

Married, in this city, on Thursday evening, October 11, 1894, by Rev. A. W. Clark, Mr. H. J. Curtiss and Mrs. Emma Roberts, The was presented among other gifts to the bride and groum of eleven years ago. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bese-lyn, Mr. and Mrs. G. Chaplin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bremmer, Mr. and Mrs. Shepard, Mt. and Mrs. Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McDermut, groom has a position in the freight depart-ment of the B. & M. railway in this city. The wolding was a quiet but very pleasant affair. After a short trip they have returned to Omaha, where they will reside.

A few weeks since Mr. E. C. Fell, junior member of the firm of Shaw & Fell, went Mrs. M. A. Taylor, Mrs. Shaw and Mr After dancing and card playing delicious east for a visit among old friends. Cards have been received which would indicate that his visit was of more importance than he would intimate when he left. The cards an-nounce the marriage of E. Chester Fell and Rachel Sara Fell, at Kelton, Pa. October 5. At home, 1102 North Twenty-fifth street, Orache eff. The first steps were successfully taken last evening at the Millard looking toward a local chapter of the American Fencers Omaha, after November 1.

Those attending the camp-fire gathering given by Mr. and Mrs. James Chambers last Saturday evening at the Griffith farm were Mr. and Mrs. Garneau, Mrs Will Wood, Mrs McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball, Miss Kim-Mrs. Love returned from a visit in Wis-McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball, Miss Kim-ball, Miss Jackson, Miss Wood, Miss Sum-mers, Miss Halcombe, Miss Yates, Miss Bes-sie Yates, Miss theway, Miss Woolworth Judge Davis, Mr. Quay, Mr. Pierro Garneau, Mr. Turner, Dr. Wilson and Dr. Summers. Miss Crebo of Eureka, Kan., is the guest Mr. C. H. Gulou, who fast week was quite Monday evening the friends of Miss Maggie

Mr. Max Meyer leaves today on a week's Gleave gave her an unusually pleasant birth-day party at her home, 3521 Webster street, Refreshments were served at 10, and the J. C. Gonden and wife have taken rooms at the Victoria for the winter. rest of the evening was devoted to cards and other social games, Mrs. R. Gleave being Miss Trencherie of Alton, III., is the guest the winner of the high five contest. Thos Mrs. and Mrs. S. J. Gleave, Mr, and Mrs. F. Miss Mayme Hutchinson has returned from

Gleave, Misses Kerniece L. Gleave, M. Gleave Messrs, Jessop Crigor and R. Gleave, The managers of the Young Women's minstrels wish to extend their thanks to Hayden Bros. for their great kindness in giving the use of their music room and piano for rehearsals and all sheet mu plane for renearsais and an out of the required; to Mrs. Cotton, who out of the readness of her heart trained goodness of her heart trained so admirably the choruses, and to Mrs. Cahn and Mrs. Wilhelm her able asaistants; to Mr. Butler and Mr. Watter for arranging music, to the Omaha Printing company and Burkley Bros. for programs and tickets and to all those, in fact, whose gencrosity made the performance the great finan ctal success it was. Among the many pleasant social events

a house in Landon Court adjoining the home of Colonel Bache. of the season none has proved more success ful than the birthday party given in honor of Miss Jennie Flannigan, at the residence of Mrs. Henry Fuhrman of Seattle, who has been visiting Mrs. Edward Rosewater, left for Norfolk Monday last. of all so sender Flatningan, at the r. J. Flanni-gan, 1112 North Seventeenth, Monday even-Mr. Frank Brown, cashier of the Millard. ing. The Junior Social club was out in and Mrs. Brown have taken rooms at the Vic-toria hotel for the winter. Miss Bache, who has been seriously iii ful refreshments were served. The hostes was the recipient of many beautiful presents for several months, is improving slowly and Dancing was the order of the evening, and i was indulged in until 1 o'clock, when the ompany dispersed. The boxes for the minstrel show on Thurs.

rick, Mr. John Patrick, Mr. Robert Patrick and Mr. John Cudahy. In box B were Mr. The fourth annual ball of U.S. Grant and Mrs. Warren Rogers, Miss Burns, Miss Kountze, Mr. Charles Kountze, In box ( Mr. and Mrs. David Baum and little were Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Yost daughter, Margaret, have returned from their

