

GOSSIP OF THE CRIDIRON

Nebraska's Victory Over Iowa Saturday the Result of Superior Play.

HOW THE BIG TEAMS FARED THAT DAY

Princeton Diappoints Her Friends—Pennsylvania Tackles a Surprise Party—Yale and Harvard Show Up Strongly in Their Contests.

Nebraska university last Iowa college Saturday at Lincoln by a score of 22 to 0. Nebraska had a strong team up and played harder ball than she had ever before put into a game.

Yale and Harvard have already been scored against in the games Saturday brought the same fate to Princeton and Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania had a rather narrow escape from being beaten Saturday. She played another game with the Crescent Athletic club, whom she had beaten already by a score of 22 to 0.

WHAT YALE HAS TO SHOW. In the game with the Orange Athletic club Hinkley put in a team that was almost the very best that Yale has ever had.

Butterworth has reappeared with Yale, and has started again in the best position. His eyes still bother him, but not to a great extent.

FOR THE PAST SEVERAL DAYS it has been painfully evident that there has been something different about the game.

AS WHOLE THE TEAM is not playing the kind of football that has been characteristic of the team in the past.

PENNSYLVANIA'S GOOD WORK. Pennsylvania has been doing remarkably good work.
