

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $1.00...

Omaha, The Bee Building, South Omaha, Cor. 14th and Twenty-fourth Sts.

ADVERTISING: All communications relating to news and editorial business should be addressed to the Editor.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION: George B. Tschick, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, deposes that the actual number of full and complete copies of this Daily Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of September, 1894, was as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Day, Copies, Total. Rows include Daily, Sunday, and Total for various months.

GEORGE B. TSCHICK, Notary Public.

This mild weather is readily traceable to the heat of the campaign.

President Cleveland is patiently observing that much commended rule that speech is silver and silence golden.

Now that the German emperor's story has been set to English verse his literary fame may be regarded as established.

Governor McKinley could not resist the invitation to spend just a little time in West Virginia putting a few spikes in Chairman Wilson's political coffin.

Euclid Martin says that the Save-the-State cry is not in the interest of Majors, but of Sturdevant.

Euclid Martin wants a correction of a misstatement that he would doubtless vote for Majors.

Signers of the Rail and Business Men's manifesto are tumbling over one another to repudiate any sympathy with the cause of calamity.

China and Japan have tacitly agreed to an intervention in their little fracas to enable the newspaper reading public in the United States to devote their entire attention to the battle of the ballots scheduled for the first Tuesday in November.

Senator Allison is shrewdly seeing to it that the roots of his presidential boom be not confined to a single state.

Three weeks ago Judge Brewer told a representative of The Bee that his decision in the maximum freight rate case would be rendered within the next week.

Ex-Speaker Reed made his address to the Hamilton club of Chicago a magnificent tribute to Alexander Hamilton, the father of the American system of protection, after whom the club was named.

An honest assessment and a low tax rate must go hand in hand.

The text of the canal proposition as now advertised in The Bee is the best explanation of the conditions of the proposed issue of bonds that is to be had.

According to the Chicago Herald, "every intelligent person knows that the senate sugar scandal investigating committee was appointed to whitewash and not to find out."

Some of the men whose names appear on the Railroad Business Men's manifesto urging all to unite in preserving the credit of the state by electing the tattooed candidate for governor appear also as signers of the appeal of the democratic rump bidding for support for the s. d. ticket (straight democrat or straw dummy, as is preferred).

COUNTY BOND CURRENCY.

Notwithstanding the plank contained in the democratic national platform demanding the repeal of the tax on state bank issues, congress firmly set its face against a return to the days of red dog bank notes and wildcat currency.

Against a county bond currency the same objections may be urged as against the state bank notes. While most states place some restrictions upon the issue of county bonds, limiting their amount and prescribing measures for their redemption, yet these restrictions are so varied in different states and so inadequate in some of them that there must necessarily arise differences in the value of the bonds.

Only two weeks remain from now till election day. Barring the concern which every citizen in the state has in the political contest, the citizens of Omaha and Douglas county are vitally interested in the proposition to vote aid to the projected Platte river canal.

NO LONGER IN DOUBT.

Nobody is calling New York a doubtful state any longer.

SIZE OF CLEVELAND'S OBLIGATION.

Cleveland made a large invoice of ribbon, amounting to some 3,000 cartons.

UPWARD TENDENCY OF PRICES.

A forced auction sale of a large invoice of ribbon, amounting to some 3,000 cartons, was held in New York Thursday.

A TRAIT FOR WAR.

The opposition which was shown toward the government at the last session of Parliament in Japan was so pronounced that the mikado proposed that legislative bodies should be abolished.

EVIDENCE OF GOOD TIMES.

If the testimony to the good times should have come from democratic sources alone it might have been set down to partisan opinion.

JACKSONIAN STATESHIPSHIP.

The methods of state shipmanship in use in Hayti are to be unreservedly commended.

IS CLEVELAND A TRAITOR?

While, of course, a word from the president would go a long way in undoing the harm that has been done by his delay, it would be impossible for him to cancel the resulting effects resulting from his peculiar course.

DEPRESSION AND MONEY SUPPLY.

For the purpose of relieving their party of the responsibility for the depression democrats assert that the hard times were due to a lack of money.

THE SUPPLY OF MONEY WAS STEADILY BEING INCREASED.

There was more currency in the country in 1893 than during the previous year of unprecedented industrial activity and business prosperity, but it was not wanted in business.

It is certainly strange that the party machines in this county should find suitable men for positions as judges and clerks of election so scarce that they should place upon their list of recommendations the names of nearly every ward hunker and political hack who has preyed upon party spoils for years past.

ABOUT THE ANNOUNCEMENT WIRED OVER THE LAND.

That Henry W. Yates, president of the Nebraska National, and a life-long democrat, would support Mr. Majors for governor, the Chicago Tribune exclaims: "A thunder-bolt could not have produced a more electrifying effect."

Redmond Gets One-Fourth of the Money to Pay Off Farrell's Debts—The Other £30,000 to Go to the Evicted Tenants.

DUBLIN, Oct. 23.—The Freeman's Journal announces that the sums of money subscribed for the Irish cause, generally known as the Paris funds, are now in the hands of Justice McCarthy, chairman of the Irish National party.

PROPEL AND THINGS.

The president is disposed to give Hill a monopoly of the thing.

The "Song to Aeger" is intended to fortify Emperor William's claims as a divine writer.

The wild tumultuous silence of Grover Cleveland provokes traitorous hisses inside the past breachwork.

The slating of the ameer of Afghanistan on the royal sick list has reinvigorated the bearded pun his title suggests.

Susan B. Anthony and Mary Lease are more than ready to debate the merits of the cause.

Two discredited chiefs are about to retire permanently to private life.

Mineral development in the great Leadville district of Colorado is progressing at a lively pace.

General Eric S. Parker, who served with distinction on the staff of General Grant during the war, is reported to be seriously ill at Fairport, Conn.

FOUR MONKEYS' WORTH OF YOUR MONEY BACK.

Tsai-Yen.

The Tsai is the Chinese unit of value worth today about 68 cents in U. S. money.

We shall send our lives together.

I am sorry for you, Harry.

For with you I'll be a martyr.

I will be your friend; and then, too—

"The two of us will be a pair."

"For I'll never be a brother."

"No, not that; for I've just promised I shall be your own stepmother."

HER FORT.

New York Sun.

She is fond of all athletics, they are her strong points.

At tennis, ball, and rowing she is simply out of sight.

But at present she has banished all these pleasures from her mind.

For she loves a game of foot ball more than all the rest combined.

She wishes that she was a man some twenty times a day.

It makes her mad to tell her that she must hold to play.

I always see her on the grounds whenever there's a game.

But she says she's looking at it monotonous and tame.

Of course, you say, she'd be no use upon a foot ball team.

But she says, "I'll tell me, are not always what they seem."

"The truth is in the rush line she'd be nothing but a dandy full back; you should make a dandy full back; you ought to see her kick."