Mrs. Belden, Mrs. Lynian. Box E was oc-cupied by Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Will Redick, Miss Dandy, Mr. Dean, Mr. Redick and Mr. Quay. Mr. and Mrs. Remington, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCormick and Mr. Hilton Fonda occupied box D. In two of the upper boxes were Mr. and Mrs. Will Wyman, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Miss Curtis, Miss Wool-box in the upper tier, Mr. Guiou, Mr. Deane, Mr. Redick and Mr. Crary,

Miss Mae Lawrence entertained very pleas-Miss Mae Lawrence entertained very pleas-anily at her home on Poppleton avenue on Thursday evening, high five being the order of the evening. After an exciting series of ten games, Mrs. Van Gieson won the lady's prize, while Mr. Ponder carried off the gen-tleman's prize. Miss Jones received the lady's booby prize and Mr. Commt the gen-tleman's, A dainty lunch was served, after which dancing was induked in for a fhort fime. Those invited wore: Misseid Della Jones, N. Wells, Lillian Ponder, Sadie Mudge. Salma Fleming, Margarite Ponder, Citede Salma Fleming, Marguerite Ponder, Clyde Illanchard, Mrs. Van Gleson of Chicago and Mae Lawrence; Messrs, Hunter, Nonse, But. Adams, Conant, Stayley, Mcfett, Low, Adams Combs and Mudge.

BEAUTY CULTURE PARLORS,

EUREKA and . . . MME, YALE REMEDIES,

Scientific Facial Treatment free with $2.00 purchase. Haurdressing, shampooling, man-icuring, chiropodist, and scalp treatment. TURKISH BATH Department exclusively 109-10 BEE BUILDING.

MRS. A. S. CONVERSE,

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYD'S TONIGHT, SUNDAY. Also Monday and Tuesday, Davis and Keogh's Famous Fabric of Fan Music and Movement,

THE HUSTLER But Real, Wholesome, Anti-Billious, But Real, Wholesome, Anti-Billious, Bip-Roaring Fun!-

NOTHING BUT STOMAC1 LAUGHS! Box office open all day Sunday.

BOYD'S Wednesday-Thursday OCT 24-25. TWO NICHTS ONLY. FRANK L. BIXBY'S NEW DOMESTIC PLAY

fects. Sale opens Tuesday morning at prices. 550 reserved seats at 50 cents each.

15th ST. THEATER. POPULAR PRICES Telephone 1531. 4 Nights, Communing Sunday Matinee, Oct. 21

"UHEER UP, WILLIE," AND GO SEE CONROY & FOX IN "HOT TAMOLES"

"HOT STUF, NUF SED" MATINEE WEDNESDAY COMING OCT. 25, 26, 27. ..... TALLOW CANDLE

The hostess day night were filled as follows: Box A was occupied by Mr, and Mrs. J. N. H. Pat Box A SHAFT NO.

Interpreted by Frank Losee and a Grand Cast. The most perfectly staged of all modern productions. A play full of heart and home. Embed justed with magnificent security and startling e-

550 Reserved Scats at 50 Cents Each.

for indies

Removed from Karbach Blk.

the Columbian exposition. This Roman arlist excells in architectural details of Oriental interiors, rich warm color and true definea-Hon of the human form. His nude figure of the "Slave" is one of glowing beauty.

Another Oriental subject on the same wall is "The Brass Workers," by Ernst, and the property of Mrs. Edward A. Cudahy-an at-monk in the garb of the Capuchin order seated in a monastery court at the base of a flight of stone steps, engaged in the labor ions task of threading a needle. The artist is G. Vitali, whose second piece. "At the Rendezvouz," hangs near by A Roman beauty of the present day is posed gracefully be-neath a flower-bedecked balcony, waiting for the cavaller who is momentarily expected. The background shows a glimpse of snow white villa, half hidden in lemon trees heavy with fruit; a tall, dark cypress tree stands sentinel at the gate, and over all a clear liquid blue sky shows the Italian influences nder which the picture was painted. Both of these subjects are the property of Miss

Two fine examples of the French school, a landscape by De Byon and "Hunting Scene," are owned by Hon. J. M. Woolworth. The latter shows two splendid pointers and car-ries one irresistibly to the hunting field. It will be enjoyed by all true lovers of field

Mrs. Frank Johnson loans three beautiful pictures one by Jerome Ferris is especially so-"Card Players" shows three courtly cava-liers in Lious XVI, costume seated at a small table. The game has been interrupted and the are engaged in animated chat, presumably discussing a phase of the latest court intrigue. The picture is highly finished and full of color and has the soft effect seen in medallion painting on ivory. "Mistress Kate" represents a dainty maid" in an old-fashioned gown and big black hat, carrying her arm full of pink roses. It is by Leon Moran. "Afternoon Visit" represents two charmins women in pompadour costume seated on a marble bench in a park, with a background Odell's f soft green foliage. It is signed by Porcy

'Autumn in Province" by Conti takes on to the woods in France when nature has put to the woods in France when nature has put on her fall mantle and clothed herself in teresting assemblage of happy faces, made wivid ceds and yellow browns. The owner the place a very cheerful one. Dr. Wornvivid reds and yellow browns. The owner the place a very cheerful one. Dr. Worn-is Mrs. Cecilia A. Collins, who has many orsley presided and assured the pastor and valuable pictures in this collection, among the most striking being "Moor Guarding the the most striking being 'Moor Guarding the excellent music on the organ; Mr. Lansing, Arsenal' by Rumeros, who painted it in Algiers. It represents a strong, swarthy teor, and Mrs. Elision of Chicago, con-traito, sang a duet; Mrs. L. T. Sunderland, a standing in a listening attitude with rifle in hand to signal the approach of the enemy, quarter, sung a song which was quite The picture has been exhibited in Milan, worthy of the demanded encore. Dr. Odeil Rome and Paris.

and Paris. Another gem in the same collection is "Gossip at the Well" by Corille, the famous terest, as told in the pastor's happy mod. Neapolitan painter of figures. A group of The ladies of the society served refreshments peasants are gathered around a big marble basin, and while one of the women is washing linen another is repeating the gossip of the day. The picture is full of gayety of color and excellent technique.

"A Country Stream" by Van Etten, owned by Mr. George Wright of Council Bluffs, is a delightful landscape to gaze upon. It is restful and so delicately handled that one longs to escape from the noise and busy rush of the city and find quiet in just such a referent B is the method of the second retreat. It is the work of Harry Young, whose picture, "Meadow Land." shows him to be a landscapist of a high order. "Visit to the Ship" by Fred S. Cozzens is a soft marine full of greys, and the blending tones of sky and sea form a perfect harmony of color

"The Visit" by Percy Moran discloses ; The Viait by Percy Moran disciones a pretty garden of a country house, where a group of charmingly gowned women have taken their embroidery into the open air and are working on a frame at a bit of tapestry. One has just pushed aside a quaint oid chair to rise and greet the friends who are calling. in the most bewitching of grey poke bonnets. A little miss in old fashioned gown becomes the central figure and the picture is as fresh and sweet as a day in June could make it.

the jake revived of a quarter of a century ago when Backus was alive. The opening meeting of Unity club was held t the church parlor last Friday evening. There was considerable applause when an The elub is again divided into three sections, woman asked what Ireland would do it ran out of saints. Some one suggested which alternate on successive Friday eventhat she might come to Omaha. Why come to Omaha? an inquiring turn of mind sugings, one for the study of economics, one for the study of Shakespeare, with occasional "Because she could find Patricks dramatic entertainments, and the third takug up contemporary poets. nough here There is also a lecture section in connection

Then there was a fishing contest, and one Then there was a naming contest, and one woman baited her hook with limberger cheese because she was angling for German carp. And it was with thoughts like these that the night was made memorable by the women who hid behind a coating of burnt with the club, the lectures to be given in the main audience room of the church the first and third Sunday evenings of each month. The opening lecture will be this evening by Rev. N. M. Mann. Subject. ork that the children of the Creche might What We Know About the Size and Weight have a winter home of the Stars."

gented.

Welcomed Their Pastor Back.

Thursday evening the members and con-regation of Beth Edge Davids the David States and Congregation of Beth Edon Baptist church gave opening remarks said. "Lest some one should to their pastor and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. be looking for something not included in the Odell, a very hearty reception upon Dr. plan of study, it may be well to state at the outset what is included and what is omitted. return from a three months' through Europe. The audience room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with tour The specialties into which Spakesp arean crit cism have developed will not be discussed flowers and autuminal leaves of many bright hues, which, under the light, before an in-The aim will be to look at a play as a whole lirecting the attention specially to its structure and ethical development." The postical section of the club will hold its first meeting next Friday evening. October 26 One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was the dancing party given by La. Ross Social club at the Royal Arcanum hall Friday evening. At 8:15 the members and in the parlors of the church after the pro-

Manhattan Social Club

Friday evening the above named club gave Hoyman, Grace Mardell, L. Powell, Jennie ne of its successful and enjoyable parties at Rosengreen, Donaldson and Miss Drisbach Erfling hall.

Rossengrava, Denadoson and Mira Dribbach of Council Bluffs; Mesara, Ambrose Ellington, Mess, Powell, Gosney, Goodrich, Solomen, Ress, Holton, Augustine, Cook, Williams, Cultra, Kessler, Vandervoort, McNair, Edg-Among those present were noticed: Mr and Mrs. A. L. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Collins, Misses Garretty, Reynolds, Riley, Swenby, Scott, Hoolihan. Whelan albert. Colbert, Swenby, Scott, Hoolihan, Whelan, Dailey, McQuillan, Younge, Vandorhoof, Nes-tlebush, Martin, Vorwald, E. Vorwald, C. Vorwald, Conell, Measrs, Murphy, Timmins, J. Reynolds, T. Reynolds, Burnett, Riley, Windheim, Fyfe, Johnson, Leighty, McQuil-ian, Gilbert, Vanderhoof, Carlin, Kirk, Mc-Cormack, O'Donnell, Donahoe, Rhodes, Walkin, Morrinay, Cablan, Mahonoy, hill, Cleveland, Buelow, Van Dorn, Buzzell and Dolovan. The program, which was protty and unique, consisted of twenty dances. Woodmen of the World. Camp Walnut, Cormack, O'Donnell, Donahoe, B. Walkin, Morrissey, Cahalan, Mahoney, No. 15, of Howe, Neh., gave an entortain

Chosen Friends Entertain.

About 350 guests were present, including a large delegation from Stella, and visitors also In their hall in the top floor of The Bee building Tuesday evening Excelsior council from Auburn and Nemaha Ciry. Manager George Harris and his Evans quartet of Stella furnished the music, and Rev. Price of the Order of Chosen Friends gave one of their monthly socials and receptions to the public. The hall was well filled with mem-bers and citizens who came to see and learn of one of the most useful and popular ment was made up of home talent, except

The bridal party entered the church to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march. led by Mr. Silas A. Wallace, with Miss Kate Brantner, followed by Mr. Fred E. G. Kuchn with Miss Lidia Harpster, and Mr. Ernest C. Kalser of Denver, as best man, with Miss Kate Hempsel as maid of honor; then came the groom, with the bride's mother, and the bride on the arm of her father. After an artistic rendition of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" by the full choir, of which Miss Felle was formally a member, the nuptials were solemnized by Rev. A. J. Turkle.

After the ceremony the wedding party rewired to the home of the bride, where delicious repast was served, followed by reception to the friends of the bride and

The happy couple took the evening train for Kansas City, from whence they will proceed to Chicago and return to Omaha, where they will be at home at 1112 South Eleventh street

All the Saints See Living Pictures.

The announcement of the first entertain ent of the church year, given by All, and Saints' ladies at Metropolitan hall, caused futter of joy among many young and old hearts in and out of the parish. These so-cials and informal dances, with mental refreshments preceding, were very popular among Rev. T. J. Mackay's parishioners last season and bid fair to be even more so the coming year. Effective 'Hving pictures.' with musical interpolations by Mrs. Rogers, Miss Wagener and Mrs. Morton, called "Van ity." "The Introduction and the Rebuff." and Reconciliation. entertained the onlookers

Mrs. Partridge, Mrs. James and Mrs. Cady formed the soliciting committee, Mrs. Whitmoe, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. Shackelford and Miss Yatum were the entertainment committee, and Mrs. Ames ar-ranged for the hall and advertising. Following the graceful tableaux was dancing, with and was the guest of Mrs. Remington Not light refreshments.

Anderson and Ervin.

A quiet wedding occurred on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Mr. Charles Anerson and Miss Grace Ervin, the pretty and attractive daughter of Mrs. Mary Ervin of Omaha, were united in marriage by Judge Wordell P. Cos, at his realdence in Benson The bride, who is one of Omaha's popular young ladies, was becomingly attired in a me navy blue suit, with a dainty hat handso match Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home to their friends at 212 North Seventeenth street after October 24.

Hard James Surprise

Answering the door bell Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foster were greatly surprised to find a number of their friends. all in "hard times," apparel. their friends began to assemble, and at 3 the dancing began with a grand march led by Mr. I. L. Holton and Miss Ada Hey-man, followed by about ten couples of en-thusiastic lovers of the dance. Among those present were: Misses Anna Heywood, Gallatin, May Hill, Carrie Erric-son, Emma Duncan, Edna Jones, Ollie Crowley, E. Price, Isabell Muldoon, Ada Hoyman, Grace Mardell, L. Powell, Jonnia

Looking Toward a Fencing Club.

Doings in Society.

Mrs. W. J. Broatch is still in the east and

Mr. Jeff W. Bedford has changed his resi-

Mr. Edward Lee and son, Vernon, rein the seventh floor of the Bee building. Miss Flora G. Chamberlain, who has been spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. V. H. Bartlett, left Saturday for New York stopping enroute at Waterloo and Chicago. There will be an adjourned meeting of the Creche board and association at the Creche Monday, October 22, at 2:30 p. All members are urged to be present. J. Barrows, secretary.

Mrs. S. C. Carson and daughter have been visiting friends at Hartington and St. James. Mrs. Carson has returned home, but Miss Mrs. Cora Carson will remain and teach No. school near St. James.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Gould and Miss Deming of Michigan City, Ind., who has spent a few weeks with Mrs. Gould in Bellwood, were the guests of Colonel and Mrs. Armstrong until Monday.

The art exhibit will be open today from 6 o'clock. The exhibit is one of the if not the very best. Omaha has seen, the art-loving public ought to avail itself of the opportunity to see this exhibit

Judge E. Wakeley is expected home this moraing, after a week's absence in Madi-son, Wis., where he was called by the sud-den death of his brother. Hon, Charles Wakeley, a prominent member of the bar at that place

Mrs. H. G. Rockfellow of Sherman avenue Better Investigate ntertained a number of guests Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Rockfellow's sister, Mrs. Henman, and her daughter, who, after Before Purchasing spending the summer in Omaha, intend leave, for their homes in New York Tuesday f next week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Woodruff, editor and publisher of the Tekamah Burtonian, came to hear the debate between Thurston and Bryan son. Mrs. Woodruff occupies a place in "Women of the Century" through her work as editorial writer.

Mr. J. M. Woolworth and Miss Wool-worth left Friday for Washington, D. C., where they will remain a week. Mr. Woolworth will then return to Omaha, but his daughter will join Mrs. Howard in New York City, where she will in all probability pass the entire winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Palmatier have returned from their wedding tour, which was in and around Denver, Colorado spent Springs, Maniton, For the present and un-til their new home is completed they will be with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Haskell, 1424 North Eighteenth street. The O. M. B. Social club gave their first party in Morand's assembly rooms last Wed-nesday. The following members and their friends were present. Misses Alma Lindquist, Place your order now for stationery -we are showing many new tints in paper that it will be worth your while to inspect.

RAYMOND, 15th and Douglas, JEWELER.

Garments

In New Styles that are confined to our house for Omaha.

Cost to you is no more than for last year's shapes.

We will be pleased to have you see them.

J.K.SCOFIELD CLOAKS SUITS FURS Cor. 16th and Farnam Sts., OMAHA PAXTON BLOCK.

MONDAY will be ROCKER day in SHIVERICK'S OCTOBER SALE, when we shall inaugurate the greatest sale of Rockers ever made in Omaha.

Fine Seal Skin Garments a specialty,